Annual Tea To Be Held at Mrs. Corbett's

MRS. HELEN LADD CORBETT will again open her residence in Sixth street for the Visiting Nurses association's annual Valentine tea. This event has become a fixture in social events of the year. Back in the annals of local history the fourteenth of February stands out for many years as the day belonging to the Visiting Nurses and for consideration of their splendid philanthropic service to the city.

The event is also closely associated with Mrs. Corbett's home as many of the teas have been held there. The usual delightful informality, the greeting of oldtime friends that are seen but infrequently at such affairs, and musical numbers will be features of the occasion. War candles are to be sold, too, sweets especially suitable for the boys at the front and for shipping.

Mrs. James D. Honeyman and Mrs. A. A. Morrison will be in charge of the candy table and will be assisted by a bevy of girls. For the music Mrs. Thomas Burke is standing sponsor and something especially fine is expected. The hours are from 3 until 6 o'clock and all who are interested in the event and in making a silver offering for this splendid cause will be cordially welcomed. Invitations will be issued the latter part of this week.

All of the arrangements are in the hands of the board and the social committee. The Visiting Nurses' board is made up of the following committees: Nurses, Mrs. S. S. Montague, chairman; Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Mrs. Kate Mather and Mrs. R. G. Dieck; membership committee, Mrs. James D. Honeyman, chairman; Mrs. Lewis Mills, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. A. P. Biles and Miss Gretchen Klosterman; dispensary, Mrs. R. J. Marsh, chairman; Mrs. James B. Kerr and Mrs. A. F. Biles; tuberculosis, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, chairman; Mrs. H. Thausen, Mrs. S. S. Montague and Miss Gretchen Klosterman; finance, Mrs. James H. Kerr, chairman; Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. H. Thausen, Mrs. R. G. Dieck, William D. Wheeler, A. L. Mills and Louis Goldsmith; Richard W. Montague and Robert S. Howard; supply committee, Mrs. Kate Mather, chairman; Miss Virginia Wilson; Mrs. J. Frank Watson; entertainment committee, Mrs. Donald Spencer, chairman; Mrs. James H. Kerr, Mrs. James D. Honeyman, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Miss Kate Gile and Mrs. A. A. Morrison; visiting, Miss Virginia Wilson, chairman; Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. James D. Honeyman; housing, Miss E. E. Grittinger and Lewis Mills.

Miss Margaret Forter entertained in honor of Miss Norma Hauser of St. Paul, and Miss Helen Farrell with a luncheon, Tuesday afternoon, at her home in Tillamook street, Irvington. Pretty little French Misses, Tonia McDonough, Miss Harriet Kern, Miss Mary Westaway, Miss Helen Wood, Miss Helen Page, Miss Alberta Barr, Miss Ruth Shull, Miss Isabel Clark and Miss Jean Forter of Spokane.

This evening Ben Selling will be host at dinner to all the members of the committee for the drive to open Monday for the Jewish War sufferers.

The enthusiastic followers of the paper chase trails were out in force on Saturday afternoon, January 26, when the senior members of the Portland Hunt club held a closed paper chase under the direction of James Nicol, M. P. H. The hares had selected Bertha station as the starting place, and the first white paper they left behind them led the many riders a merry chase up hill and down, over logs and across country for few miles to the finish on the Twentieth bridge road near Garden Home where the spectators were eagerly waiting. The finish was exceedingly close, Miss Mary Chenoweth on Blue Bell being first, Harry M. Kerr on White Wings, second; and Miss Ethel McElhinney on Ojal, third. The exceptionally fine trail, together with the favorable weather conditions, drew greatly to the success of the chase.

After the chase, members and their friends gathered at the clubhouse, enjoyed a light luncheon, and were cordially welcomed by Mrs. Fred A. Martin and Mrs. James A. Beckett.

The hares for the senior closed paper chase to be held next Saturday afternoon will be Miss Ethel Harington and Harold Mayer. At the clubhouse following the chase members and their friends will be welcomed by Mrs. F. S. Mitchell and Miss Bertha McCarthy.

The Woman's Cooperative league will give a dancing party Saturday evening at its club house, East Tenth and Weidner street. The league is giving these parties to help entertain the soldier boys, who are away from home. The women bring a box luncheon for two. These parties are to be given every other Saturday evening.

Honoring Mrs. Harry K. Brooks of Bend, Or., and Miss Norma Hauser of St. Paul, Mrs. Joe A. McKenna entertained with an informal tea, Friday, at her residence on Portland Heights.

Miss Louise Coulter, accompanied by her mother, left Monday evening for Detroit, Mich., her former home, where she will be married to Elmer George Steuernal of that city. Miss Coulter has made her home in Portland for the last seven years, having been in the employ of the First National bank for the last three years, and has many friends in this city. She is also a popular member of the Ladies' Annex of the Multnomah Athletic club. Friday evening, January 25, she gave a farewell dinner party to 12 friends at her home at the Washington street Hazelwood.

An interesting event to all followers of esthetic and folk dancing was the recital at the Little Theatre given by Miss Aza Paget and her pupils Thursday and Friday evenings. The program numbers included: Technique of dancing (a) Bar Works, Ruth Burntrager; (b) Grecian, Louise Hatfield; (c) Toe Technique, Mae Garmie, The Children's Hour, 6-year-old Geraldine Peterson, soloist, and Francine Kane, Frances Nemiro, Lily Epstein, Beanie Bronberg, Katherine Pierce, The Pipes and Pan, by Dorothy Lyons, Snow Flakes, Ruth Taylor, Norman Carlson and Julia Grove. Dresden China Clock, by Aza Genevieve Paget and Marie Garmie; Russian Dance, Ruth Burntrager, soloist, and Mildred Corcoran; Vera Duncan, Helen Mitchell.

Mrs. Richard Partington arrived this morning from her home in San Francisco and will pass two weeks in Portland with her mother, Mrs. A. Hussey, her brothers, William and Edward Hussey and her sister, Mrs. Percy W. Lewis. She is en route East to join her husband, the well known artist of San Francisco, who is now engaged in some work in Philadelphia.

Friday evening of this week at Christensen's hall the girls of the Follies club will give a pre-Lenten party. Much interest attaches to this event, as special arrangements have been made beyond the club's usual fortnightly dances. Both the upper and lower ball rooms will be used with orchestras in both halls. Miss Ruth Alexander and Al Mielke will give exhibition dances of original steps and Castle steps, and Miss Adel Barnicko and Miss Daisy Gibson will sing. A supper will be served late in the evening.

Miss Mae Norton, who is well known among local news writers, will leave Thursday for San Francisco, where she will take a position on the Chronicle. Miss Norton has made many friends in Portland during her short stay here who greatly regret her departure from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Theobald, formerly of Portland and now of Chicago, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rosa May, to Dr. Edward C. Reckard, son of Mrs. Richard Reckard of Exeter, Ontario, Canada.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Tilsner were recently surprised at their home, 581 Marshall street, when about 30 friends called on them to help them celebrate the eighteenth anniversary of their wedding.

Much enthusiasm has been shown by the women who have been selling the Red Cross booklets, "Letters From Oregon Boys in France," compiled by Mrs. Frank Wilmot. All have been untiring in their efforts to promote the sale and in addition to the leading stores where every courtesy has been extended, assistance was given in the Northwestern National bank, First National bank and the Yeon building where the following women presided: Mesdames Frank E.
