HUN U-BOATS TO BANG WITH LARGER GUNS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—American naval men saw today the possibility of our destroyers doing some smart fighting soon with Teutonic U-boats more powerfully armed than ever before.

That Germany has recently recalled her U-boats is indicated by news dispatches by the lower sinking rate and partially confirmed by official advices.

This may mean, in naval men's judgment, that Germany is not only putting bigger guns aboard her craft, but also she may be preparing to launch further big submarine cruisers, replacing some of the smaller type.

If Germany is doing these things, a new era of naval warfare is at hand which will mean spectacular battles.

BAKER MAN IS HOME FROM THE WARS WITH TWO BREAST MEDALS

Edward Prescott, "Daddy" of Canadian Regiment, on Furlough for Short Time.

Baker, Or., Jan. 26.—Over 60 years of age, walking with a cane because of a broken leg and other injuries, but otherwise as husky as a man of 20 years younger, Edward Prescott, for the last two years with a British Columbia regiment in the Canadian overseas forces in France, has returned to Baker for a 14 days' visit, having been granted a furlough after reaching Vancouver on his return from Europe, being sent back to Canada to recover from his injuries.

Prescott left Liverpool on January 2, and arrived here a few days sooner than he expected. His son, Ned Prescott, an employe of the American Express company, and sister, Mrs. Frank Grabner, wife of the chief of the Baker fire department, live here, and he will spend his time with them.

He is still in active service and does not know what disposition will be made of him, but believes that he will recover entirely from his injuries and hopes that he can again continue his service.

Prescott was formerly a stockman and well known here and is receiving a warm welcome from his many friends who especially admire his nerve and grit in enlisting for active war service at his age, which he was obliged to camouflage considerably to get his enlistment.

Under the terms of his furlough he is forbidden to say much of conditions in France or give interviews, for which he expressed regret, "but say," he said, "when this war is over and we fellows can speak, there are sure going to be some wild tales to tell and we will all probably be set down for d—liars, but the worst we can say won't describe it."

Wears Two Medals

Prescott was in the battle of Meuse Ridge and participated in the final charge that drove the Germans from their last positions in the engagement, but later he was detailed as a sharpshooter.

Prescott was known by his comrades as "Daddy," as he was the oldest man in the regiment. He is wearing two medals, but would not state when or where he won them.

Cider Makers Want Reputation Damages

Tillamook District Attorney Defends Damage Suit by Cider Manufacturers, Who Allege Injury to Reputation.

Salem, Or., Jan. 26.—Because he ordered 12 kegs of alleged hard cider poured into the streets at Tillamook last October, T. H. Goyme, district attorney for that county, is the defendant in a suit brought by Meinecke & Seabrook, who run a cider and vinegar plant at Willamina. The action is for $2500 damages to the reputation and business of the plaintiffs. District Attorney Goyme has forwarded the complaint and a statement of the circumstances to Attorney General Brown, asking for his advice in the matter.

The district attorney says he had the cider tested and it contained 15 per cent alcohol and that Claude Meinecke agreed to empty the cider in the street as an alternative to being prosecuted for violating the prohibition law. He said he helped Meinecke pour out the cider, and now the suit for damages has been brought.
