"Big" Mason to Address Soldiers and Civilians at Sunday Y. M. C. A. Meeting

TWIN CONVENTION OF ENDEAVORERS HELD THIS MONTH

Eastern Oregon Meeting to Be at Baker, February 15-17, and Western Oregon at Eugene.

CONSECRATION IS KEYNOTE

Prominent Workers and Officials Will Attend Both Gatherings and Assist in Conducting.

THE twenty-eighth annual Oregon Twin convention of Christian Endeavorers will be held at Baker, Or., February 15, 16, 17 and at Eugene, Or., February 22, 23 and 24. These annual conventions have grown in popularity and are now not merely a meeting in which the yearly reports are made and new officers installed, but special classes are held in which young people's work is taught by those who understand the work.

The convention theme this year will be "My All, for the All and All," and the keynote of the conventions will be "Complete Consecration." Herman Dehart of Baker is the chairman of the Baker convention and Teddy Levitt of Eugene is chairman of the Eugene convention. The special speakers announced for Baker are Lloyd R. Carrick, Rev. Levi Pennington, Miss Edna Whipple, state president; at the Eugene convention Paul Brown, intermediate superintendent of the United Society of C. E.; Lloyd R. Carrick and Louella S. Dyer, president of Washington union. The central state committee is composed of Miss Lila Jahant of Eugene, programs; Robert Searcy, Portland, transportation, and Raymond Smith, Eugene, registration.

Successful Revival In Nazarene Church

Rev. W. B. Yates of Marion, Ky., is conducting what already promises to be a successful revival in the Pentecostal Nazarene church house, East Couch and East Seventh streets. Mr. Yates has been engaged in revival work for 22 years. He is known from coast to coast, having lead the singing in many large camps. He is a good preacher, splendid leader in song, and his solo work is of the best. A choir of 20 voices and an orchestra is assisting in the music. Services are held every night, except Saturdays, at 7:30; every afternoon, except Mondays and Saturdays, at 2:30, with three services on Sundays.

C. E. to Give Program

"Look on the Fields" will be the title of the program to be given by the Christian Endeavor society of Kern Park Christian church, Forty-sixth avenue and Sixty-ninth street southeast Sunday evening. The program is one of exceptional interest, but the sketch, "The Challenge of the King," is a most impressive visionary demonstration. Every one will be welcome at this service.

Christian Endeavor Day to Be Observed

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor society will celebrate Christian Endeavor day Sunday morning at Laurelwood Congregational church. Mrs. Bess Duncan, county president of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor, and Evert Baker will be the speakers.

At the vesper service in the afternoon the hour will be given over to the Franklin high school. R. B. Walsh will be in charge of the music, which will be furnished by the school, and Principal Ball will give an address on the "High School and the Community."

Willard Picture Will Be Unveiled

On Sunday morning at the First Christian church a picture of Frances Willard, apostle of temperance and equal suffrage, will be presented to the Bible school by Mrs. Cora Penney, temperance superintendent. At the preaching service at 11 a. m. the pastor, Rev. Harold H. Griffis, will acknowledge the gift of the picture with an appropriate sermon on "America's Uncrowned Queen." In the evening at 7:45 the Christian Endeavorers will observe Sunday with a missionary pageant entitled, "Look on the Fields."

Piteous Appeal for Armenians Made

The message of the starving Armenians and their piteous cries for help have been given to Portland audiences this week from particularly sympathetic lips. Rev. M. B. Parounagian, a native Armenian, but for 28 years a resident of this country, has been speaking before women's organizations, civic associations and religious meetings and in every case he has won his hearers by his simple direct appeal. Rev. Mr. Parounagian is the Sunday school missionary of the Methodist conference of Oregon, and has been generously loaned to the Portland division of the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian relief for a few weeks while the drive for funds is on in the city and state.

Laymen Conduct Sunday Services

The services of the East Side Christian church Sunday will be largely conducted by the laymen of the church. The topic which will be under consideration at the 11 o'clock service will be "A 100 Per Cent Church." This will be a congregational meeting, but will be led by the minister, Rev. R. H. Sawyer. In the evening, at 7:30, the speakers will be Mrs. C. Arthur Ward and Ralph Harris, members of the congregation. The subject under discussion will be "Our Work—Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." Special music will be given by the choir at both these services under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Bischoff Moore. All members of the east side church are especially invited to attend these services.

Vicar Will Speak On Able Americans

The vicar of All Saint's church, corner Twenty-fifth and Savier streets, is to give three addresses on the three first Sunday mornings in February, on the life and work of the three great American patriots whose birthdays fall on the 9th, the 12th and the 22d days of this month! John Marshall, the eminent chief justice of the United States supreme court; Abraham Lincoln, the preserver of the union, and George Washington, the founder of the republic and the father of his country.

Germany Will Again Be Sermon Subject

Dr. Morrison will speak of German ruthlessness, on Sunday morning in Trinity church. The purpose of the address is to show the effects of German teaching before the war upon a people supposed to be highly civilized.

Lucien E. Becker, organist, will render an interesting organ recital on Sunday evening.

The program consists for the most part of works by modern composers, and is of a novel character, permitting effective registration.

ARMENIAN PLEADS HIS COUNTRYMEN'S CAUSE

Church About Doubles Its Membership

Since Dr. Hinson took the oversight of the East Side Baptist church 10 months ago, great changes have taken place. And every department of the church is feeling the pulsation of a quickened and intensified activity. The building, in spite of every enlargement, is too small for the attentive audiences that throng it, and already the church has nearly doubled its membership. The most sanguine last March predicted a 30 per cent increase in membership, but a 90 per cent increase is now an accomplished fact. And with the entrance to the new church, there will come enlarged opportunity for service, for which all the members are impatiently waiting. On eight different occasions were baptisms during the first month of the present year, and others are now ready to thus confess their allegiance to the Savior of their souls.

Does Minister's Arrival on First Sunday in February Augur Long Stay

Dr. Brougher Forecasts Dr. Waldo's Stewardship Will Be Most Prosperous

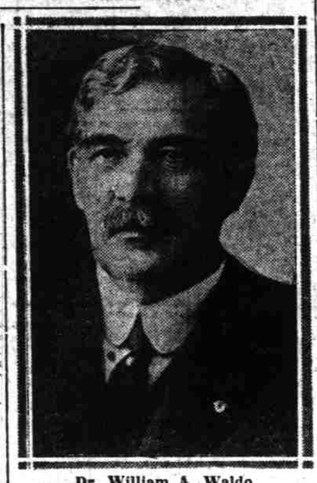
Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher

Introduction by J. Whitcomb Brougher, D. D.

Fourteen years ago on the first Sunday in February, I began my pastorate at the White Temple, Portland, Or. Eight years ago the first Sunday in February I began my pastorate at the Temple Baptist church in Los Angeles. I now have the pleasure of introducing to the people of Portland, Or., and the members of the First Baptist church in particular, Rev. William A. Waldo, Ph. D., who begins his pastorate on the first Sunday in February.

I do not know how I could wish for him and for the people of the White Temple anything more than to express the hope that this new pastorate beginning on this first Sunday in February may continue as long, and be as abundantly blessed of God, as were the years which I spent in your great and beautiful city.

There is no reason why Dr. Waldo's pastorate should not be the most prosperous the church has ever known in its history. He is a man of splendid ability, wide experience and thoroughly qualified in every way to lead the White Temple in the greatest work it has ever done. He is a man of pleasing personality, is congenial with his brethren, and knows how to win people to cooperate with him in the work. He has evangelistic zeal, is an excellent preacher, and has the executive ability to organize and direct the activities of a great church. His work in Paterson, N. J., was preeminently successful. Over 600 united with the church during the four years that he was there, and about 500 of them by baptism. He had the largest congregations of any Baptist preacher in the state of New Jersey, and was popular with the people of the city. He is a Canadian by birth and an American by spirit and adoption. I take great pleasure in presenting him to the people of one of the finest cities in America, and to the members of one of the finest Baptist churches in the world. May God bless both preacher and people for many happy years of service together.



Dr. William A. Waldo

SUNDAY IS THRIFT DAY IN CHURCHES IN THE UNITED STATES

Local Headquarters Appeal to Pastors of City to Assist in Work.

TOMORROW is "National Thrift Day" and in all churches "Thrift" will be the text for consideration, special emphasis being placed on the importance of the government's War Savings Stamp campaign at this time.

From local headquarters of the state W. S. S. organization, the following letter has been sent to the "Ministers of All Denominations":

"This coming Sunday has been set apart as 'National Thrift Day,' a day when it is hoped the attention of the people of the country may be called to the importance of saving, when a 'National Thrift Campaign' may be inaugurated. May I ask you for an observance of that day in your church? A sermon, or even a brief heart-to-heart talk with your congregation on 'Thrift' and the War Savings campaign, would give to this work a stimulus that it could not have from any other source.

"Thrift, on the part of our people, and the purchase of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates, mean not only to help win the war, but they mean better civic and social conditions when the war is over, something in which every preacher, teacher and all good citizens generally are vitally interested. For that reason I feel you will cheerfully cooperate in this very necessary work."

Rev. Mr. Beers to Give Two Sermons

Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist church, East Ninth and East Mill streets, will deliver two special sermons Sunday, which will conclude a series of sermons he has been preaching on lessons drawn from the children of Israel. In the morning he will take for his subject, "Moral Battles and Spiritual Triumphs." "This sermon will show the true philosophy and ethical relations of difficulties in the Christian's way, and the triumphs over them," says the pastor. In the evening the pastor will take for his subject, "Coats of Many Colors," which he says will deal with guises of insincerity and hypocrisy, and will also emphasize the necessity of transparency of life.

SCHOOL OF METHODS WILL CONVENE FOR FIVE DAYS' SESSION

Committees From Six Christian Churches of City Making Arrangements for Event.

COMMITTEES comprised of members from each of the six Christian churches of the city have been appointed to look after arrangements for the school of methods which is to be conducted by Bible school workers of international prominence. The committees follow: House committee, Grant Robinson, Carl B. Brown, Mrs. J. F. Faust; registration, Mrs. Ward Swope, Mrs. R. G. McKeen, Miss Nellie Sampson; entertainment, Mrs. C. A. Ward, Mrs. C. O. Kurtz, Mrs. E. J. Platter, Mrs. E. E. Starr; publicity, J. F. Faust, A. A. Parker, Ralph Harris; assignment, Mrs. E. S. Muckley, Mrs. A. M. Averill, Mrs. H. C. Courter; welcoming, Mrs. Ralph Harris, Mrs. M. B. Meacham, Mrs. A. E. Meserve, A. B. Brown, Mrs. Beulah Thorp, Mrs. A. Teagarden, Mrs. E. G. McFerrin; finance, Forrest G. King, Dr. R. C. Powell, C. O. Herwick, J. A. Melton, W. Z. Hight, A. E. Gardner. The executive committee is composed of Rev. H. H. Griffis, C. A. Ward and D. F. Short. These committees will meet for a conference and fellowship dinner at the First Christian church on Tuesday evening. Arrangements include the entertainment of delegates who are expected to attend from all the Christian churches in the state. Mrs. Clara G. Esson is dean of the school, and the faculty will be Miss Hazel A. Lewis, national elementary superintendent, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Miss Cynthia Pearl Maus, national secondary superintendent, of Cincinnati; Roy K. Roadruck, northwest Bible school superintendent of Spokane and others. This school will convene on the afternoon of February 25 and continue five days.

Why People Seek Fads in Religion

At the Highland Congregational church, corner Prescott and Sixth streets, on Sunday morning at 11, the Rev. Edward Constant preaches on the following theme: "Why People Are Seeking for Fads in Religion." This topic is a sequel to the discourse of last Sunday morning on "Organized Religion in Portland." A "people's sing," led by a strong chorus under the direction of Miss Rose, will be a feature of the evening service at 7:30.

St. Davids Mission Gratifying Success

The mission at St. Davids church conducted by Dr. Stansfield closed last Sunday night very happily. Outwardly speaking, it was a marked success. The parish ought to be more productive because of it—spiritual and material—should should manifest a quickened life. On the first Sunday after the mission the rector will preach in the morning on the "Soil and the Seed," and in the evening on "A Reasonable Service." The choir will song "Sweet is Thy Mercy, Lord," (Barnby), and "Savior Again to Thy Dear Name," (Hopkins), as offertory anthems.

At the 9:30 young people's service and school the awards will be made to all those boys and girls who made the mission. It is interesting to know and gratifying to record that the number was the largest of any mission Father Stansfield has held this winter. All young people are welcome to this service and school.

Christian Endeavor Day

The Mizpah Presbyterian will observe Christian Endeavorism in its church services Sunday. In the morning, the pastor, Rev. R. W. Farquhar will preach on "Christian Youth and Its Danger," and in the evening the pastor and Dr. George B. Pratt will conduct a platform meeting of special interest to young folk. Special music has been arranged.

Rev. John Mackay Supplies Pulpit

Rev. John MacKay, D. D., president of Westminster hall, Vancouver, B. C., will supply the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church for two Sundays until the return of the pastor, Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., who is spending a month in California speaking to the soldiers and sailors in the vicinity of San Francisco Bay.

Dr. MacKay is one of the best known and most distinguished educators of Western Canada. He has been at the head of Westminster hall for a number of years and has the reputation of being a preacher of exceptional power.

His subject in the morning at 10:30 will be "Christ, Our Surety," and in the evening at 7:15, he will preach on "Love's Watchfulness."

WILL TAKE PROMINENT PART IN C. E. MEETING

Rev. Levi Pennington

Dr. Hutchison to Lecture on Hebrews

In Hope hall, Alder street, btween Third and Fourth streets, Dr. Hutchison gives his second lecture Sunday afternoon. The hall was full last Sunday when he lectured on Jerusalem. This will be followed up with a lecture on the Jews, a people now coming to the front with a great past and a most glorious future. Jews of every class will be welcomed.

Bible teaching meetings and classes are held every night in the hall and are conducted by Rev. Walter Duff and other Bible students. Every meeting is free.

First Congregational To Hear Dr. Kantner

Dr. W. C. Kantner will preach in the First Congregational church Sunday morning and evening.

The coming week will be most active in the various organizations of this church. Among the important meetings will be the Brotherhood dinner, which will be held at the usual hour on Monday evening. Lieutenant Pershing of Vancouver barracks will speak to the men during the evening. On Tuesday the Woman's league will meet, and on Wednesday the Ladies' Aid Red Cross unit. Both of these societies meet every week and give the entire days to work for the Red Cross.

FIRST UNITARIAN TO DEDICATE FLAG SUNDAY MORNING

Forty-six Members of Church Who Are in Federal Military Service Will Be Honored.

Atkinson Church Program for Week

The Atkinson Memorial church is in the midst of a 10 days' series of meetings. Rev. Arthur J. Sullens is preaching on vital life questions. His subjects from day to day are as follows: Sunday, February 3, "Life's Testing—Temptation"; Monday, February 4, "The Great Hindrance—An Unteachable Spirit"; Tuesday, February 5, "Life's Practical Challenge—The Daring of Faith"; Wednesday, February 6, "The Heart of Life—Love the Great Dynamic"; Thursday, February 7, "Life's Limitless Range—The Soul's Freedom"; Friday, February 8, "Life's Twentieth Century Task—A World Brotherhood"; Sunday, February 10, "The Real Measurement of Life—Holding On." Each subject will be of interest in itself, but besides this there is a continuity and development of thought in the series which gives a cumulative value to the series. Each evening there will be special music.
