Mrs. Rogge Plays Same Kind of Smashing Tennis As National Champion.

York, Feb. 6.-tl. N. 30-Mrs. Johan Rogge, Norwegian tennia champlon, who defeated Miss Marion Vanderhof, the runner-up at the national nan's tournament last June, will meet the national champion, Miss Molla Bjurstedt today at Casino Heights. Miss Bjurstedt easily eliminated Miss Julia Brown, her opponent in the second round of the tournament today. When the two Norwegian women meet the champion will be at last competing with a player who displays her brand of tennis, known only to the women of the Northland. When Miss Bjurstedt flashed across the horizon of American lawn tennis four years ago and captured highest honors those familiar with the game and its art called it a miracle. For four years she has met and yanguished all comers except May Sutton Bundy and Mary Browne. Those who saw Mrs. Rogge gradually force down and defeat Mrs. Vanderhof, whe was looked upon as the next champion, are saying that Miss Bjurstedt has finally
