Life is a mission. Every other definition of life is false and leads all who accept it astray. Religion, science, philosophy, though still at variance on many points, all agree in this—that every existence is an aim.—Mazzini.

Audience Kept LARRY LAUDER, noted In High Spirits By Comedy

Alcazar Players Give Highly Satisfactory Performance of "His Majesty Bunker Bean."

"HIS MAJESTY BUNKER BEAN"
As presented Monday night by the Alcazar players before a packed house kept the audience in good spirits throughout the four acts of the play. "His Majesty Bunker Bean" is a funny play of the unusual kind, and takes the head of the class. It is dramatized from the widely read story of Harry Leon Wilson.

It's the play that put the "bunk." the wholesome, laughable kind, in Bunker, and it goes straight to your "bean." The plot revolves about an eccentric young man, who believes in reincarnation. His beliefs are fully confirmed when he is told by a medium that he was once an ancient king, and that his reincarnated self is destined to do great things. The characterizations are good. Every player fits well into his or her part. Edward Everett Horton is Bunker, and Ruth Gates The Flapper. Pops is played by George R. Taylor, Lors Rogers is the grandma. James Guy-Usher takes the part of the great pitcher and Ann Winston is The Sister. Bulger is played by Walter B. Gilbert. Others in the cast are: Smith Davies, Edward Harrington, Eugene Shakes-peare, Virginia Carlisle, Betty Barnipoat, Barbara Haaland, Guy Reynolds, Catherine Graham, William Lee and Walter Slegfried.

Good Show at Pantages A couple of blackface comedians and some extra select diving girls bring the bill at the Pantages theatre this week to more than an average plane. Sheldon Brooks and Ollie Powers extol mirth and laughter from behind dense. makeups of burnt cork, tickling the funny bone of the audience with genuine human humor. Their act is named "A Little Noise From Dixieland." Instead of being "a little," it is one big, riotous outburst.

Lottle Mayer and her diving compan ions present a pleasing aquatic act. which includes, too, some dancing, Lottie's famous "keeping fit" dance proved of great interest to both fat and lean. The stage setting for the act is good and the tank is arranged so that every dive can be seen. Ellie Eldridge, Irene Cross and Irene Lowe are the other "nymphs," who, with Lottie, make the act a success by their figures and Love, and Lots of It," a farce presented by Joseph Greenwald and company, is a good feature, and Beatrice McKenzie and company present a musical oddity. Johnny Singer and two dancing girls open the bill in a cheerful manner. Tai Ling Sing, a musical Chinese, surprises by his clever violin

Gladys Brockwell Headlines

Beautiful Gladys Brockwell, William Fox's "star of a thousand emotions," s the photoplay headliner on the new Strand theatre program that opened today. Miss Brockwell is to be seen in "For Liberty," a patriotic romance laid Floyd Williams, former fat boy of pic-tures, and Rose Lee, 100-pound "pocket edition of Venus," in a mirthful medley of song, dance and patter, form one of the headline vaudeville acts. Sadie De Coma will present her novelty rolling globe act, in which this versatile young voman performs astonishing feats of balancing and juggling while perched atop a rolling globe.

Other features are Williams and Wil liams in comedy singing, talking and dancing; Gerber Sisters, character song-and-dance artists, and the Miolas in song and instrumental numbers.
