Week's End Rich On Stage and Screen

Offerings for Coming Days Include Wide Range of Amusement Features.

IT HAS been a wonderful week-end for musical comedy extravaganza lovers, with "The Show of Wonders" doing a nightly stint, or stunt, as you may wish, at the Hellig. The big attraction plays a matinee this afternoon and closes with tonight's performance.

"The Show of Wonders" is all that the name implies, and the wonder is "how do they do it?" That is, how in these days of car shortages and great movements of men and supplies and fuel, and all that, how can the producers get cars for show people and tons of baggage and scenery?

Anyway, they do it, and that's the main thing for the bald-headed man whose wife is visiting her mother. Some grand opera, English, the language we all speak, is next, and then a little later on Manager Fangle of the Hellig announces a return engagement of Kolb & Tull in the "High Cost of Living," and still a little later, we are informed, old man "Grumpy" himself, with Cyril Maude, who would have been here before but for unavoidable delay in coming over from Australia, will put up for a few nights at the Broadway home of the "legit."

Guess who else is coming—health and Director General McAdoo permitting. Sarah, Sure, Sarah Bernhardt, Martin Beck of the big time circuit has booked the divine one again for a farewell farewell tour, and Manager Frank McGettigan of the local Orpheum has been asked to be on the lookout for the Best of them, however, beginning tomorrow afternoon, in fact, old "Pop" Anson, another veteran, will greet old friends at the Orpheum, and Blossom Seeley with a band of regular jazzers will also be on the job.

The Baker is going to play "The Silent Witness" for the new week, opening Sunday afternoon, and at the Lyric "Easy Money" will hold the stage.

There is some "big time" stuff billed at the picture houses, too. The Liberty to lead off with Taylor Holmes in "Rugles of Red Gap," which, if half as funny as the story of the same title, will be a scream.

At the Columbia, Dorothy Dalton in "Love Me" is the forthcoming attraction, at the Sunset "The Birth of a Nation" will be offered for the first time in Portland at an exclusively motion picture.

Dorothy Phillips in "The Grand Passion" is playing today at the Majestic, and opening today also, at the Star, is Douglas Fairbanks in one of his best pictures, "The Man From Painted Post."

The Peoples will present Earle Williams in "In the Balance," with "Current Events" on the side.

Monroe Salisbury and Ruth Clifton in "Hungry Eyes" will be the bill-topper at the Strand, with Jimmie Wall, black-face fellow, the big vaudeville act. At the ever popular Lyric, the handful of new stuff up its sleeve for Sunday's show, including the Meryl Princess Girls, other vaudeville and pictures.

So, all in all, it bids fair to be a busy week, along Portland's Rialto.

At the Star

Douglas Fairbanks in "The Man From Painted Post" started the mirthful laughter and the thrills at the Star theatre with this morning's opening show. In the cast is Frank Campeau, originally a western dancer, who is playing "The Virginian" first was starred in by Dustin Farnum. The settings of the picture are in mountains and on a plain where Doug has ample opportunity to display his dancing skills. The picture plays a very bad man who steals cattle. He and his gang laugh openly at Fairbanks at "Fancy" Jim Sherwood, who really appears to be a member of the band men think is a tenderfoot. The only things "fancy" about Doug's role are his clothing and ability to shoot. He handles the gang in no way, but in a western manner, he cleans a members out in their own ballwick. There are plenty of laughs in "The Man From Painted Post," as well as regular thrills.

Actor Called to Colors

J. J. Halligan, senior partner of the team of Halligan and Combs, one of the popular acts of the circuit, is Hippodrome bill, was called to the colors late Friday and will leave for St. Louis, his registration point, immediately after his last appearance on tonight's program, so as to be there by March 29. Mr. Combs expects to return east with Halligan there to rejoin his former partner and to present an act upon which Halligan and Combs had been working when the call to the service was received.

At the Peoples

Mary Pickford in "Amarilly of Clothevine Alley," continued today at the Peoples theatre. Sunday the Peoples will open with Earl Williams in "The Balance."

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief, it does not blister. As first aid and at certain times Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuritis, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest. (It often prevents pneumonia). 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

BLOSSOM SEELEY, who will be headlined on the bill opening at the Orpheum Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Simmons was reelected president of the Portland Woman's club at the meeting Friday afternoon. Mrs. Simmons is one of the most popular presidents the club ever had, not only presiding with dignity and justice, but taking an active interest in all departments of the club work and allying herself as the club's presiding officer in many commendable public movements. The high esteem and appreciation of the members was unmistakably voiced in the high vote which she polled. Other officers elected were: First vice president, Mrs. C. E. Runyon; second vice president, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas; recording secretary, Mrs. Chester W. Hopkins; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. B. McLeod; financial secretary, Mrs. D. L. Povey; treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Jackson; auditor, Mrs. D. M. Watson; directors, Mrs. Elvira Ross and Mrs. Aaron Tilzer. The club was addressed briefly by Dr. William Wallace Joyce, general of the Salvation Army yesterday evening after which $25 was voted to this cause.

Mrs. Jack Garrity gave a most illuminating address on "The Russian Revolution." Otto Wedemeyer sang a group of selections from American opera.

The Mount Scott Mental Culture club held one of its pleasant social days at the home of Mrs. Frederic Armstrong, 3328 North Second street. At 11 a. m. the meeting was called to order, and after a short business session 27 members responded to roll-call with Irish anecdotes, excepting the case of special interest, the club members crowded to its altar. No Masonic lodge takes in large classes at any one time, as compared with other orders, and one of the most interesting features of the study of Irish drama. After a delicious luncheon was served by the social committee for the day, the program of the afternoon was given, Mrs. Calvin K. Butters gave a splendid paper on "The Revival of the Irish Drama," and Mrs. George W. Snider gave two delightful readings from Lady Gregory's "The Aran Islands" and "The Workhouse Ward" and "Spreading the News." The house was prettily decorated with spring blossoms and the American and Irish flags. Mrs. Floyd B. Stone and Mrs. Stanbury were guests of the club.

The Base Line Red Cross unit has been meeting regularly at the clubhouse of the Base Line Improvement club each Wednesday, under the efficient direction of Mrs. F. B. Bridges, chairman. There is an average of 12 workers present each Wednesday, and work on the convalescent pajamas is fast becoming "mistakeless," the goal that seemed hopeless a few weeks ago. That unit has been planning to become self-supporting, as the workers all feel the call and are most willing to respond to the touch of the "nurse" names. This unit has been working with the Base Line unit, most of the ladies are working with at least one other unit, thus making two days a week to this important work.

The ladies auxiliary of Company C. One hundred and thirty-second infantry will entertain Uncle Sam's boys, Saturday night, March 23, at the Y. M. C. A. Ladies are requested to leave cakes at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday afternoon.

At the regular yearly election of the White Salmon Valley Women's club held at the club rooms, Thursday, the most interesting feature was the presentation of the order to the members of the order are asked to be present at the meeting next Thursday evening and begin the course of instruction.

Hassalo lodge, I. O. O. F., Friday evening conferred the initiatory degree upon a few candidates. A number of impressive manner, a number of visitors were present to witness the work. The new light installed in the I. O. O. F. building, which is being erected at the corner of the old lodge meeting here, and are so arranged as to be easily modified and subdued as occasion demands.

Louise Ehrmann Named Dean At U. of O.

New Official Will Take Place of Miss Fox While She Is in War Service.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 22.—Miss Louise Ehrmann, a graduate of the University of California in 1902, was named as dean of women of the university during the absence of Miss Elizabeth Fox, who left Eugene last Friday for New York to see sail for France the latter part of March.

Miss Ehrmann was appointed by the executive committee of the board of regents at their recent meeting. She will no doubt do a splendid job during spring vacation ready to assume her duties the beginning of the third term.

Miss Ehrmann is a teacher of English in the Los Angeles Polytechnic high school, and according to Karl Onthkamp, secretary to President P. L. Campbell, she is accustomed to working with girls and young women. She is gifted as a writer of plays, and is also able to produce them.

Sunnyside lodge, A. F. and A. M., Thursday night conferred the M. M. degree upon a class of candidates with a large attendance of members and visiting brethren. Another class has been started in the degree of Entered Apprentice. The lodge is rapidly growing by reason of the young men in the Sunnyside section of the city being attracted to its altar.
