BASEBALL - HOLDOUTS AROUSE SUSPICION, A GANG IS NOW WORKING

Dave Fultz, President of Fraternity, Denies That There Is Concerted Effort to Make Magnates Come Through With More Money Than Offered in Contracts Moguls Sent Out.

By H. C. Hamilton

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—(U. P.)—The gang of holdouts now bringing the sweat out in large lumps on the brows of major league magnates is not the result of a concerted plan by the Baseball Players' Fraternity to make the magnates come through with more money.

But the holdout fever is epidemic and rampaging through the payrolls of every major league club in the country. As a matter of fact, there are very few who have signed enough men to claim even the rudiments of a ball team.

Of course it is possible that some other president or secretary or something has taken over the duties of Fultz in the Players' Fraternity and has told the boys to spurn their contracts, but Fultz says nay.

DEFEATING THE Christian Brothers' college team Wednesday by the score of 20 to 17, the Columbia university basketball clubbers annexed the title in division B of the interscholastic league.

The first half of the contest was slow and uninteresting, the C. B. C. players missing many baskets. During the last part of the second half, the C. B. C. team came to life and for a time it looked as though it would defeat Tick Maloney's team, but the good work of Allen and Jacobberger staved off defeat.

Ryan of the C. B. C. team scored 11 points and Sweeney and Shipley of Columbia each scored 8 points.

The High School of Commerce failed to put in an appearance for the game scheduled with the B'nai B'rith team Wednesday night and the first and second B. B. teams played a practice game, the former winning, 64 to 20.

Chehalis, Wash., Feb. 21.—The Cascade school basketball team of this city have so far proven themselves to be the grade school champions of Lewis county.

Pe Ell, Wash., Feb. 21.—Friday evening the Labram basketball team defeated the local team at this place by a large score. The passing of the visiting team was exceptionally good and the only thing that saved the score from running up to the three figure mark was that at times the shooting by the Labram boys was a little wild.

Hood River, Or., Feb. 21.—The Hood River high school basketball team defeated the fire department team Tuesday night by a score of 40 to 17.

Southpaw Meets Righthander in H. Springs, Ark.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Charles Weeghman's prize pitchers are beginning to gang on him in this matter of prying larger chunks off the Weeghman bankroll.

Both Grover Alexander, who seeks a bonus for pitching for the Cubs, instead of the Phillies, and Jim Vaughn, who wants a raise, are at Hot Springs. In the day time, it is assumed they do training stunts. At night it is suspected they confer on means of getting more money from the Cubs' boss.

Leslie Mann outfielder, also is a Cub holdout. It was announced today. Mann objects to a reduction in his salary.

Seattle, Feb. 21.—(U. P.)—Seattle, playing a clean-cut, open game, outskated and outgamed Portland to a score of 6 to 2 in their ice hockey game here last night.

ROSEBUDS BEATEN BY METS, 6-2

Morris, Foyston and Rowe Prove Too Much for Portlanders; Barbour Shows Form.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Standings in the American billiard players' ambulance fund tournament, which will end today, are all snarled up and may be in a worse tangle before the final game is played.

By trimming both Alfredo DeOro, former champion, and Augie Kleckhefer, the present champion, Charles Ellis of Milwaukee pushed himself into a tie with Kleckhefer for first place. Each has won nine games and lost three. Ellis beat DeOro by a 50-33 score and won from Kleckhefer, 50-43, his victory being aided by a run of 19 on the break.

In the final games today Bob Cannexaf, also a former champion, appears twice, meeting Ellis in the first game and Kleckhefer in the second. Should Cannexaf win both games there would be a triple tie for the leadership. Cannexaf has now won seven games and lost four.

DeOro, in addition to losing to Ellis, also was defeated yesterday by Charles Morin, 50-49.

RED SOX MAY DO A COME-BACK

Owner Frazee Has Secured Stars to Replace Players Who Joined U. S. Forces.

New York, Feb. 21.—(I. N. S.)—The Red Sox are going to come back! This is the firm belief of every baseball fan in Boston and a good many outside the City of Culture.

Whether or not the ex-world's champions can fight their way back to the position of prominence they held so recently remains to be seen, but it is a fact that they have a bright chance. Following the close of the 1917 season the Red Sox were greatly weakened through the loss of playing talent. Twelve members of the team entered some branch of Uncle Sam's service, and President Harry Frazee saw his erstwhile great machine on the verge of collapse. It was up to Frazee to plug up the gaping holes in his player roster or face the alternative of putting a slaphop club into the 1918 race.

Makes Big Trade... So Frazee got busy. Like Charley Weeghman, he hopped into the player mart with a fistful of greenbacks and a determination to rehabilitate his club at any cost. And he has succeeded. In one big swap Frazee parted with three mediocre players and $50,000, for which he got Schang, Strunk and Bush from Connie Mack. Later he grabbed Stuffy McInnis as a windup to the same deal, with the result that his ball club is as strong today as it was at the start of the 1917 season.

Has Great Box Staff... With Joe Bush added to the pitching staff Boston has a formidable array of hurlers. Maya, Foster, Jones, Ruth, Leonard and Bush represent a world of pitching strength. Willie Schang, one of the best catchers in the game, will be first backstop, with Cady, Agnew, Devine and Mayer in line for the second string job.

Should Be Contenders... The Sox infield will miss Jack Barry, but with McInnis, Hoblitzel, Scott, Wagner, Thomas, Gill and Gardner on hand, a fast infield combination can be built up. And who could ask for a more consistent looking trio of outfielders than Hooper, Strunk and Walker?

Yes, ho! Those Red Sox certainly look mighty good now, and they'll be very much in the way of Comiskey's world's champions right from the start. If they should come back it will occasion no surprise.

Coast Dog Awarded Honor... New York, Feb. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Miss Caroline B. Trask of San Francisco is the proud owner of a canine champion today. Her big St. Bernard, champion of the Pacific Coast, Craigwood Ben Barry, was awarded highest honors in the annual dog show at Madison Square Garden over Colonel Jacob Ruppert's Oh Boy. For winning the Coast dog will carry home the gold challenge cup.
