TO FARM OWNERS ONLY.

I have received letters from Minnesota, And several inquiries from North Dakota, Concerning farms in the "Golden West." Where climatic conditions are the best. They are sick and tired of cold and snow, Where six months of a year but icicles grow, They are selling out as fast as they can, Farms, household goods—even the frying pan, To come out here and buy a farm, In some sunshine valley of flowery charm, If you have a farm that you would like to sell, Don't hesitate but write me and tell, Stating the terms and the very lowest price, Also the stock, and equipments and its size, Farms accepted without view of Mount Hood, If buildings and fences and soil are good, I have sold to many and have buyers galore, And every train from East is bringing in more. E. A. LINDGREN, 614 Panama Bldg.
