Theatres Offer Attractive Shows

Drama, Vaudeville and Motion Picture Bills Promise Something Good.

PORTLAND is once more coming into its own, in regard to the quantity and quality of dramatic attractions, which each week brings to the local playhouses. The next theatrical offering which will be placed invitingly before the playgoers embraces many of the well known stars of filmdom, which is closely paralleled in the vaudeville and speaking drama business.

HEILIG—"Pom Pom," the fascinating little pickpocket, is to be with us this coming week, when impersonated by the famous M. J. Frankel, one of the hearts of Heilig audiences in the comic opera of that name. "Pom Pom" is a Henry W. Savage production, which means that strong supporting cast, orchestra and scenic designs will be of the highest calibre.

MARY GARDEN, incomparable artist, world famed prima donna, is the featured player in "Thais," which is being shown at the Majestic commencing today and continuing for the week.

COLUMBIA—Commencing Sunday, the Columbia will show two of the most interesting features it has ever billed: one of them, "The Night Owls," and all with Jack Pickford plays the role of Davy Glidden, a patriotic youngster of the Middle West, who, assisted by a number of old Civil war veterans, saves his home town from destruction at the hands of German spies.

PEOPLES—Douglas Fairbanks in "A Modern Musketeer," has proven such a drawing card, and the demand to see the play is so great, that the management of the Peoples has decided to extend its run for an additional three days, until Wednesday.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister. As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frost-bite and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

PARKER'S HAIR BALM
Helps to eradicate dandruff. For Restoring Color and Softening to Curly Hair. 50c and $1.00 at Druggists.

"YOU" is the title of a very clever comedy sketch, which is one of the headliners of the next Orpheum bill, and Bessie Rempel is at the head of the company that is presenting it.

Thacker, has made many new admirers as well as fully satisfying his old ones.

STAR—Margarita Fischer in "Molly Go Get 'Em," at the Star beginning today, has one of the tom-boy roles which have made her so great a favorite with movie fans. Molly is the story and as the 17-year-old, who cannot make her debut until an older sister is married, and Molly's machinations, to escape the embargo, are most amusing. Charlie Chaplin, in "The Jitney Elopement," is the other feature of the bill.

SUNSET—"On Trial," one of the strongest photoplays ever presented, is to be the new bill at the Sunset from Sunday to Thursday of this coming week. "On Trial" is the story and as the trial for murder and the testimony of the different witnesses is shown in a series of pictures representing their sworn statements in an amusing comedy completes the program.

Stock Offerings
BAKER—"On Trial," the next attraction at the Baker, starting Sunday, offers exceptional opportunities for emotional acting in the roles of which the various players of the Alcazar Stock company should show to great advantage. The play starts with the trial for murder and the testimony of the first witness is called the lights are dimmed and from then on the testimony is enacted as the witnesses are supposed to be describing it. Edward Everett Horton is the defendant and Ruth Gates has the part of his wife. The week after the Alcazar players will present "It Pays to Advertise."

LYRIC—"The Night Owls," a musical comedy with plenty of plot and action, will be the bill at the Lyric, commencing Sunday with the matinee. In it, Dillon and Frank have delightful comedy roles, and the rest of the company is happily cast. Tuesday is Country Store night and Friday, as usual, the Chorus Girls' contest.

ORPHEUM—The coming show at the Orpheum is to be another of the four star variety, the headliners being the Four Marx Brothers and company, over 20 in "Home Again," a musical comedy; Comfort and King, noted black face funmakers, in "Coontown variety; George Austin Murray, and Cordelia Hauger, just back from a world tour, in a singing-dancing number, and Bessie Rempel and her players in a symbolical playlet called, "You." Other acts in the playlets company, Russian singers and dancers, Doc O'Neil, in fun-making, and "Five of Clubs" in an act entitled, "A Pierrot's Dream."

HIPPODROME—The new bill at the Hippodrome starting Sunday is said to be the best the local playhouse has ever shown. The headline acts are Visions of Art, in which beautiful women are posed in representation of a group of famous pictures and groups of statuary, and a comedy playlet, "The Heart of the Canyon," by Mignery, Courtney and company. Other numbers are Valle, the celebrated accordion player; Rice, Belland and Baldwin in a novelty, "Geometric Number," and Hager in "A Courtship in Song." Photoplay features Little Madge Evans, in "The Volunteer."

PANTAGES—The bill at Pantages for the coming week will be headlined by an unusual feature, a group of trained lions and a remarkable demonstration of a man's power over them. Other attractions include Marjorie Lake, a former Portland favorite in a musical success, "College Days;" Grindell and Esther in songs and dances; Erna Antonia in a singing number; Burke Tourney in "A Little Bit of Everything;" and Harry Reichman in songs and patter. The photoplay for the week is an additional feature.

STRAND—The photoplay feature at the Strand commencing Sunday, is "Face Value," in which Mae Murray, the Nell Brinkley girl, has the leading role. Headliner of the vaudeville program is Jacob, a bucking mule. Other numbers are "The Green Girl," with Red Dillon and Frank, daily matinee 2:30; evening 7:15. Added attraction "The Country Store."

New President To Be Guest At Luncheon

Mrs. G. J. Frankel Will Be Honored by Women's Cooperative League on Feb. 2.

MRS. G. J. FRANKEL, the newly elected president of the City Federation of Women's Organizations, will be honored at a large luncheon to be given Saturday, February 2, at the East Side clubhouses by the Women's Cooperative League, whose presiding officer she has been since its organization and from that time forward after being made president of the federation. Guests at the luncheon will be the officers of the federation, including Mrs. G. J. Frankel, and other ladies who have by that time voted to federate, each president being a vice president in the federation.

The Army and Navy auxiliary, with headquarters at 411 Morrison street, is finding many avenues of activity for its members. The auxiliary is doing sewing and knitting for the Red Cross, and is devoting two days a week to the Red Cross. A committee of five or six members goes to the barracks at Vancouver every Saturday night to deliver music and cards for their entertainment. The headquarters are open every day from 10 o'clock, and more workers are needed for bandaging, knitting, and other war work. The auxiliary has secured relief for the needy families of soldiers, secured employment for rejected men and women, and is doing much for the sick. Mrs. G. M. Nolan is president of the auxiliary.

The Social Science club met Tuesday in room A, Central library. After a business session of the executive board the meeting was opened to members and visitors. Committees reports showed the club has been active along all lines of constructive work. A study of parliamentary law was taken up under the leadership of Philip Gevurtz, and one-half hour will be devoted to each meeting. Dr. Douglas of Reed college spoke on "World Democracy." The Social Science club meets every first and third Tuesday of each month.

The Dalles chapter of the Girls National Honor guards, in the eight months of its existence, has raised more than $1000 and has disbursed the bulk of it to patriotic causes. The guard gathers weekly for study and practice in giving dances, a street carnival, rummage sales, bazaar, etc., earning all of its money, never having asked for monetary contributions. The girls' splendid record and a decided credit to the young women who have directed its affairs.

The Current Literature department of the Portland Woman's club was delighted Friday afternoon at the meeting of Mrs. D. M. Watson on Cornell road, with Mrs. Caroline Dunlap, Mrs. A. G. Dayton and Mrs. Aaron Tilser as joint hostesses. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock, there being 60 present. Mrs. Helen Miller Sem continued her reading of plays and tales by Lord Dunsany and Lady Gregory.

The Milwaukee Red Cross unit meets every Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the high school. Last Monday's meeting was well attended. Miss Minturn was elected president to replace Mrs. Campbell, who resigned. Work finished for the month of December consisted of 36 bed shirts 24 pajama suits, 6 sweaters, 2 pairs socks, 1 scarf, 41 sewers and knitters are requested to attend.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Visiting Nurse association was held January 8 in the association rooms, 428 Medical building. The following report was given of the work for the month of December: General work—Patients cared for, 174; visits, 450. Tuberculosis work—Patients cared for, 101; visits, 190.

The Red Cross auxiliary of the Woman's club of Redmond is working very hard to get ready for the coming year. Many are knitting and the rest are sewing. Several shipments of finished work have been sent to the Bend chapter, of which the Redmond chapter is an auxiliary.

Grand Ronde proved loyal to the country Saturday evening, January 12, by giving a basket social and dance at the Grand Ronde hotel for the benefit of the Red Cross society, at which the sum of $25.50 was netted.

The executive board of the Portland Parent-Teacher Council will meet Friday afternoon at 3:45 in room 551 at the courthouse.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES
On Monday evening the girls of the J. U. G. club of 714 W. C. A. will entertain a number of their friends from Olds, Wortman & King's store at a roller skating party at the Oaks rink.

Bed Time Tales

BY DR. WARREN G. PARTRIDGE

JIMMY COON likes to have the help of Teddy Possum in his pranks, because Teddy is also full of fun. You see, Teddy Possum had told Jimmy Coon the secret place where Mr. Black Snake had left his cast-off suit of clothes.

And you would have chuckled with merriment, if you had seen Jimmy Coon and Teddy Possum take that cast off Spring-suit of Mr. Black Snake, and stuff it full of moss! Why, the two scamps got so excited, that they rushed back and forth, as if crazy, getting big handfuls of moss, to stuff that skin of Mr. Black Snake!

Mr. Black Snake was very large for his age; and he wore a very big size of clothes. And when Jimmy Coon and Teddy Possum had stuffed that old Teddy Possum suit with moss, they thought it was a live snake, trying to choke him to death. And Teddy Possum screamed with fear, and almost had a fit.

And Teddy Possum screamed with fear, and almost had a fit. And you would have shouted with merriment if you had seen those two rogues get up and begin to stuff the cast-off suit of Mr. Green Snake with moss. And at last they stuffed the skin so full of moss that you would certainly have thought it was Mr. Green Snake himself. And it was an amusing sight to see Jimmy Coon start off with Mr. Black Snake around his neck, while Teddy Possum wound Mr. Green Snake around his precious neck and shoulders. And they laughed and laughed, as they trudged for the home of Peter Rabbit, to give him the scare of his short life.

Monday—Jimmy Coon's Prank Works Like a Charm on Peter Rabbit.

Beauty Chat

Evade Colds
WITH the chilly blasts of winter upon them, timid women become sick of colds and coughs. They seek the sedative influence of tepid water but postpone the stimulating cold plunge until warmer days.

While it is true that not all women derive benefit from cold baths, yet a majority do, both in winter and summer. Pale and waxy whiteness of the face and body after a cold plunge means that the energizer is not beneficial to you. It naturally checks the system, and unless there is a proper reaction it may prove injurious. But when the skin responds with a glow you can be sure that cold water is beneficial.

Women who bathe in cold water every day are not often bothered by colds and other ailments common to the winter season. A cold bath stimulates the circulation, increases the flow of blood, and gives the system a shock to the system such a bath is beneficial.

Bathing has a physiological and psychological effect that has been recognized in all ages. We of today have special advantages, for our water systems have been perfected and it is no longer necessary to enjoy the benefits of a bath. The thought of a cold bath, when the mercury is around zero, may make you chilly, but a plunge in cold water will ward off chills of a more serious character. The cold bath will work wonders, while the hot toddy proves injurious.

Monday—Whistle.

Reed College Is Giving Show In at Wrong Time

Comedy Comes In at Wrong Time
Drama Club Offers Interesting Program—Portable Show House Is Sought.

Students of the Reed College Drama club gave an interesting program of plays last evening which will be repeated tonight at the college. A small audience is being charged in view of the fact that the proceeds are to go to a fund being raised for the purchase of a portable theatre, on the style of the famous Portmanteau theatre, which Stuart Walker and his extremely clever players made famous.

The plays produced by the Reed players were "Cathleen Ni Houlihan," a drama by William B. Yeats, dealing with the patriotic spirit of Ireland. The second play is a farce, "A Man Can Only Do His Best," by Kenneth S. Goodman, in which life in France in the eighteenth century is portrayed.

FRATERNAL NOTES

The new officers of Rose City camp, M. W. A., will in their stations for the first time Wednesday evening, every officer being present. Plans were laid for promotion and entertainment work during the coming year and a committee appointed to have charge consisting of Consul F. J. Davis, J. P. Vollmar, J. J. Gotthardt, W. F. Coffey and J. W. Simmons. A series of entertainments, consisting of stags, card parties and dances is being arranged. Consul F. J. Davis has been elected as the new musician for the year and J. P. Shrader as captain of the team.

The growth of the different Woodmen of the World camps in this city exceeds that of any other fraternity. The three largest, Multnomah, Webfoot and Rose City, took in over 200 new members in December, and are doing as well during January.

Bonnie Rose castle, Royal Highlanders, last Tuesday night entertained some 200 members and guests at the Woodmen hall, East Sixth and East Alder streets, with dancing and cards. The drill team had charge of it, and acquitted itself with good credit.

There is a demand in the Odd Fellow lodges for young men. So many have gone to the support of the flag that the lodges have a shortage of members. A young man learns a great deal in a good lodge, and his enthusiasm and energy are appreciated in the L. O. O. F.

Ononta tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, Thursday night authorized the holding of an entertainment for the night of February 21 to raise funds to help pay for a post hospital van for Oregon, which will be one of 60 raised by the order in the United States and presented to Uncle Sam.

Williamette tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, will consider ways and means to raise more money for its post hospital van fund at its meeting Monday night. The Red Men are determined to place the Oregon councils at the head in this respect.

PORTLAND SERBIANS WELCOME DELEGATION FROM PARIS SOCIETY

Three hundred Serbians, residents of Portland, gathered at the Alisky building Thursday night to greet the Serbian mission sent out from the parent organization known as the Serbian union, of Paris, on a tour of the United States. The delegation is representative of an organization promoted by Serbians, since the outbreak of the war, for the purpose of establishing closer relations among the Serbian Slavic people and to aid as much as possible the allies in prosecution of the conflict.

The active heads of the union are in Paris, and are men, formerly permanent leaders, who have been impressed by King Nicholas for their activities conducted before the war. They are touring the United States, delivering to their fellow countrymen the doctrine of democracy and urging all Serbians to stay by the principles and war aims of the allies. All Serbians in this country are being urged by them to support the United States in whatever place they are needed, whether it be in the army or in the industries.

The mission will leave today for California and two days spent among the Serbians of Portland, previous to which they were in Seattle.

Confidence of Court Abused by Prisoner

Arthur Smith, Who Confessed to Having Impersonated Soldier, Allowed to Go Home to Change Clothes.
Arthur Smith, arrested for impersonating a soldier and arranged Friday in Municipal court before Judge Fosman, betrayed the court's faith when he was allowed to leave the jail long enough to get his civilian clothes.

Smith was facing a vagrancy charge, Judge Fosman did not want him to wear the uniform of a soldier any longer when, by his own confession, Smith was an impostor.

"I will give you a chance to go to your room and get your civilian clothes," said the judge, "but you will return here within an hour and start serving your sentence."

"It is right back," said Smith, "I did not yet put in his appearance at the police station and a warrant was issued for his re-arrest."

New York Women Will Equip Hospital

New York, Jan. 19.—(L. N. S.)—Women physicians of this city are raising money to equip a hospital for women in France. It was announced Friday Mrs. Benjamin Lathrop of San Francisco, who has been in France at the head of dispensaries conducted by the American fund for French wounded spoke at a meeting this afternoon. She said that the women of France needed medical care as well as the wounded.

BAKER'S COCOA HAS GREAT FOOD VALUE

THE food value of cocoa has been proven by centuries of use, and dietitians and physicians the world over are enthusiastic in their endorsements of it. It is said to contain more nourishment than beef, in a more readily assimilated form. The choice, however, should be a high-grade cocoa,—"Baker's" of course.

IT IS DELICIOUS, TOO Trade-mark on every package

Made only by Walter Baker & Co. Ltd. Established 1780

Salem, Or., Jan. 19.—Officials of the Southern Pacific have called the attention of the public service commission to an error in a statement recently made that said company had no provision in its tariff for equipping freight cars with grain doors.

Attention is called to the following provision in the company's tariffs, which applies to all its lines in Oregon except the Klamath Falls branch:

"If cars furnished for loading grain in bulk are not properly equipped with grain doors, and there are no grain doors on hand at the loading point, agents should report facts by wire to division superintendent, and upon receipt of authority from him, this lumbering car should be placed in a hot or cold bath, the room should be warm. Indeed, it is more important to regulate the temperature in the bathroom than any other apartment in your home. Few people bathe too much, but many do not bathe enough. The cleaning qualities of a cold plunge are very moderate. The body demands hot water and soap. Unless the skin is properly cleaned it fails to perform its functions and your health is endangered."

Water treatments are very simple and effective. There is nothing more soothing than a warm or tepid bath. Naturally, such a bath fits in just before retiring. It is the enemy of insomnia, hysteria, worry, depression, irritability, self-consciousness and excited nerves. It is more helpful than a narcotic and visitors can come from it. When your limbs are weary and ache, or if you are wrought up and restless, try a tepid bath before retiring and your head will rest so peacefully.

After exercising, sleeping or a long period of inactivity, a cold bath has its place. Following a day of strain, worry or excitement a warm bath will tempt you to restful sleep.

Even the bath taken at moderate temperature will stir up your sluggish organs and circulation. It will bring the blushing corpuscles from their resting places. When cold water is too much of a shock to the system such a bath is beneficial.

Accounting by Two Creameries Is Asked

Suits for accounting were filed Friday afternoon by the Oregon Dairymen's league against the Oregon and River-view creameries. Attachments against the property of the two creameries were also filed. The allegation is that the creameries, in order to break up the league, have withheld from the league's collectors money due its dairymen members for milk.

The Rock of Gibraltar is sound, but inseparable with War Britain. The strength of the United States is behind them.

Lovers of Shakespeare had an opportunity Friday night of seeing the greatest of all his tragedies, "Macbeth," as presented by John E. Kellard, in Good in Spots.

Kellard, as Macbeth, showed a long experience as a portrayer of Shakespearean roles. His character was at times colorless and he did not always view to the heights expected in the climaxes, but his entry on the stage was always welcomed. Georgiana Wilson appeared as Lady Macbeth. She played up well to Kellard's Macbeth.

For instance, when A. C. Henderson, as Macduff, wept when told of his family's murder at the hands of Macbeth, the audience might have expected the same sounds from his mouth if he were uttering a guttural.
