New Offerings on Screen and Stage

Prize Winning Photoplay Feature

"I Love You" at the Liberty Is Throbbing Story of Heart Interest.

"I LOVE YOU" seven-reel prize-winning photoplay, the Finley nature pictures and animated cartoons of Mutt and Jeff in some new antics opened today at the Liberty theatre.

The scenario of "I Love You" was one of the $500 prize-winners in a contest conducted through an eastern magazine by the Triangle company.

The scenes are laid in France and Italy. They are really beautiful to set off the throbbing story of heart's desire of a rich young Frenchman who falls in love with a picture artist in the Salon in Paris. Turbils and heart throbs are a plenty.

Beautiful Alma Rubens is featured. She has appeared in plays with William S. Hart. Her sweetest and simply is commented on widely since she entered the picture world. Wheeler Oakman, who was the Ne'er Do Well in Rex Beach's novel of that name, which was screened a couple of years ago, and Francis McDonald gave capable support to Miss Rubens.

The Finley nature pictures showing wild animals and bird life of Oregon, were repeated today and will be shown again Friday and Saturday. The wonderful photography of the pictures and the intimate close-ups of the state's wild creatures were a treat to most movie fans, and especially Oregonians, when they were first shown at the Liberty last week.

Bud Fisher has some new, happy inspirations for Mutt and Jeff.

Beach Novel to Be Filmed: "Heart of the Sunset" a picturization of Rex Beach's novel of the same name, has been secured by Goldwyn and will be released as a special.

"Heart of the Sunset" is a Mexican boy-romance featuring Anna C. Nilsson and Herbert Hayes, in whose support appear such well-known names as Robert Tabor, F. L. Fernandez, Jane Miller, William Frederick and Irene Boyle. It was produced by the Beach Pictures company under the direction of Frank Powell.

Tom and Huck Stay Over: There will be no midweek change of program at the Columbia. Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn being held over to continue to delight their audiences. This episode has to do with the murder that was the outgrowth of the row between Indian Joe, the doctor and Muff Potter.

Maudie Not Coming Here: The Helig management received word this morning to cancel the engagement of Cyril Maudie in Portland. The actor is on a steamer coming from Australia. Wireless advices are that it has been delayed and it has been found necessary to curtail his itinerary accordingly.

Garden Has Fine Support: In "The Splendid Sinner," Kate Jordan's powerful play of today in which Mary Garden will be seen, the famous diva is supported by a representative cast, including Hamilton Revelle, Anders Andolf, Hassan Mussallil, Henry Pettibone and Herbert Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Stearna, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Hubbard, have left for Eugene to spend the week end with their son Lloyd, who is attending the University of Oregon.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up: This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

The prompt and positive action of this simple, inexpensive home-made remedy in quickly loosening the irritated and swollen membranes of the throat, chest or bronchial tubes and breaking up the cough, has caused it to be used in many homes that any other cough remedy. Under its soothing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, coughs loosen, breathing becomes easier, tickling in the throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (the worth), into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. You then have a full pint—a family size—of a much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is known the world over for its promptness, ease and certainty in overcoming stubborn coughs and chest colds.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Or, if preferred, to give the satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WHY WOMEN DREAD OLD AGE

Don't worry about old age. Don't worry about being old. It is the other way when you are getting on in years. Keep your body in good condition and you can be as hale and hearty in your old days as you were when a kid and enjoy one day at a time. The cause of senile afflictions keep away from the kidneys. Drive the poisonous wastes from the system and avoid uric acid accumulations. Buy the GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules periodically and you will find that the system will always be in perfect working order. Your spirits will be enlivened, your health made strong and your face bright once more with youth and beauty.

There is only one guaranteed brand of Haarem Oil Capsules, GOLD MEDAL. There are many fakes on the market. Buy the Original GOLD MEDAL Imported Haarem Oil Capsules. They are the only reliable. For sale and guaranteed by The Owl Drug Co. (Adv.)

MacDowell Sued As Result of Small Loan

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Melbourne MacDowell, tragedian and former husband of Fanny Davenport, was "down and out" in Oakland and borrowed 25 cents from Sylvester V. Innes, but he does not owe Innes $378.51, according to decision of Superior Judge Welborn, who today decided a suit brought for that amount, in favor of MacDowell.

Innes claimed MacDowell would not have had the wherewithal to eat in Oakland had he not taken charge of the actor when approached for the loan of a quarter, established MacDowell in a hotel and paid his expenses. He says he then contracted to become MacDowell's manager and secured him employment at a quarter a week as motion picture lecturer in Los Angeles.

For this he was to get half of MacDowell's salary. The $378.51, he claimed, was for board and room and money loaned.

MacDowell figured as plaintiff in an affidavit suit filed a month ago in which he alleged he was practically kidnapped and inveigled into a marriage while mentally incompetent by Mrs. Kathryn W. Neff. This suit is still pending.

Strong Wind Starts Many Small Fires: Fourteen fire alarms were turned in Wednesday during the day and six at night during a two hour period. Most of the fires were small, caused by defective chimneys. The high number is attributed to the prevailing strong wind. A fire at the house of S. V. Squires, 1572 East Gilliam street, caused approximately $2000 damage. The roof and top floor of the dwelling were destroyed. A soft drink parlor and restaurant at Third and Burnside was slightly damaged at night by a fire caused in a restaurant at 2 1/2 North Second street. The ceiling was scorched by a small fire caused by an overheated pipe.

A second, but incomparable War Savings Office, the strength of the United States behind them.

Pupils to Hear Symphony Concert

Rehearsal Friday at Which Students of High Schools Will Be Admitted Free.

THE splendid program of orchestral music which is in preparation for the regular monthly concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock will be presented at the free rehearsal concert Friday morning for the benefit of high school students.

There is an unmistakable educational feature in these free rehearsal concerts which are given to the students of the city. Many a young man and woman will acquire the taste for genuinely good music and will become familiar with the great masterpieces, all of which will exert a strongly beneficial influence.

For assistance in understanding and appreciating the music, simple printed programs will be supplied which will give the names of the compositions and composers.

Admission Friday will be by ticket only, a full supply having been provided the teachers of all high schools in the city.

Indications point to a large attendance at the regular concert which occurs next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The seats are now on sale at Sherman, Clay & Co., and popular prices again prevail.

Maud Powell Charming as Ever: Maud Powell, America's foremost violinist, was heard here again Wednesday night at the Helig and once more charmed the many admirers who during a long and successful career on the concert stage.

Maud Powell's playing is, as of yore, so artistic and satisfying as to be a technical and artistic masterpiece. Her principal offerings at this concert were the Sibelius concerto in D minor, first movement, and Saint-Saens' sonata in G minor. She was called upon to play several extra numbers, and these were: "Waiting Doll" (Poldini-Hartmann); "Turkish March" (from "Ruins of Athens" (Beethoven-Auer); "The Maiden's Wish" (Chopin-McMillan), and four national American tunes, "Kentucky Home," "Old Black Joe," "Shine On" and "Kingdom Comin'" and "Minuet" (Beethoven).

Arthur Loesser, who also has been heard here before, was the very efficient pianist.

FRATERNAL NOTES

The grand board of managers of the Neighbors of Woodcraft is meeting every day this week at the headquarters building, Tenth and Taylor streets. It is presided over by Mrs. Annie P. Hawkins with Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, grand guardian ex-officio, in attendance. The board is carefully investigating the financial matters of the order, and considering several problems left to its care by the grand circle session last August. The thrift department is now busy disposing of $50,000 among the 500 local circles of the order on the Pacific coast for investment in War Savings Stamps.

On Friday evening Multnomah camp No. 77, W. O. W., will celebrate Washington's birthday by dedicating the service flag in honor of its 152 members who have enlisted. Judge Burton will deliver an address, and the G. A. R. quartet will render patriotic selections. After the program is completed the floor of the large hall will be cleared and dancing will be enjoyed. Those preferring to play cards will have an opportunity to do so. The club rooms will also be thrown open and those wishing to bowl, play pool or billiards may do so.

Tuesday night Oregon Oak camp, M. W. A., entertained all the camps in Portland at a special initiation ceremony in its hall at Elk and Lombard street. E. J. Flourish, consul, welcomed the visitors. The officers of Rose

Furs and Furs

THERE seems to be a sense of affluence and luxury about a bit of fur that affects both men and women alike. From the poorest working girl to the woman of royalty, a piece of fur—cat, rat, rabbit, squirrel, mink, fox, ermine, seal and sable—has its fascination. And the day has passed when the "prima donna's husband" is the appellation given to any man who wears a fur collar on his overcoat.

A few years ago good furs were not difficult to obtain for a fair price—and bad furs were practically unknown. A set of what was called "astrachan" was useful and attractive as well as reasonable. Red fox and lambs' wool were used only for floor mats. Today we see the most extraordinary creations, not of nature, but of the factories where conspiracies are going on to delude the simple and fascinate them into parting with their money.

You can tell the quality of a woman by her furs. There is, perhaps, no part of her getting that expresses her taste and position more clearly. Not only in the selection of her furs, but from the condition in which they are kept.

The majority of women give little thought to the care of their furs. The newness wears off. They think winter prevents moths from corrupting them, and they are hung in closets just as they are taken off when coming in from the street. And the usual closet is not cleaned any too often. Perhaps the furs are shaken out and rubbed off before being put away—and perhaps not.

Just consider what dirt-catchers furs are and what delightful beds they are for microbes of all sorts. Put them in a warm closet and they thrive, breed and grow fat. Now think of putting those furs on and fastening them up around your throat in the immediate vicinity of your face.

City camp occupied the chairs as follows: F. L. Davis, consul; J. P. Volmer, past consul; E. A. Edwards, adviser; C. W. Meadows, banker; W. H. Tinker, escort. Captain Fred Grap commanded the team of Alberta camp with J. J. Goddard as master of ceremonies.

Samaritan lodge, I. O. O. F., received a surprise visit Wednesday night from two good delegations from Charity lodge No. 75 of Tigard and Lincoln lodge No. 161 of Scholla, who came to witness the presentation of the first degree symbolizing friendship. The principal parts were assumed by E. J. Nolan, Jesse T. Jones and William Linklater. After the degree work the lodge adjourned to partake of the hastily arranged but wholesome supper served by Steward William Popham.

Ivanhoe homestead, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, Wednesday night received a class of candidates and re-dedicated the annual report of its trustees. The homestead now numbers nearly 25 members and is conducting an active campaign for members and twice a

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound." This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

"Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it dardens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.
