Sage Tea Darkens Hair to Any Shade

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you get this famous old preparation, improved the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been You simply dampen a sponge soft Arush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful tollet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochioric acid in the stom-ach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

ness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestent. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further for-mation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests natof the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestents.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never nomes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

strengthened. His counsel was heeded Russia submitted to Germany's terms and Trotsky, humiliated, resigned. But Trotsky's appeal to Germany will go down in history as one of the most unique documents of the war. The United Press today is able to present the official text of the appeal in connection with the circumstances surrounding its issue. Here it is in part, launched by wireless and through Bolshevik agents, after Count von Hertling had announced Germany's terms of Trotsky's Speech

"Brest-Litovsk. The German nation remains silent, and only for this reason could a feebe old man; Count Hertling, appear before the chief commission of the German reichstag and declare himself able to lead the German people through the Red sea to a general peace.

"Hertling spoke about peace; but first he wanted to prove by reference to a few facts that Germany. with its 67,000,000 inhabitants, among whom are hardly an illiterate, had developed a wonderfully perfect technique in these three and a half years of war and that, in proficiency and moral value, it surpasses the other nations of Europe. Who Speaks for the People!

"And during this time, in which the costs of war-the logical result of a militarism carried to extremesrest exclusively on the shoulders of the people, while every household mourns at least one of its members; while the nation with its blood feeds a multitude of war profiteers, who chaffer away the tears of the poor for strings of pearls for their wives, during this time of misery who speaks in the name of the people? "A Jesuit, over 70 years, a professor of philosophy, conservative from top to toe, a friend of the junkers and of priests. He dares to doubt the love of peace of the Russian proletariat, and so doing, he reveals his whole hypocrisy. The German chancellor knows well that the government of the Russian lathreaten the Russian revolution.

Offers Unacceptable Peace Terms "When he pretends to be skeptical as to the love of peace of the Russian government, he does so only to divert the attention of the German people from the fact that the German government offered unacceptable terms of peace to the Russian revolution. Hertling did not mention a single one of our protests against German conditions. By no single word did he speak of the indignation which the peace proposals called forth in Russia.

"The imperial chancellor wanted to make the same speech which since 1915 every German chancellor has made. The fundamental idea of these speeches is this: The German empire, in the consciousness of its power, proposes a 'just' peace to its enemies, but the wicked enemies refuse to conclude this peace. and this proves that the enemies are solely responsible for the prolongation of the war. Fairy Tale Is Exposed

"When formerly the German government spoke of the 'just' peace, those who followed the German policy knew at once on how mendacious a foundation this policy was based, but the German people in those days had confidence in its government and credited its explanations.

"But now this fairy tale has forever lost its meaning, for lately when the German peace terms were made known they read: " 'The people of Courland, Lithuania and Poland are to be made slaves of the German junkers; the Russian nation must pay war indemnities, thus causing this poor land to bear the whole burden of German imperialism.' Allies See Through German Peace

"If the German peace proposals found no echo among the masses in France, Italy and England, it was simply and solely because these nations had long ago seen through the shameful construction the German government is capable of putting on the expression 'a just peace.'

The Trotsky statement then goes on to assail Count Czernin's attitude toward Belgium in his war aims address and Hertling's speech later, he says, "will sow suspicion among the masses."

"The intentional ignoring of the protest by the Austrian officials against Germany's peace terms, shows how untenable are the arguments on which they rest," Trotsky says.

Approach Ides of March "If Count Hertling does not wish to see the situation as it really is, or pretends that he does not see it, this will hardly banish the dissatisfaction of the proletariat nor destroy the want in Austria. This dissatisfaction and this want of the Austrian proletariat will find an expression so much stronger when it becomes known how much the German government fears the Austrian proletariat influences on that of Germany. "This is shown by the muzzling policy of the German government against the Russian press in regard to occurrences in Austria which were passed over in silence. The chan-cellor spoke as if it were still December 27, 1917, instead of which it is January 25, 1918, and behind us lie great events. And in Austria we approach the ides of March.'
