Deputy District Attorney Says Settling Alienation Suits Is Tyler Family Habit.

GRAND JURY TAKES A HAND

Inquiry Has Begun of William Tyler-Harry Henderson - Ethel Henderson Affair.

That it has been a habit of the Tyler family for years back to settle alienation suits and similar court controversies for large sums, has been disclosed charged. by Deputy District Attorray Pierce, who is now conducting a grand jury investigation of the alleged 'badger game" worked on William Tyler by Harry L. Henderson and Ethel Hender-Tyler settled a $100,000 alienation suit brought by Henderson, paying $15,-000, after Tyler and Mrs. Henderson had been arrested while living together on the east side.

According to Pierce, Tyler's uncle, man named Barbur of Chicago, amassed a huge fortune and then began to spend it in a startling manner. On his first trip to Paris he is said to have been ensnared by a pretty adventuress and was compelled to settle with her for $50,000 to avoid unenviable notoriety. He is also said to have been a central figure in other similar escapades. Mother Inherited Estate

FOREST GROVE BACKS ITS MEN

Offers Testimony to Show Inspectors' Acts Did Not Cause Sewer to Leak. The city of Forest Grove, Or., defendant in a $120,000 suit brought by the Elliott Construction company and the land on the charge that the city did not in a line of German aliens being taken pay for the laying of 80,000 feet of sewer pipe, presented testimony in Cir-cuit Judge Morrow's court today that the alleged interference of inspectors with the company's workmen was not the cause of a leakage of the sewer. The suit was started when the city refused to pay for the laying of the

The United States senate passed bill Tuesday placing a part of the Bull Run reserve in the National Forest reserve to protect the water supply of Portland, according to advices received today by Commissioner John M. Mann from Senator McNary.

The bill will now go to the house and the Oregon delegation will be requested to work for its passage in the lower house. Efforts to secure this legislation to prevent settlers from invading the reserve and destroying the water shed supplying Portland with water have been made for several years. Senator McNary began the fight in the senate shortly after he took his seat at Washington.
