On "Brothers' Day" All Are to Whrite Letters to the Absent Brothers at the Front

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL

LETTER WRITING TO BE ORDER ON SUNDAY, APRIL 21

Many Portland Churches Will Make Announcement of Meeting Places for the People.

SUGGESTION MAKES BIG HIT

Pastors and Young People's Leaders Express Enthusiasm Over Plan to Remember Soldiers.

UNDAY, April 21, is "Brother's Day," the newest day in churchdom. It is to be a day on which letters shallabe written the absent brothers in has a day for mothers, a father's day army and navy, both at home and work.

It is not the purpose of "Brother's Day" to limit the letters to boys who have gone to the church, but to every man or boy who lived within the radius of the church before he answered the all of his country. The committees in charge of each gathering will be expected to secure the names of all the men who have joined the army or navy in the neighborhood of the church, and those who do not have special friends to write to will be asked to tell the news the city and neighborhood to the soldier or sailor.

Fred J. Schnell, secretary of the Portland district, Epworth league, Harley K. Hallgren of the Baptist Young People's union and Ward Robinson of the Multnomah County Christian Endeavor union, expressed great interest in the new day. All three are bending their efforts to make the day a success in their organizations. One of the leaders i
