

ALMOST HALF OF HONOR FLAGS ARE WON BY OREGON

This State Gets Twenty More
Than California Up to Date;
Loan Total Is $620,947,550.

ST. LOUIS DISTRICT LEADING

Top Is Passed With 36 Per Cent to Boot, Without Including
Missouri Metropolis in Total.

Washington, April 15.—(U. P.)—The third Liberty loan campaign, steamed into its second week today with full pressure on. The Minneapolis reserve district, delayed by a long pre-campaign speaking drive, opened sales. Reports indicated the people in that section are responding well.

"Minneapolis district will dispose of its entire quota and then some," said an encouraging message from the Minneapolis headquarters. The message also showed it had taken much restraint to keep the selling campaign closed to date.

Latest figures in the third Liberty loan today showed a total subscription of $620,947,550.

St. Louis District Leads
The St. Louis reserve district rounded the turn in the lead. Its $130,000,000 quota was 36 per cent subscribed with-out the St. Louis city subscriptions included. Kentucky led in that district with $9,678,010, while Arkansas was a close second.

The other districts' percentages are:
New York 26, Dallas 25, Boston 21, Chicago 19, Philadelphia 15, Cleveland 14, Kansas City 14, San Francisco 11, Richmond 7, Atlanta 6.

Hundreds of cities expect to go over the top this week and about 1000 communities have already asked for honor flags.

Oregon Gets Nearly Half
San Francisco today telegraphed that 200 honor flags had been awarded and 50 other cities had in claims for flags. "No let-up in enthusiasm," the wire concluded.

San Francisco's awards by states were:
California 72, Washington 12, Utah 14, Oregon 22, Alaska 3, Nevada 5, Arizona 6, Idaho 1.

West Virginia's first honor flag was raised at White Sulphur Springs last night, with Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, and Vice Chairman Paul Warburg of the federal reserve board making addresses.

The flag contains two stars. Just before it was raised an additional $10,000 was subscribed, adding a third star.

Pittsburgh Working Hard
In Pittsburgh today 6000 volunteer workers began canvassing for the loan.

A new feature in the subscription from Kansas is the large number in the German speaking communities. Marion county has adopted the slogan "Bonds in every German-speaking home by May 1."

The Kansas City district has awarded 135 honor flags.

Boston today reported that Weston and West Tisbury had tied with South-boro in being first to subscribe their quotas.

NEW DRAFT CALLS 251
MEN FROM THIS STATE

(Continued from Page One)

Arizona, 318; Arkansas, 599; California, 1187; Colorado, 696; Idaho, 165; Illinois, 8047; Indiana, 842; Iowa, 1910; Kansas, 1210; Kentucky, 1228; Michigan, 2592; Minnesota, 1925; Missouri, 2163; Montana, 354; Nebraska, 987; Nevada, 49; New Mexico, 274; North Dakota, 581; Ohio, 2060; Oklahoma, 846; Oregon, 231; Pennsylvania, 3775; South Dakota, 487; Utah, 183; Washington, 434; West Virginia, 549; Wisconsin, 2135; Wyoming, 92.

OREGON MEN WILL BE SENT TO CALIFORNIA

Captain J. E. Cullison, chief of Oregon's selective service work, Sunday received orders from the war department to have 251 men prepared to entrain for Fort McDowell, Cal., during the five-day period beginning May 1. The entire group, it is apparently intended, will be drafted as coast artillerymen, for that branch of the service is in training at Fort McDowell.

Captain Cullison and his staff have sent to every local and division draft board in the state instructions to select their men for the call, which represents 3.4 per cent of Oregon's first gross quota for the second draft. Thus far 20.9 per cent of the first gross quota has been called to service.

Seventy-six of the men to be called will be from Portland, while Clackamas county, with a quota of 11 men, will send the next largest number. A quota of 923 men will entrain for Camp Lewis beginning April 29, and local authorities believe a call for 5000 or 6000 men will be issued early in May. Oregon's first gross quota is for 7374 men.

Quotas asked of the various county and division boards in the state are: Baker, 7; Benton, 4; Clackamas, 11; Clatsop, 9; Columbia, 5; Coos, 8; Crook, 2; Curry, 1; Deschutes, 3; Douglas, 6; Gilliam, 2; Grant, 3; Harney, 3; Hood River, 2; Jackson, 8; Jefferson, 2; Josephine, 2; Klamath, 5; Lake, 3; Lane, 10; Lincoln, 2; Linn, 7; Malheur, 5; Marion No. 1, 8; Marion No. 2, 4; Morrow, 2; Multnomah, 4; Polk, 5; Sherman, 2; Tillamook, 3; Umatilla, 9; Union, 6; Walla-walla, 4; Wasco, 3; Washington, 8; Wheeler, 1; Yamhill, 6.

Boards in Portland are assigned as follows: No. 1, 10; No. 2, 11; No. 3, 7; No. 4, 8; No. 5, 8; No. 6, 8; No. 7, 6; No. 8, 6; No. 9, 4; No. 10, 8.

SENIATOR STONE'S DEATH SEVENTH IN SENATE YEAR

Body of Missouri Senator to Be
Sent to Jefferson City; Capital
Mourns His Passing.

SPECULATION ON SUCCESSOR

David R. Francis or ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk May Be
Appointed by the Governor.

Washington, April 15.—(U. P.)—The capital today mourned the loss of one of its most conspicuous figures, Senator William J. Stone of Missouri, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. His death yesterday afternoon caused a virtual suspension of activities in congress today.

The senate adjourned almost immediately after convening this afternoon as a mark of respect to the memory of Senator Stone. The action was taken upon the motion of Senator Reed, colleague of the deceased statesman. The senate sat in tense silence and Senator Reed, almost in tears, briefly and eloquently eulogized the life and work of the senator. Senator Reed told the senate that the news from the battle front during the past few weeks "had fallen upon the heart of Senator Stone with crushing force."

Funeral services will be held at his residence in this city this afternoon, after which the body will be taken to Jefferson City, Mo., the state capital, where it will lie in state. Scores of senators and congressmen, as well as nearly every high official in the executive departments, were expected to attend the services. The entire Missouri delegation in the congress, with the exception of Speaker Champ Clark, will be present at the funeral train to Missouri. Burial will take place at Senator Stone's old home, Nevada, Mo.

Seven Deaths in Past Year
Because of Senator Stone's long term in the service in national politics and his prominence, his death caused a profound shock in official and political Washington. His political enemies forgot their animosity to join with his friends in sorrow over his loss.

The death of Senator Stone makes the seventh in the senate since the United States entered the war. In each number of deaths in the upper house in such a short period of time has ever before been recorded. Preceding him in death were Senators Hastings of Wisconsin, Lane of Oregon, Newlands of Nevada, Brady of Idaho, Hughes of New Jersey and Broussard of Louisiana, who died in early last year. By a singular coincidence all but one of the seven senators who have died were Democrats. Until successors are appointed to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Senator Stone and Broussard, the Democratic majority in the senate will be but six.

Hitchcock Will Succeed
Operation of the ancient rules of seniority will place in the vacant seat of Senator Stone the chairman of the foreign relations committee, perhaps the most prized position in the senate, particularly in the present crisis. The man to succeed him is William P. Hatch of Nebraska, who has been acting as chairman of the committee since Senator Stone declined to take charge of the resolution declaring war against Germany last year.

Among those prominently mentioned to succeed Senator Stone from Missouri today are ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk, who has been acting as chairman of the Commerce committee, and David R. Francis, present ambassador to Russia. Under the laws of Missouri, the successor to fill the vacancy until the next regular election. Speaker Clark's name was also suggested, but it is understood that Mr. Clark prefers to remain in his important position in the house.

At his bedside at the time of his death were his wife and three children, Kimbrough Stone, U. S. circuit judge of the Eighth appellate division, with headquarters at Kansas City, Mo., John W. Parkinson of St. Joseph, Mo., and Miss Mabel Stone; a niece, Miss Margaret Winston of St. Louis, and his physician, Dr. William M. Sprigg of Washington.

Nevada was selected as the place of burial because it was to that place Senator Stone and his parents went from Kentucky. He lived there until he became governor of Missouri and his father and mother are buried there.

The death of Senator Stone and the death of Senator Broussard Friday last, leaves the senate with 50 Democrats and 44 Republicans, including Senator Lenroot, lately elected from Wisconsin.

Senator Stone was one of the most picturesque and widely known figures, not only in congress, but in American politics. His campaigns had always been bitter and he fought them vigorously to the end.

He was born in Madison county, Kentucky, in 1818, and attended the University of Missouri. There he was given the degree of doctor of laws. He practiced law for many years in Missouri, being first prosecuting attorney for Vernon city then presidential elector, and finally member of congress in 1878. In 1893 he was elected governor of Missouri, and served for four years. He has been a member of the Democratic national committee since 1896, and was vice chairman of that body for four years. In 1903 he was elected to the United States senate and has served there continuously since.

In 1874 he married Sarah L. Whiston, who survives him with three children. About a year ago, Senator Stone was made the storm center of various attacks because of his stand against arming merchant ships and of his opposition to war with Germany.

In January he caused a sensation by an arraignment of Theodore Roosevelt, asserting that the former president was "aiding the Kaiser" through activity against the president and the Democratic party. This was at the time that Roosevelt came to Washington early this year.

Former Colleague Regrets Death
"I am sorry to hear of the death of Senator Stone," John M. Gearin, former United States senator from Oregon, said this morning. "He was one of the most brilliant men in the senate. I knew him well during my service in the senate and found him charming in manner, able in his qualifications and his work in the senate brilliant in advocacy of those measures which he favored, or in opposition to those which he did not favor. I thought highly of him, and am sure that his death will remove one of the dominant and useful forces from the senate."

Steel Directors Relected
New York, April 15.—(U. P.)—All retiring directors of the United States Steel corporation were reelected at the annual meeting today.

Try Sceptic After Shaving
Soothing, cooling, refreshing. Leave soft, velvet finish. Instantly relieves and prevents irritation. Prevents infection. You'll like its clean, healthy odor. 50c. All druggists. Adv.

OFFICIAL
REPORTS

BRITISH
London, April 15.—(U. P.)—The Germans have again retaken Neuve-Eglise.

"There was severe fighting all day yesterday before Neuve-Eglise," Field Marshal Haig reported today. "After beating off numerous attacks we were compelled in the end to withdraw for a second time from the village."

The Germans have been driven back with great loss in fierce fighting northwest of Neville. Haig reported.

"This sector, during the course of the day, no less than seven attacks were repulsed with heavy loss," he said.

"Once the enemy advanced in five waves, the weight of attack on our line was bent slightly back, but a counter attack completely restored it."

SENIATOR STONE'S DEATH SEVENTH IN SENATE YEAR

Body of Missouri Senator to Be
Sent to Jefferson City; Capital
Mourns His Passing.

SPECULATION ON SUCCESSOR

David R. Francis or ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk May Be
Appointed by the Governor.

Washington, April 15.—(U. P.)—The capital today mourned the loss of one of its most conspicuous figures, Senator William J. Stone of Missouri, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. His death yesterday afternoon caused a virtual suspension of activities in congress today.

The senate adjourned almost immediately after convening this afternoon as a mark of respect to the memory of Senator Stone. The action was taken upon the motion of Senator Reed, colleague of the deceased statesman. The senate sat in tense silence and Senator Reed, almost in tears, briefly and eloquently eulogized the life and work of the senator. Senator Reed told the senate that the news from the battle front during the past few weeks "had fallen upon the heart of Senator Stone with crushing force."

Funeral services will be held at his residence in this city this afternoon, after which the body will be taken to Jefferson City, Mo., the state capital, where it will lie in state. Scores of senators and congressmen, as well as nearly every high official in the executive departments, were expected to attend the services. The entire Missouri delegation in the congress, with the exception of Speaker Champ Clark, will be present at the funeral train to Missouri. Burial will take place at Senator Stone's old home, Nevada, Mo.

Seven Deaths in Past Year
Because of Senator Stone's long term in the service in national politics and his prominence, his death caused a profound shock in official and political Washington. His political enemies forgot their animosity to join with his friends in sorrow over his loss.

The death of Senator Stone makes the seventh in the senate since the United States entered the war. In each number of deaths in the upper house in such a short period of time has ever before been recorded. Preceding him in death were Senators Hastings of Wisconsin, Lane of Oregon, Newlands of Nevada, Brady of Idaho, Hughes of New Jersey and Broussard of Louisiana, who died in early last year. By a singular coincidence all but one of the seven senators who have died were Democrats. Until successors are appointed to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Senator Stone and Broussard, the Democratic majority in the senate will be but six.

Hitchcock Will Succeed
Operation of the ancient rules of seniority will place in the vacant seat of Senator Stone the chairman of the foreign relations committee, perhaps the most prized position in the senate, particularly in the present crisis. The man to succeed him is William P. Hatch of Nebraska, who has been acting as chairman of the committee since Senator Stone declined to take charge of the resolution declaring war against Germany last year.

Among those prominently mentioned to succeed Senator Stone from Missouri today are ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk, who has been acting as chairman of the Commerce committee, and David R. Francis, present ambassador to Russia. Under the laws of Missouri, the successor to fill the vacancy until the next regular election. Speaker Clark's name was also suggested, but it is understood that Mr. Clark prefers to remain in his important position in the house.

At his bedside at the time of his death were his wife and three children, Kimbrough Stone, U. S. circuit judge of the Eighth appellate division, with headquarters at Kansas City, Mo., John W. Parkinson of St. Joseph, Mo., and Miss Mabel Stone; a niece, Miss Margaret Winston of St. Louis, and his physician, Dr. William M. Sprigg of Washington.

Nevada was selected as the place of burial because it was to that place Senator Stone and his parents went from Kentucky. He lived there until he became governor of Missouri and his father and mother are buried there.

The death of Senator Stone and the death of Senator Broussard Friday last, leaves the senate with 50 Democrats and 44 Republicans, including Senator Lenroot, lately elected from Wisconsin.

Senator Stone was one of the most picturesque and widely known figures, not only in congress, but in American politics. His campaigns had always been bitter and he fought them vigorously to the end.

He was born in Madison county, Kentucky, in 1818, and attended the University of Missouri. There he was given the degree of doctor of laws. He practiced law for many years in Missouri, being first prosecuting attorney for Vernon city then presidential elector, and finally member of congress in 1878. In 1893 he was elected governor of Missouri, and served for four years. He has been a member of the Democratic national committee since 1896, and was vice chairman of that body for four years. In 1903 he was elected to the United States senate and has served there continuously since.

In 1874 he married Sarah L. Whiston, who survives him with three children. About a year ago, Senator Stone was made the storm center of various attacks because of his stand against arming merchant ships and of his opposition to war with Germany.

In January he caused a sensation by an arraignment of Theodore Roosevelt, asserting that the former president was "aiding the Kaiser" through activity against the president and the Democratic party. This was at the time that Roosevelt came to Washington early this year.

Former Colleague Regrets Death
"I am sorry to hear of the death of Senator Stone," John M. Gearin, former United States senator from Oregon, said this morning. "He was one of the most brilliant men in the senate. I knew him well during my service in the senate and found him charming in manner, able in his qualifications and his work in the senate brilliant in advocacy of those measures which he favored, or in opposition to those which he did not favor. I thought highly of him, and am sure that his death will remove one of the dominant and useful forces from the senate."

Steel Directors Relected
New York, April 15.—(U. P.)—All retiring directors of the United States Steel corporation were reelected at the annual meeting today.

Try Sceptic After Shaving
Soothing, cooling, refreshing. Leave soft, velvet finish. Instantly relieves and prevents irritation. Prevents infection. You'll like its clean, healthy odor. 50c. All druggists. Adv.

OFFICIAL
REPORTS

BRITISH
London, April 15.—(U. P.)—The Germans have again retaken Neuve-Eglise.

"There was severe fighting all day yesterday before Neuve-Eglise," Field Marshal Haig reported today. "After beating off numerous attacks we were compelled in the end to withdraw for a second time from the village."

The Germans have been driven back with great loss in fierce fighting northwest of Neville. Haig reported.

"This sector, during the course of the day, no less than seven attacks were repulsed with heavy loss," he said.

"Once the enemy advanced in five waves, the weight of attack on our line was bent slightly back, but a counter attack completely restored it."

SENIATOR STONE'S DEATH SEVENTH IN SENATE YEAR

Body of Missouri Senator to Be
Sent to Jefferson City; Capital
Mourns His Passing.

SPECULATION ON SUCCESSOR

David R. Francis or ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk May Be
Appointed by the Governor.

Washington, April 15.—(U. P.)—The capital today mourned the loss of one of its most conspicuous figures, Senator William J. Stone of Missouri, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. His death yesterday afternoon caused a virtual suspension of activities in congress today.

The senate adjourned almost immediately after convening this afternoon as a mark of respect to the memory of Senator Stone. The action was taken upon the motion of Senator Reed, colleague of the deceased statesman. The senate sat in tense silence and Senator Reed, almost in tears, briefly and eloquently eulogized the life and work of the senator. Senator Reed told the senate that the news from the battle front during the past few weeks "had fallen upon the heart of Senator Stone with crushing force."

Funeral services will be held at his residence in this city this afternoon, after which the body will be taken to Jefferson City, Mo., the state capital, where it will lie in state. Scores of senators and congressmen, as well as nearly every high official in the executive departments, were expected to attend the services. The entire Missouri delegation in the congress, with the exception of Speaker Champ Clark, will be present at the funeral train to Missouri. Burial will take place at Senator Stone's old home, Nevada, Mo.

Seven Deaths in Past Year
Because of Senator Stone's long term in the service in national politics and his prominence, his death caused a profound shock in official and political Washington. His political enemies forgot their animosity to join with his friends in sorrow over his loss.

The death of Senator Stone makes the seventh in the senate since the United States entered the war. In each number of deaths in the upper house in such a short period of time has ever before been recorded. Preceding him in death were Senators Hastings of Wisconsin, Lane of Oregon, Newlands of Nevada, Brady of Idaho, Hughes of New Jersey and Broussard of Louisiana, who died in early last year. By a singular coincidence all but one of the seven senators who have died were Democrats. Until successors are appointed to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Senator Stone and Broussard, the Democratic majority in the senate will be but six.

Hitchcock Will Succeed
Operation of the ancient rules of seniority will place in the vacant seat of Senator Stone the chairman of the foreign relations committee, perhaps the most prized position in the senate, particularly in the present crisis. The man to succeed him is William P. Hatch of Nebraska, who has been acting as chairman of the committee since Senator Stone declined to take charge of the resolution declaring war against Germany last year.

Among those prominently mentioned to succeed Senator Stone from Missouri today are ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk, who has been acting as chairman of the Commerce committee, and David R. Francis, present ambassador to Russia. Under the laws of Missouri, the successor to fill the vacancy until the next regular election. Speaker Clark's name was also suggested, but it is understood that Mr. Clark prefers to remain in his important position in the house.

At his bedside at the time of his death were his wife and three children, Kimbrough Stone, U. S. circuit judge of the Eighth appellate division, with headquarters at Kansas City, Mo., John W. Parkinson of St. Joseph, Mo., and Miss Mabel Stone; a niece, Miss Margaret Winston of St. Louis, and his physician, Dr. William M. Sprigg of Washington.

Nevada was selected as the place of burial because it was to that place Senator Stone and his parents went from Kentucky. He lived there until he became governor of Missouri and his father and mother are buried there.

The death of Senator Stone and the death of Senator Broussard Friday last, leaves the senate with 50 Democrats and 44 Republicans, including Senator Lenroot, lately elected from Wisconsin.

Senator Stone was one of the most picturesque and widely known figures, not only in congress, but in American politics. His campaigns had always been bitter and he fought them vigorously to the end.

He was born in Madison county, Kentucky, in 1818, and attended the University of Missouri. There he was given the degree of doctor of laws. He practiced law for many years in Missouri, being first prosecuting attorney for Vernon city then presidential elector, and finally member of congress in 1878. In 1893 he was elected governor of Missouri, and served for four years. He has been a member of the Democratic national committee since 1896, and was vice chairman of that body for four years. In 1903 he was elected to the United States senate and has served there continuously since.

In 1874 he married Sarah L. Whiston, who survives him with three children. About a year ago, Senator Stone was made the storm center of various attacks because of his stand against arming merchant ships and of his opposition to war with Germany.

In January he caused a sensation by an arraignment of Theodore Roosevelt, asserting that the former president was "aiding the Kaiser" through activity against the president and the Democratic party. This was at the time that Roosevelt came to Washington early this year.

Former Colleague Regrets Death
"I am sorry to hear of the death of Senator Stone," John M. Gearin, former United States senator from Oregon, said this morning. "He was one of the most brilliant men in the senate. I knew him well during my service in the senate and found him charming in manner, able in his qualifications and his work in the senate brilliant in advocacy of those measures which he favored, or in opposition to those which he did not favor. I thought highly of him, and am sure that his death will remove one of the dominant and useful forces from the senate."

Steel Directors Relected
New York, April 15.—(U. P.)—All retiring directors of the United States Steel corporation were reelected at the annual meeting today.

Try Sceptic After Shaving
Soothing, cooling, refreshing. Leave soft, velvet finish. Instantly relieves and prevents irritation. Prevents infection. You'll like its clean, healthy odor. 50c. All druggists. Adv.

OFFICIAL
REPORTS

BRITISH
London, April 15.—(U. P.)—The Germans have again retaken Neuve-Eglise.

"There was severe fighting all day yesterday before Neuve-Eglise," Field Marshal Haig reported today. "After beating off numerous attacks we were compelled in the end to withdraw for a second time from the village."

The Germans have been driven back with great loss in fierce fighting northwest of Neville. Haig reported.

"This sector, during the course of the day, no less than seven attacks were repulsed with heavy loss," he said.

"Once the enemy advanced in five waves, the weight of attack on our line was bent slightly back, but a counter attack completely restored it."

SENIATOR STONE'S DEATH SEVENTH IN SENATE YEAR

Body of Missouri Senator to Be
Sent to Jefferson City; Capital
Mourns His Passing.

SPECULATION ON SUCCESSOR

David R. Francis or ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk May Be
Appointed by the Governor.

Washington, April 15.—(U. P.)—The capital today mourned the loss of one of its most conspicuous figures, Senator William J. Stone of Missouri, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. His death yesterday afternoon caused a virtual suspension of activities in congress today.

The senate adjourned almost immediately after convening this afternoon as a mark of respect to the memory of Senator Stone. The action was taken upon the motion of Senator Reed, colleague of the deceased statesman. The senate sat in tense silence and Senator Reed, almost in tears, briefly and eloquently eulogized the life and work of the senator. Senator Reed told the senate that the news from the battle front during the past few weeks "had fallen upon the heart of Senator Stone with crushing force."

Funeral services will be held at his residence in this city this afternoon, after which the body will be taken to Jefferson City, Mo., the state capital, where it will lie in state. Scores of senators and congressmen, as well as nearly every high official in the executive departments, were expected to attend the services. The entire Missouri delegation in the congress, with the exception of Speaker Champ Clark, will be present at the funeral train to Missouri. Burial will take place at Senator Stone's old home, Nevada, Mo.

Seven Deaths in Past Year
Because of Senator Stone's long term in the service in national politics and his prominence, his death caused a profound shock in official and political Washington. His political enemies forgot their animosity to join with his friends in sorrow over his loss.

The death of Senator Stone makes the seventh in the senate since the United States entered the war. In each number of deaths in the upper house in such a short period of time has ever before been recorded. Preceding him in death were Senators Hastings of Wisconsin, Lane of Oregon, Newlands of Nevada, Brady of Idaho, Hughes of New Jersey and Broussard of Louisiana, who died in early last year. By a singular coincidence all but one of the seven senators who have died were Democrats. Until successors are appointed to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Senator Stone and Broussard, the Democratic majority in the senate will be but six.

Hitchcock Will Succeed
Operation of the ancient rules of seniority will place in the vacant seat of Senator Stone the chairman of the foreign relations committee, perhaps the most prized position in the senate, particularly in the present crisis. The man to succeed him is William P. Hatch of Nebraska, who has been acting as chairman of the committee since Senator Stone declined to take charge of the resolution declaring war against Germany last year.

Among those prominently mentioned to succeed Senator Stone from Missouri today are ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk, who has been acting as chairman of the Commerce committee, and David R. Francis, present ambassador to Russia. Under the laws of Missouri, the successor to fill the vacancy until the next regular election. Speaker Clark's name was also suggested, but it is understood that Mr. Clark prefers to remain in his important position in the house.

At his bedside at the time of his death were his wife and three children, Kimbrough Stone, U. S. circuit judge of the Eighth appellate division, with headquarters at Kansas City, Mo., John W. Parkinson of St. Joseph, Mo., and Miss Mabel Stone; a niece, Miss Margaret Winston of St. Louis, and his physician, Dr. William M. Sprigg of Washington.

Nevada was selected as the place of burial because it was to that place Senator Stone and his parents went from Kentucky. He lived there until he became governor of Missouri and his father and mother are buried there.

The death of Senator Stone and the death of Senator Broussard Friday last, leaves the senate with 50 Democrats and 44 Republicans, including Senator Lenroot, lately elected from Wisconsin.

Senator Stone was one of the most picturesque and widely known figures, not only in congress, but in American politics. His campaigns had always been bitter and he fought them vigorously to the end.

He was born in Madison county, Kentucky, in 1818, and attended the University of Missouri. There he was given the degree of doctor of laws. He practiced law for many years in Missouri, being first prosecuting attorney for Vernon city then presidential elector, and finally member of congress in 1878. In 1893 he was elected governor of Missouri, and served for four years. He has been a member of the Democratic national committee since 1896, and was vice chairman of that body for four years. In 1903 he was elected to the United States senate and has served there continuously since.

In 1874 he married Sarah L. Whiston, who survives him with three children. About a year ago, Senator Stone was made the storm center of various attacks because of his stand against arming merchant ships and of his opposition to war with Germany.

In January he caused a sensation by an arraignment of Theodore Roosevelt, asserting that the former president was "aiding the Kaiser" through activity against the president and the Democratic party. This was at the time that Roosevelt came to Washington early this year.

Former Colleague Regrets Death
"I am sorry to hear of the death of Senator Stone," John M. Gearin, former United States senator from Oregon, said this morning. "He was one of the most brilliant men in the senate. I knew him well during my service in the senate and found him charming in manner, able in his qualifications and his work in the senate brilliant in advocacy of those measures which he favored, or in opposition to those which he did not favor. I thought highly of him, and am sure that his death will remove one of the dominant and useful forces from the senate."

Steel Directors Relected
New York, April 15.—(U. P.)—All retiring directors of the United States Steel corporation were reelected at the annual meeting today.

Try Sceptic After Shaving
Soothing, cooling, refreshing. Leave soft, velvet finish. Instantly relieves and prevents irritation. Prevents infection. You'll like its clean, healthy odor. 50c. All druggists. Adv.

OFFICIAL
REPORTS

BRITISH
London, April 15.—(U. P.)—The Germans have again retaken Neuve-Eglise.

"There was severe fighting all day yesterday before Neuve-Eglise," Field Marshal Haig reported today. "After beating off numerous attacks we were compelled in the end to withdraw for a second time from the village."

The Germans have been driven back with great loss in fierce fighting northwest of Neville. Haig reported.