First Presbyterian Church Is to Entertain Soldiers After the Evening Services

REFRESHMENTS TO BE SERVED

Program of Entertainment Will Also Be Provided at Conclusion Of Sunday Evening Services.

WELCOME TO ALL EXTENDED

Ladies and Girls Will Receive Boys, and Serve Coffee and Sandwiches; Program Prepared

EV. JOHN H. BOYD, D. D. paster of the First Port. pastor of the First Presbyterian church, corner Twelfth and Alder streets, will inaugurate a new plan Sunday evening in order to welcome the soldiers and give them a touch of home.

This plan is to make the evening service specially attractive to the soldiers and to provide entertainment and refreshments for them in the church house after the service is dismissed. Sunday night for the first time the ladies and girls of the church will welcome the sol-dier boys in the reception room after the evening service and have a musical program and give them coffee and sandwiches.

The sermon in the evening by Dr. John H. Boyd will be the second in a series on "Four Great Questions Concerning Jesus Christ." The subject is "What Does Jesus Mean by Asking Men to Follow Him?" In the morning at 10:30, Dr. Boyd will have the second in another series on "Some Large Values of Religion." This special sub-ject is "Religion and the Task of Right Living." There will be special music Living." There will be special music both morning and evening.

Christian Church After New Members

"The War and Soul" will be the one great theme at the First Christian church from now until Easter. All services and departments of the church utilized during the remainder of the Lenten period to deepen the religious life of the membership and also to enlist many new members. systematic canvass of the homes will be made during the next two weeks by the ladies of the missionary society and during the week immediately preceding Easter, the pastor, Rev. Harold H. Griffis, will hold a special preaching service each evening at 7:45.

"Winning Men One by One" will be the subject of Dr. Waldo's discourse at the White Temple, Sunday morning. He will discuss the question of the church being brought into new relations and being brought into new relations and the realization of a much needed sympathy and personal interest that is every-where apparent—the obligation of world evangelism as the need of the moment.
