

USE OF FOSDICK FUND TO AID ACTIVITIES IN EXISTENCE IS URGED

W. F. Woodward Protests Erection of New Soldiers' and Sailors' Clubhouse in City.

Vigorous protest against the plan announced by the Fosdick commission to build a club house exclusively for army and navy men was voiced by William F. Woodward, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, chairman of one of the local exemption boards and head of Woodward-Mark company.

The money that Portland has contributed to the recreational work of the Fosdick commission or that the commission intends to spend here should be used, not in duplicating facilities that already exist here, but in strengthening existing recreational facilities, said Mr. Woodward.

Activities Already Established "Soldiers have learned to find recreational facilities within the camps at the Y. M. C. A. in an institution that has status and any citizen to whom a soldier or sailor addresses an inquiry is able to tell him where to find the Y. M. C. A. building.

"We have given hundreds of thousands of dollars to the work of the Y. M. C. A. We have just finished giving $50,000 to the Knights of Columbus and part of the money, it may reasonably be expected, can be spent here to add to the recreational facilities provided in the Knights of Columbus building.

"Both the Y. M. C. A. and the Knights of Columbus have entirely eliminated religious lines and serve absolutely as non-sectarian bodies.

Building Planned, Is Reported "The Multnomah Amateur Athletic club opens its doors freely and with cordial welcome to all enlisted men.

"Our mayor is ready at any time to open The Auditorium for entertainments that will add to the pleasure of the boys in the service.

"Let the Fosdick commission use its funds in providing entertainment, but by strengthening and without duplicating Portland's very efficient facilities already provided.

Charles Lloyd of San Francisco has come to Portland as the local representative of the Fosdick commission and has established offices in the Northwestern Bank building with the announcement that he may remain as long as six months in order to establish here the recreational work of the commission, which includes the building of a soldiers' and sailors' club house.

CHICKEN DINNER NOR CIGARS WERE ABLE TO TOLL OFFICERS AWAY

Hunt and Martin Make Raid on Chinese Lottery Joint on North Third Street.

Even the prospects of a nice Chinese chicken dinner and cigars could not tempt Officers Hunt and Martin away from the search for lottery tickets at 53 North Third street, Monday night. Officer Hunt went to the front door and found a bolted door. A faint buzzing was heard in the inner recesses. Martin went in through the back door and caught several men as they were trying to escape while Hunt was battering down the front door. When both officers finally got in they found a Chinaman in full street dress with a kitchen apron over his clothes, who was just starting to dress a chicken.

The officers searched the room for tickets and found only a few on the floor, but every time they went near the sink where the "cook" was working they were handed a cigar and told they "had enough tickets for evidence."

A secret shelf was found that contained a great quantity of tickets. Henry Jung, proprietor of the lotto, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 this morning. Wing and Chong Tong were fined $5 each and H. Hunter, a longshoreman was sentenced to two days in jail, the sentence being suspended.

JOHN F. NUGENT IS NAMED FOR SENATOR FOR STATE OF IDAHO

Successor to James H. Brady Is Native Son; Representative of Progressive Element.

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 22.—John F. Nugent of Boise, Democrat, has been appointed by Governor Alexander successor to the late James H. Brady as United States senator from Idaho. Mr. Nugent, who is now in Washington, will assume his duties at once and serve until the election of his successor at the November election this year.

The appointment of Mr. Nugent, although bitterly opposed by the Hawley faction of the party, came as no surprise to a majority of Idaho Democrats. Many members of the Democratic Governor James H. Hawley was the logical man for the place, because of the fact that he won the senatorial nomination from Nugent in 1914. It was recognized that the political situation made the appointment of the latter probable.

For years both Hawley and Nugent have aspired to represent Idaho in the senate. They have been and are today, rivals in the Democratic party. The conservative faction in the state—Hawley of the conservative faction and Nugent of the progressive.

Bitter rivalry has existed between the two factions and this rivalry has been reflected in the two leaders. Governor Alexander, however, has been affiliated with the Nugent faction, but since becoming governor has endeavored to cement the factions and unite the party. To a great degree he was successful in this attempt, but the death of Senator Brady brought on a contest which revived all of the old bitterness.

Previous to this an agreement had been entered into by leaders of the two factions whereby Hawley was to make the race without opposition against Senator Borah at the 1918 election, and Nugent was to be the candidate against Senator Brady, whoever was the Republican nominee in 1918. It was this agreement that made it possible for Governor Alexander to follow his own choice in the matter and name Nugent, without the appearance of disfavor regarding the wishes of the party.

Governor Alexander took the position that at the time of the election he would follow out the original plan, except that Nugent's campaign for election would come this year instead of two years later.

Is Native Son "John F. Nugent is a native son of Idaho. His father was a leading member of the Idaho bar of this state for many years. To the late Senator a conspicuous figure in the Moyer-Haywood-Pettibone trial, being chief counsel for the defense. At these trials James H. Hawley, his opponent for senatorial honors, was chief counsel for the prosecution. Senator Borah was associate counsel for the state, and K. I. Perky, who was appointed United States senator by Governor Hawley to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Heyburn, was associate counsel for the defense.

Mr. Nugent led the fight in 1908 against ex-Senator Fred T. Dubois for re-election to the Democratic party in Idaho, which at that time under Debols' leadership, was engaged in an anti-Mormon crusade.

Following his success in that campaign he acted as state chairman. He was one of the original Wilson Democrats of Idaho, championing the cause of the president, previous to the Baltimore convention in 1912.

In the midst of the ruins of an external civil war, the peoples of Russia will be glad to receive recognition.

The all-Russian convention of workers and soldiers' soviets, which is presumably to form the future government of Russia, now that the constituent assembly is dissolved, was delayed in its meeting today. Not all delegates have arrived, and until the complete membership is here the situation will mark time.

Foreign Minister Trotsky and other members of the Russian peace delegation were expected back this week from Brest-Litovsk. It was asserted today that Trotsky would address an appeal to the peace delegates and the progress made at Brest-Litovsk and urging them again to join in general peace negotiations.

The former Ministers Kokoshkin and Shingarin were officially announced today, as the work of Bolshevik fanatics who were stirred to a frenzy by appeals of a number of members of the Baltic fleet, just arrived, that they take the fate of those opposing them into their own hands.

NEW UNITED STATES SENATOR FOR IDAHO

John F. Nugent

SITUATION IN VIENNA INTERESTS PRESIDENT

ity of the central empires was questionable. In fact, the great majority of officials were of the opinion that it will not be too much under the domination of the German emperor to make any concessions to the opposition. And the opposition so far is too weak to enforce its will.

The general strikes—political as they are and not economic, which now are in progress throughout the dual empires, again have sharply emphasized the war weariness of the Austro-Hungarian people. All of the reports received here indicate agents from neutral sources agree that the Hungarians and many of the Austrians are almost a unit in opposition to further continuation of the war. They are honestly for a peace without annexations or indemnities.

As a very high official of the United States government today pointed out: "You cannot start or maintain a successful revolution with women and without arms." The question of the arms is a very important one.

But the discontent eventually must have its effect in view of the fact that the Austro-German drive in Italy has been checked for the winter at least. The downfall of the Austrian ministry—undoubtedly the minor body of which Dr. von Zydler is president, although the dispatches on the subject are conflicting—indicates how the unrest has permeated official quarters.

Labor Leaders Indorse Czernin According to the best information reaching Washington the labor leaders of Austria have indorsed the no-annexation program originally enunciated by Count Czernin, and if these now are set aside by the high Austro-German cabinet, the beginning of a movement that must inevitably result in complete revolution in the central empire can be seen.

"One very significant factor in the present crisis is the attitude of the vatican. Its great influence now is being exerted against the German annexation plan. This attitude is understood to have indorsed all of the war aims as enunciated by President Wilson with the exception of his Alsace-Lorraine declaration. The question of the "lost provinces" the vatican remains silent.

Reports have been received indicating that the Turkish authorities have kept silent to make the loss of the Brest-Litovsk and the probable loss of the Goeben. When this news spreads throughout the Ottoman empire, it certainly will, the unrest of the Turks and their bitterness against the Germans, to whom they now blame all of their troubles, must increase. It is believed here that Turkey shortly will be about ready to consider a separate peace and diplomats point out that at the present time the entente easily could afford to make costly concessions to take Turkey out of the war and open the way for an offensive against the central powers' via the Balkans.

Crown Council Is Called Berne, Jan. 22.—(L. N. S.)—With strikes spreading throughout Austria, Hungary and the people wildly demanding that Turkey be taken out of the war, an alarm is reported to have summoned a crown council at the Schoenbrunn castle.

Information reaching here today from Vienna and Budapest stated that the situation has been complicated still further by the resignation of the cabinet. Representatives of the Pan-Germans and the militarists are demanding that Count Czernin be succeeded as foreign minister by a man of "sterner stuff."

But when the German comes from annexationists, the press and public are becoming bolder in their demands for immediate peace—"peace at any price"—and relief from the intolerable food situation.

"This struggle," said the Arbeiter Zeitung, "is being waged in the interest of imperialism. It comes from the workers and Socialists of Germany and Austria, and put an end to the ruthless conquest."

Grabe & mass meeting of strikers was broken up by the police while the speakers were urging the government to accept the peace principles laid down by President Wilson.

George J. Cameron To Run for Governor Salem, Or., Jan. 22.—George J. Cameron of Portland, the formerly district attorney for Multnomah county, announced here today that he will be candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. He said he would make his formal declaration soon.

Premier Orlando of Italy Visits Paris Paris, Jan. 22.—(U. P.)—Premier Orlando of Italy arrived here today. Presumably the Italian premier is in Paris for an inter-allied conference.

German Mail Leak Uncovered Minneapolis, Jan. 22.—(L. N. S.)—Frederick Legler, arrested as a member of a far-reaching spy system, according to department of justice agents, told the latter that the source of mail letters was from Minneapolis to Winnipeg, to Sweden, and thence to Germany by "underground" channels. He is 28 years old, and was born in Berlin.

CHINESE FIRE ON U. S. S. MONOCACY

Chief Yeoman on Vessel Killed; Revolutionary Forces Are Suspected and Protest Made.

Washington, Jan. 22.—(U. P.)—Firing by Chinese on the United States gunboat Monocacy which resulted in killing one American sailor and badly wounding two others, was made the subject of protest to the Chinese government today by American Minister Reisch.

The attack on the American vessel took place, according to official advice, on the Yangtze river, 50 miles above Yochow. It is believed revolutionary forces were responsible and the Chinese government will be called on to run down and punish the offenders.

The apparent cause of the incident in the following message: "On January 17 the United States gunboat Monocacy, while cruising about 50 miles above Yochow, on the Yangtze river, was fired on by entrenched Chinese and was hit a number of times. H. L. O'Brien, chief yeoman, was fatally injured and W. N. Donnelly, seaman, slightly wounded. The fire was returned by the Monocacy.

"It is believed the Chinese were bandits or revolutionaries. It was thought in some quarters that the Chinese may have thought they were firing on a Japanese boat.

In addition to the fact that more than 100 new Shriners succeeded in crossing the burning sands it is learned that The Auditorium was gallily bedizen for the occasion.

Effulgent decorations greeted the eye and pungently sweet incense and Turkish cigarettes gave an atmosphere of the Far East.

At the close of the mystic ceremonial in the afternoon a procession of the formed which drew up at the Multnomah hotel. Delicious viands were demolished on four festal boards. The hostmasters were George W. Stapleton, Mayor Baker, William Davis and E. V. Litterfield.

A dinner was also given at which the ladies of Al Kadur temple entertained the wives of the visiting nobles.
