75 OREGON DOCTORS

State Survey of Available Medcos Is to Be Made Immediately.

Oregon is asked to furnish 75 doctors for medical reserve corps of the army in a request to Dr. C. J. McCusker, as secretary of the Oregon Medical assoclation, from Alexander R. Craig, secretary of the American Medical association. The latter association has been asked to aid in securing 5000 doctors throughout the nation for army service. To produce the 75-man quota it is planned to take a state survey of available medicos with the idea of avoiding the evil of depriving industries and other agencies of proper medical overseers. Many Oregon doctors who were and have become members of the medical reserve corps have already been called to active duty. These men will be listed in the proposed survey.

Dr. McCusker has been advised by the American Medical association of a meet ing of secretaries of state medical associations at Chicago on April 30, where the enlistment of doctors for future service will be thoroughly discussed. Dr. McCusker is endeavoring to arrange af fairs so that he can attend the meeting
