Auditorium to Be Scene of Bril liant Musical Offering, Including 100 People.

MANY novel features will be included in the Hawaiian entertainment, "A light in Hawaii." at The Auditorium urday night. The offering is one of large proportions under the ection of Charles Kaimana Dimond, one of the best-known Hawaiian artists the Coast. There will be about 100 le in all, including dancers, singers, and players of the ukulele and steel guitar. An added feature will be num-bers by the Harmony Heaven quartet, consisting of Harry Levy. George Malavey, Al Olog and H. Thompson.

Musical Acts Numerous
Musical acts predominate at the Hipodrome this week end. The Royal talian Sextette is the headliner, but the Hawatian duo and Billy Kelgrade, pianologue artist, are all versatile en-fortainers, who take splendidly with the audience. The Sextette is composed of five men and one woman, all clad in ttractive Italian costumes. The woman is a violinist, one man plays the piano two gultars, and one the piccolo. tenor singer has an exceptionally fine voice, and the woman is far above he ordinary soprano. Downez and iez, the Hawalian Dud, a man and voman who have wonderful voices the man having a bass baritone and the woman a splendid soprano. Kelgrade tempers his pianologue with a pleasing bit of original humor, which makes a breat hit. A father's irascibility and his son's unadulterated nerve keep the tension, up in the sketch, "Fired from Yale," presented by Charles T. Del Vecchio, Joseph Murry and Lucille Kramer. # 'Tag-Your-Shovel' Day Was Success

Oregon school children assisted Fuel Administrator Fred J. Holmes in making "tag-your shovel" day a success. The pupils were asked to tag shovels in private homes where coal is used, in furtherance of the nation-wide fuel conservation program. The slogan is to "save a shovelful of coal a day for Uncle Sam." The Oregon fuel situation is in excellent shape, but the campaign was carried on in this state so far as possible in the interests of the conservation cause.
