Armory Dances For Benefit of Engineers

War Council Gives Sanction For Affair to Be Held on Saturday Night.

FOR the equipment of the 318th engineers at Vancouver Barracks who expect to be transferred shortly to "Somewhere in America," the dance at the Armory Saturday evening will be given by their Portland friends. The war council met Monday evening and gave sanction to the affair and many of its 40 members who represent that many war organizations in the city will assist at the affair. Among the patrons and patronesses for the dance are: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gary Reed, Mrs. C. E. Dentler, wife of Colonel Dentler; Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Arnett, Mrs. Charles Dent, Mrs. G. Hillwell, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Neuhansen, Miss Vella Winner, Mrs. Veneta Standerson, Dr. Florence Mason, Mrs. G. J. Frankel and Mrs. C. B. Simmons.

Portlanders South. Mrs. George T. Willett, who is passing the winter months in California, is at Riverdale in company with her cousin, Mrs. Chester Thorne of Tacoma. Mrs. Willett left some time ago, accompanied by Miss Genevieve Thompson. Miss Thompson went on visiting through the Southern states and is now at Atlanta.

Joins Base Hospital. Miss M. Ethel Gulling, employed for seven years in the offices of the Union Pacific system in Portland, Walla Walla and La Grande, has become a member of base hospital unit No. 46 and expects to leave for France at an early date. Miss Gulling is a file clerk in the office of Superintendent Bollons at La Grande. Her work in the base hospital unit will be that of a correspondence clerk. Miss Gulling is the daughter of Jake Gulling, the oldest conductor of the Union Pacific system, now retired.

Another La Grande girl, Miss Ellen Grady, daughter of H. C. Grady, a well known conductor, has joined base hospital unit No. 46 as a nurse and it is expected will accompany Miss Gulling to France.

Married in Texas. Portland friends of Mrs. Grace Carr Stone, formerly of Irvington, will be interested to hear of her marriage to Lieutenant Albert W. Long of the Eleventh field artillery, United States army, February 4, in Yelita, Texas. The marriage was quietly celebrated Monday in Trinity Methodist church by Rev. P. R. Knickerbocker, in the presence of immediate relatives. Despite its simplicity, the affair was one of the prettiest wartime services, with the bride unusually attractive in olive-drab Georgette crepe. Lieutenant and Mrs. Long are at the Hotel Paso del Norte, where they will be until the end of the week. It is the intention of Mrs. Long to stay with her parents at the Yalata home when her husband is ordered overseas.

Soldiers Invited to Dance. An invitation has been extended to the soldiers at Vancouver barracks who have been residents of Pennsylvania to attend the Pennsylvania club luncheon at the Benson hotel at 12 o'clock Saturday. All former residents of Pennsylvania are invited.

Scottish Rite at Home. The Scottish Rite Masons will give the third of their series of at-homes for the winter season this evening at the cathedral, Lowlands and Morrison streets. There will be both dancing and cards arranged.

Mrs. Gilman and Miss Gilman Home. Mrs. L. C. Gilman and her daughter, Miss Alice Gilman, have returned from a visit in California and Texas. In the latter place they visited the training camp where Miss Gilman's fiancé, Fordham Kimball, is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Foemster, 1036 Hancock street, are the happy recipients of numerous congratulations on the arrival of a nine pound son, Robert

Enjoyable Time Provided by Art Class

Women Who Have Traveled and Studied Abroad Speak Before Irvington Society.

By Vella Winner. AS DELIGHTFUL afternoon as could be imagined was afforded the guests at the open meeting of the Irvington Art class Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George M. Weister. The rooms were filled with prominent women, art lovers and those who had traveled and studied abroad. Japanese art was the general subject for the afternoon and the principal paper was given by Mrs. O. M. Clark, who told in an entertaining manner of her travels in the orient, of the customs and hospitality of the people, of the beauty of the great cities and their wonderful gardens and of the priceless art objects. The pleasure of her address was heightened by the exhibition of a number of superb Japanese prints, porcelain, jewelry and lacquered wood brought by her from Japan.

Mrs. Weister gave a short talk on the significance of Japanese art, saying that in every study the beholder himself was necessary to complete the picture and that the real picture was not the thing actually depicted, but the thing suggested by means of remarkable color combinations in beautiful forms. Mrs. Weister then introduced Mrs. Urdahl Smith, formerly of Portland, who has spent much time in study abroad. She spoke briefly of her accomplishments in the new art, art filare, which may be described as miniature tapestry, being wrought of finely split silk thread under a magnifying glass.

Mrs. C. F. Clark entertained Chapter 22 of the P. E. O. Sisterhood February 7. During the business session the officers were inspected in their secret work by Miss Copeland, organizer. The program for the afternoon was very interesting. There were papers on "Old and Modern New York," by Mrs. C. A. Phipps and Mrs. Kinder, piano selections by Miss Jean McKircher, vocal numbers by Miss Kirkup. The chapter will entertain its friends February 21 with cards for the benefit of the Red Cross fund at the home of Mrs. D. M. Davies, 992 East Ankeny street.

The Lakeview Girls' National Honor Guard "squares drive," conducted during the past two weeks, has proven a huge success, 65 knitted and crocheted Serbian squares having been turned in. To date the youngest girl knitting a square is Miss Jessie Lindecum, 10 years old. The oldest sander in a square was "Grandma" Crowe, 84 years of age. John P. Campbell was the only man responding to the challenge, having knitted four, one of them representing "Old Glory." Ralph Brown is the only boy so far to turn in a square, although it is understood that several more boys are knitting squares.

Saturday afternoon the members of the Fortnightly club of Eugene gathered in the Chamber of Commerce parlors for their session of business. At the close they adjourned to the Red Cross headquarters for work, and this has been added as the succeeding custom until such a time as the program scheduled is of greater importance than war activities.

Albany Elks to Hold Triple Celebration

Founding of Order and Local Lodge and Anniversary of Dedication of Temple Will Be Events to Be Commemorated. Albany, Or., Feb. 21.—Albany lodge No. 359, B. P. O. E., will hold a triple anniversary celebration here Tuesday evening. The events to be commemorated are the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Elks order, the twentieth anniversary of the institution of the local lodge and the ninth anniversary of the dedication of the temple of Albany lodge. All three events occurred in the month of February, from the 18th to the 28d.

Judge P. H. D'Arcy of Salem, grand exalted ruler of Oregon, will be the principal speaker. Governor James Withycombe, a member of Albany lodge, will make an address, and short talks will be made by Hon. J. K. Weatherford, Judge W. R. Bilyeu, Mayor L. M. Curd and District Attorney G. S. Hill. An elaborate program has been prepared, the musical numbers for which will be furnished by a quartet from Salem lodge No. 356. Many Elks from other valley lodges will be present.

Bed Time Tales

BY DR. WARREN G. PARTRIDGE

More Traps for Mirror Pond. LITTLE WILLIAM, the Farmer Boy, has a gun. He would not give up his plans to take some of the fur overcoats off the backs of those little folk of Mirror Pond. So the very next day he got some more traps and started, with his big dog, Ranger, and his gun for Mirror Pond.

Jim Crow, the leader of the Black-coats, the detectives, and Ted Blue Jay, the captain of the Blue Jay police, were on hand, as usual; and screamed their signals of danger to all the little folk of Mirror Pond and the Woodland. When Little William reached Mirror Pond he was glad to find that the heavy shower, during the night, had washed away the mud on the banks, in some places, so that he found several of his steel traps. Little William was very clever, this time, in selecting the secret places to set his traps, near the front or back doors of the houses of the little people.

And Jimmy Coon was found asleep in his bedroom, in his hollow tree, so that he, nor no one else, saw just where the traps were set. But the little folk knew that the Farmer Boy was setting traps again. And the fathers and mothers talked to their children again, about the dangers of traps, and the dangers of touching such food as carrots, turnips, parsnips, and apples, which they might see around Mirror Pond. But when darkness came, all the little people were prowling around after their supper; and all, as usual, were very hungry. And about midnight a terrible scream was heard, "Help, help, help!" It was the voice of Sammy Muskrat! All rushed to see what was the matter. And what do you suppose had happened? Why, Sammy Muskrat had been tempted to disobey his parents! Yes, indeed, he had broken his promise to his parents. He was awfully hungry for his supper; and when he was hunting around in the dark night, his

Kept sniffing around, until he found a lovely carrot.

And he kept sniffing around, until he found a lovely carrot, sticking on a short stick, close to the bank, beside a little runway. And Sammy said to himself, "I know what my father and mother said. But no one will ever know if I eat that carrot. I am too smart to get caught in any steel trap. I know too much about traps to ever get caught!" So Sammy Muskrat climbed around to get a bite of that nice carrot. It was so sweet, that he had to have another bite. Then he got bolder and more careless, as he said, "Pooh, I don't believe there is any trap here!"

Water Measuring Taught. Redmond, Or., Feb. 21.—The Central Oregon Irrigation school opened here Monday with an enrollment of 60 farmers from all over Central Oregon. Lecturers were John H. Lewis, state engineer, and Professors W. L. Powers and T. A. Teeter of O. A. C. and Fred N. Wallace of the Tumalo project. Each farmer was taught the correct method of measuring water.

'Indian Day' Event In Motorcycling

For Long Period of Years February 22 Has Marked the Formal Opening of the Motorcycle Season in America.

'Indian day' has become an annual national event, and, as in the past, will be celebrated on Washington's Birthday, February 22. It has marked for a long period of years the formal opening of the motorcycle season. It is the big get-together meeting of the motorcycle enthusiasts all over the country. Extensive plans have been made by Ballou and Wright and Fred Wyatt to make "Indian day" highly interesting and an open house will be kept throughout the day at the "Indian" agencies. The public is cordially invited to visit and get acquainted with the fellows who annually celebrate "Indian day." Each year has witnessed a growing interest in this event throughout the United States and indications point to an even greater interest this year.

Longing People View Tasty Viands

Miss Edna Groves' Display of Hooverized Dishes in Meier & Frank's Window Attractive.

THE display of cakes, biscuits, bread, pies and other eatables made according to the strictest Hoover conservation recipes, now on display in one of the Fifth street windows of the Meier & Frank Co., is attracting much attention, the window being surrounded by men, women, boys and girls at all hours. Many of the women copy the recipes, each dish being tagged with the recipe. Corn, barley, oats, rye and potato flour and vegetable greases have been utilized with a minimum of wheat flour and animal shortenings. The display is attractive in every detail and gives a splendid idea of what can be done when one really has a scientifically based knowledge of cookery, although the usual ingredients are used sparingly.

The display was prepared by the girls in the domestic science classes of the high schools and the Girls' Polytechnic school under the direction of Miss Edna Groves, supervisor of domestic science in the Portland public schools.

To Free Your Skin of Hair or Fuzz

(Boudoir Secrets) No toilet table is complete without a small package of delatone, for with it hair or fuzz can be quickly banished from the skin. To remove hairs you merely mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the objectionable hairs. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when it will be found free from hair or blemish. Be sure you get genuine delatone. (Adv.)
