

CHAMPION UNIFORMS ARE USED

Portland Club Compelled to Don Buckaroos' Suits for Initial Workout in Camp.

PENDLETON, OR., April 5.—No uniforms arrived from Los Angeles yesterday, so the Portland players who are taking the kinks out here, were provided with uniforms worn by the Pendleton team in the old Western Tri-State league several years ago. Inasmuch as the Pendleton team won the league championship that season, Manager Bill Fisher, who is slightly inclined to the "rabbit foot" propaganda, sees a good omen in the situation.

The Portland practice uniforms will be the same ones the Salt Lake club wore at Porterville and when they return home they will don the uniforms worn by the Coast League Beavers of last season. Inasmuch as a couple of sets of uniforms would set Judge McCredie back about $700 bucks, and inasmuch as the suits worn by the Beavers last year are in perfect condition, the Portland owner has concluded to Hooverize in cloth for the first time since he has been mixed up in baseball.

Infielders Get Work

Infield practice was the initial work of the Portlanders, with the pitchers and outfielders shagging a few flies.

Manager Fisher did not don a uniform himself the first day, but took a critical snoop at the youth surrounding him. He likes the looks of Heine Ritter, the little stopper from the Portland City league and opines that the more experienced ball players will have a hard time fighting the youngster off.

The only ball player besides Fisher who is in good condition is Jack Sullivan, the Elmira outfielder. He has, of course, been working out with the Salt Lake club and can extend himself going after them.

Fisher expects eight or ten more ball players by tonight or tomorrow morning, and a game will be played Sunday with the local team, according to present plans.

Fisher Shows 'Em Place

Wednesday afternoon Boss Fisher and his players were taken for an auto ride, during which they inspected the Eastern Oregon State hospital for the insane, and Fisher took occasion to remind some of the bunkers of the convenient proximity of the institution in warning them against pulling any crazy stunts while under his tutelage. By way of exercise they qualified as volunteer firemen later in the day, when they came across a blazing barn. Fisher hopes to be able to turn out for first real practice Friday afternoon.

FIELD MARSHALS of The MAJOR LEAGUES

New York, April 5.—(I. N. S.)—Miller Huggins might have become a great lawyer had he hung out a shingle after completing a course in law.

As a lad in his teens, Hug's keen mentality impressed his parents and they decided that he should study Blackstone. So Hug studied. And when he got his sheepskin he was admitted to the Ohio bar.

But law did not have the upper hand with Huggins. He had wonderful ability as a ball player, and his love for the game influenced him to pass up a law practice for the sport alluring.

Made Roy as Player He had made a brilliant reputation around his home town of Cincinnati, and he found no trouble getting employment as a player. He first attracted attention of major league scouts as a member of the St. Paul club. As a second baseman he was perfection itself. So the Cincinnati Reds decided to give him a trial and in 1904 he went south with them.

Hug's diminutive proportions did not impress the management of the Reds. Joe Kelly, who was pilot of the club, said Miller was too small to stand the graft in the big show. But before the season opened Hug had won a berth as the regular second sacker of the club, and his years of wonderful playing mark him as one of the greatest infielders ever developed in the history of the game.

Was Star Run Getter

In 13 years of playing Huggins made a grand batting average of .246. He figured in 697 double plays while with teams that were always losers and he was one of the greatest run getters up to the time of Ty Cobb's debut in the big show.

Succeeding Roger Bresnahan as manager of the Cardinals in 1913, Huggins kept plugging doggedly with a team of misfits. He never gave up hope, though he took some hard bumps because the Cardinal owners always had some obstacle in his way. But before leaving the Cards he brought them out of the ruck, and today, as manager of the Yankees, his big chances have come.

Is Smart Manager

Huggins is 35 years old. He is one of the smartest managers in the business and has always been a keen student of the game and of players. He knows how to get the best out of a player and he doesn't demand a team of stars, either. Like several other major league pilots, Huggins, has little to say, but his actions speak for themselves. He's not much of a manager when it comes to size, but he is every inch a real manager in the matter of brains and executive ability. In handling his men he mixes up advice with good natured kidding and his players swear by him.

World's Best Among Women to Vie Tonight

Chicago, April 5.—(U. P.)—Aquatic bugs were hopeful today that a world's record would topple tonight when three of the world's stars among women swimmers meet at the Illinois Athletic club. Miss Thelma Darby of Indianapolis, Miss Olga Dorfner of Philadelphia and Miss Claire Galligan are the three who will compete under auspices of the Central A. A. U.

Close Successful Season

Centralia, April 4.—The girls basketball team of the Centralia high school has just closed a successful season, winning five out of six games played. The girls lost their only game to Oakville, the same team that earlier in the season they defeated 41 to 10.

SENATORS TRIMMED 3 STRAIGHT

Great Ability for Bungling in Tight Places Is Displayed by Solons.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE
	Wm.	Lost.
Vernon	2	1,087
Oakland	2	1,087
Los Angeles	2	1,087
San Francisco	1	1,087
Salt Lake	1	1,087
Sacramento	1	1,087

Sacramento, April 5.—(I. N. S.)—The Senators went deeper into the cellar yesterday by allowing Bill Eslick's Tigers to tuck the game away—4 to 2. The solon cut out the Vernon players 10 to 6, but most of these 10 bingles came when they were of no aid to the run column. The Senators have shown themselves to be champions of the world when it comes to failing in the pinches. They have no trouble in getting men on second and third before any of their batmen are retired but if any one hits to an opportune moment it is likely that the state capital will be turned into a morgue.

Jack Bromley, pitching for the locals, heaved a nice brand of ball but poor support was responsible for two runs. In the third inning Vernon scored two runs due to a base hit by Mitchell, a walk to Long, a single by Pinelli and a three base hit by Chadbourne. Hits by Pinelli, Elliott and Bromley made the same number of tallies for the grand batting average of the Senators. Rodgers announced today that he is going to give Lloyd Snook and George Gibson, two local bushers a chance on the mound with the Senators. He has also informed the Leak of the Toronto club to report to the Senators. Leak was with the Portland club at the last season's training camp.

The score:

R. H. E.
Vernon	4 6 0
Sacramento	2 10 4

Batteries: Rodgers and Deverner, Bromley and Easterly.

Oaks 6, Seals 3

San Francisco, April 5.—(I. N. S.)—The Seals were on a fair way to win the game in Oakland yesterday, with a 3 to 1 score at the beginning of the eighth. But at the end of that frame the wily Oaks slipped up and tied the score, which achievement foreshadowed the final outcome.

In the ninth the Seals went higher than a Gotha with the anti-air craft after it, and the erstwhile humble Oaks romped away with the game to a tune of 6 to 3. The main act was a tune of 6 to 3. The main act was a tune of 6 to 3. The main act was a tune of 6 to 3.

Third Baseman Pick of the Seals

starred at the bat with a home run and a couple of singles. Krause allowed 12 hits but was lucky. The score: R. H. E. Oakland 6 14 3 San Francisco 3 11 1 Batteries: Krause and Mitze; Baum, Johnson and Brooks.

Angels 3, Salt Lake 1

Los Angeles, April 5.—(I. N. S.)—Tim McCabe, the Salt Lake twirler, fell by the way side in the seventh inning while engaged in a pitchers' duel with Pete Standige and as a result of Boles' and Pepe's three batters and a double by Killifer, the Angels captured the third game of the series, 3 to 1.

Singles by Killifer and Schick gave the Angels a run in the first frame after which McCabe tightened up and allowed only four hits during the next five innings. Standige was touched for nine safeties, but kept them scattered. The Bees tied things up in the fourth, when, with one out, Orr beat out a bunt in front of the plate, and Standige came home on Crandall's bingle. Konik nick hit into a double play, Terry to Killifer to Fournier, and the visitors' hopes died, but they made a strong bid in the eighth. Miller, batting for McCabe, was safe on Killifer's low throw, Farmer singled and the bases were filled when Pepe juggled Signin's drive. Chappelle struck out and Killifer was caught between third and the plate trying to steal home. Ryan ended the inning by going out, Killifer to Fournier. The score: R. H. E. Salt Lake 1 7 1 Los Angeles 3 8 3 Batteries—McCabe, Evans and Konnik; Standige and Boles.

International Launched Tonight

New York, April 4.—(I. N. S.)—The meeting intended to launch the new International league will be held tonight. Some speculation still remains as to what cities will be represented. It seems probable these candidates will be represented at the meeting: Baltimore, Buffalo, Jersey City, Newark, Rochester, Scranton and Wilkesbarre.

The Mystery

From Sketch A British warrior in France (to his comrade)—I never get on them trams what go to that place. Complet. They're full every time.

"YOU SURE LOOK NIFTY, JIM! WHAT'S THE GRAND IDEA?"

"Funny what a lot of difference snappy clothes make to a man." "Well, I'm glad you like the change, Leo. The thing that makes me tired is that I might just as well have been wearing decent clothes all this time instead of going around like a bum. You see, I buy my clothes now at Cherry's, in the Pittock block, and it makes a lot of difference. Up there you forget about the cash—just a little down and the rest in easy weekly payments. This suit's an example of the style and quality you get 'the Cherry way.' I wish you'd go up—you'd like their treatment and their clothes. They're at 239-91 Washington street, Pittock block." (Adv.)

HUNT CLUB WILL HOLD OPEN RACE FOR THE WOMEN

Beautiful Trophy Goes to Winner of Saturday's Chase; Other Events Billed.

James Nicol, M. F. H., of the Portland Hunt club, has scheduled a women's open paper chase for Saturday afternoon. Led by Harry M. Kerron, the chase will start at 2 o'clock on the North Plains road, one half mile west of the Weed nursery.

The winner of this chase will receive the Derby club trophy and in addition will have her name inscribed on the Multnomah Hotel trophy, which was turned over to the club as a perpetual trophy by Mrs. W. H. Warrens and Miss Rose Harrington, who won the cup last year. Following the chase, tea will be served at the clubhouse by Miss Rose Harrington and Mrs. James Nicol.

Cross Country Ride

A senior cross country ride has been scheduled for Sunday, April 14. The riders will start from the Portland Riding academy at 8:30 o'clock. Breakfast will be served at the clubhouse at 11 o'clock. Mrs. W. L. Wood will welcome the members and their friends at the clubhouse, following the ride.

A senior team open paper chase will be staged Saturday, April 20. The event will start about 4 o'clock from the clubhouse and the trail will be laid by Mrs. J. H. Murphy and Miss C. W. Flannery. Dinner will be served at the clubhouse following the event. Mrs. F. C. Burfum and Miss Anne Shogren will welcome the members.

Junior Events

A junior cross country ride and dinner dance will be held Saturday afternoon, April 13. The ride will start at 12:45 o'clock and the riders will return to the academy at 4 o'clock. The dinner dance will be given at 6 o'clock. A junior closed paper chase has been scheduled for Saturday, April 27. The horses for this event will be Miss Marion Bares and Miss Leona Prag.

MENTORS TO HALVE SCHEDULE

Double Game Split Season Transferred Into Straight Games for High School Teams.

INTERSCHOLASTIC baseball teams will not play a split schedule during the coming season. This was decided at a meeting Thursday of the directors of the league and the coaches.

At a meeting a fortnight ago, the directors rejected the double game split schedule, which was prepared by the coaches, and instructed them to draw up a schedule similar to the one played during the basketball season. The coaches fought this plan and won their point when they were instructed to draw up a straight schedule, in which each team plays each other team once during the season. The new schedule will be prepared next week. In view of the early closing of the spring semester, five games will have to be played each week.

The directors of the league endorsed the Northwest military and open track and field championships to be staged in the Ice palace April 24. Each school will enter a team in the relay race and will also be represented in the open events. The league will make a request that one or two academic events be added to the program. This matter will be discussed at Tuesday's meeting of the executive committee.

Miller Leaves for South

Walter Miller, the welterweight wrestler, left last night for Los Angeles, to become wrestling instructor of the Los Angeles Athletic club. He said that inasmuch as Mike Tokel could give no definite date as to his arrival in Portland for a match, he was unable to remain any longer. He said, however, that he might return if the promoters wished.

QUICK AND ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

Nash Trucks Relieve Freight Congestion

The biggest single influence at work to relieve the nation's freight congestion is the greatly extended use of high grade motor truck transportation. Nash trucks are particularly adapted to this new truck service. Equipped with automatic locking differentials, they get through where other trucks without this important feature cannot go. The famous Nash Quad which drives, brakes and steers on all four wheels, is known in many countries for its excellent performance in extra difficult duty.

The two Nash rear driven trucks of one ton and two ton capacity have proved in severest service that they are worthy truck-mates of the Quad. All Nash trucks are unusually powerful, dependable and economical. An invitation will bring one of our transportation experts to show you how Nash trucks can solve your hauling problem.
