

"Human courage should rise to the height of human calamity."
—General Robt. E. Lee.

This Courageous American And More Than a Million Others Have Subscribed their services sacrificed luxuries, even comforts, broken home ties, given up business prospects and offered life itself that their country and the rest of the world may never be yoked by Prussianism—that all nations may live in a justified peace, a deserved freedom and a desired democracy.

Most of these boys have paid a great part of their subscription by getting on the job—they are on duty right now in some of the hardest living places on earth.

Is It Not Up To Us
