

RAISING QUOTA IS NOT FULL DUTY, IS CLARK ASSERTION

Every Last Dollar Needed, Says Speaker, to Help Own Sons Fight to Victorious End.

SPEAKS AGAIN THIS EVENING

Arraignment of Prussianism and Appeal for Loan Thrills Large Audience.

"They shall not pass!" By the eternal God, let it cost every penny and every drop of blood, they shall not pass!"

Professor S. H. Clark, speaking on behalf of the third Liberty loan, brought his audience to the fever heat of patriotism with his expanding oratory as he emphasized "The Gravity of the Situation."

That Professor Clark is an orator of a style that has seldom visited Portland is a fact to which his audience Tuesday night will testify after hearing the logical arraignment of the Prussian evil and his powerful appeal for the full expression of the loyal fervor of America and of Oregon.

America's Saving Hour

With Germany pushing every ounce of her strength into the battle while Great Britain and France are sending aged men to check the flood of Teutonism at the front line, it is America's saving hour. Professor Clark said.

Asked to Loan All to U. S.

We are not to count the fact that we have raised a Liberty loan "quota" as a patriotic achievement, he said, while the heart of France is bleeding.

Let our slogan be those words that the spilled blood of France made the immortal upon the battlefield at Verdun: "They shall not pass!"

Real Barrier Necessary

"Our blind faith in the right of our cause will not carry us over the top; it will not make our conclusions with the Hun on the western front successful. We cannot keep the Germans from entering Paris by our mere hopes—we must get into the fight with our living bodies and our money bank up a barrier that they cannot break through."

National Patience Taxed

"Every American penny and every spark of American energy, slaked with the lifeblood of the nation, are needed in the fight. Our allies and our own boys ask for these, and our least gift is our dollars. Our dollars are not patriotically given to the government, but are loaned to our mother nation to fight in a common cause and at a business-like rate of interest."

Salem, Or., April 24.—Governor Withycombe refused to honor the requisition of the governor of Arizona for A. E. Frame of Portland, who was wanted in Arizona on charges of perjury and embezzlement.

The governor said the alleged perjury was committed a year ago and if it had been a serious matter it should have been given attention long before this time, and as to the embezzlement, which was alleged to have been committed with the funds of a mining company with which Frame was connected, the governor said the records of the company disproved the alleged crime.
