Wrestler From Montana Defies Other Shipmen

With all other athletes producing much rivalry at the Portland shipyards, the great international sport of wrestling is coming in for its share with the arrival here of the middleweight champion of Montana, Earl Robbins, who is now putting hammerlocks and half nelsons on steel beams at the Northwest Steel yards.

Robbins is out to grapple any champion in any other shipyard and says he would like to hear from John Viehof or Max Martin, the bone-crusher of the Foundation yards. Robbins agrees to beat both in an hour for $100 side bet, and if young Mister Robbins of Bozeman, Mont., is so careless with his money he must be some matman.

Robbins replaced Sax, he would not permit Trambitas to go on.

"No new referee, no fight," thundered Fable.

"No new referee," asserted Watkins.

Public Was Satisfied

The bout went on with Sax the third man in the ring. Fable squelched and the public evidently satisfied.

If the boxing commission showed as much acumen in all of its affairs as in this big one, it would be less liable to criticism. However, Chairman Watkins has found a little more time to give from his business affairs to the commission and it shows signs now of running smoothly.

Draft Hits Canadian Athletes

The changes in the drafting of Canadian soldiers and the taking of all single men between the ages of 19 and 25 will mean the loss of many athletes from Toronto and other cities of the Dominion of Canada, who have been granted exemption, were planning a busy summer in baseball, lacrosse and other sports.

Dallas, Or., May 13.—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Eakin of this city that their son, Jack B. Eakin, had been promoted to a first lieutenantcy in the sanitary corps. Berlin, via London, May 13.—(I. N. S.)—Nineteen allied aeroplanes were downed on the west front during the last two days' fighting, the German war office announced. Twelve of these were brought down by the famous "circus" led by Baron von Richtofen up until his recent death. Lieutenant Loewenhardt is mentioned for his twenty-first aerial victory.

GRANT SMITH-PORTER WINS FIFTH STRAIGHT BALL GAME OF SEASON

Wayne Barham's Pitching Staff Too Much for St. Helens Tossers; Foundation Wallops Supple & Ballin; Cornfoot and Standifer-Clarkson Winners; Stumpf Gets Home Run.

DEFEATING the St. Helens Shipbuilding company team in a well-played contest before one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a ball game in St. Helens, the Grant Smith-Porter team retained the leadership of the Columbia-Willamette Shipbuilders' Baseball league. Sunday's victory was the fifth straight chalked up by the St. Johns tossers.

In the other league games, the Foundation players fattened up their batting averages at the expense of the Supple & Ballin pitchers and walked away with the long end of a 26 to 3 score, the Cornfoot team won from Peninsula by the score of 11 to 3, and the Standifer-Clarkson team beat the Northwest Steel company club, 7 to 0.

Wayne Barham's masterly pitching and the oportune hitting of his teammates spelled defeat for the St. Helens Shipbuilding company team at St. Helens. Barham held the upper hand in the contest throughout, striking out a dozen batters and allowing but six hits. Dick Mitchell, the St. Helens twirler, was unsteady and was replaced in the eighth by Hoagland.

The league leaders scored twice in the first on Priehard's doubles, Yates' single, McDonald's error and a wild pitch. Another tally was added in the third and St. Helens came back with two runs. Each team added a score in seventh and the St. Johns players added two in the eighth.

The hitting of Priehard, Yates and Harmon of the winners and McPike and Reed of St. Helens featured.

FOUNDATION WALLOPS BALL

The Foundation team walloped the offerings of Pitchers Laird, Williams and Abbott of the Supple & Ballin team at all corners of the lot in the second game of the double-header at St. Johns, winning easily by the score of 26 to 3.

Bill Stumpf, playing his first game in the league, knocked the first ball pitched to him over the fence for a home run. Sunday, Edwards and Weller, who relieved "Lefty" James in the seventh inning, also made honors. James, Gleason, Robinson, Stumpf and Slightly each collected three hits during the half-inning.

Supple & Ballin made two hits off James in six innings.

Bees Saved From Defeat in Matinee by Clever Work of Their Pitcher.

San Francisco, May 13.—(I. N. S.)—If it had not been for Jean Dubuc, Salt Lake's fierce fighter, from Flanders, the Bees might possibly have won a double game yesterday. As it was, they took the morning game and had a good chance at the afternoon party until Pitcher Dubuc came through in the sixth inning with a home run, bringing in two men ahead of him.

The Seals unfathomed McCabe's puzzlers in the morning and won handsily, 8 to 1. Spider Baum, while allowing the Bees plenty of hits, was as tight as a clam shell in the pinches and they were unable to make their bingles count for anything.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Chicago 1, Cleveland 0

Salt Lake, May 13.—(I. N. S.)—The Chicago White Sox won an abbreviated contest yesterday, 1 to 0. The wet ground fooled Tris Speaker. The Indians' fielding ace, when in the fourth inning, played Candill's line single for a bound. Instead, the pill skidded between the Texan's legs, on which Gandill got to third. Enzmann then wild-pitched home the one run of the contest. Heavy rain fell at the beginning of the sixth inning when the game was called.

The score—R. H. E.
Chicago..... 0 3 1
Cleveland..... 0 0 0

Batteries—Enzmann and O'Neill, C. Williams and Schalk.

Other Eastern games scheduled for Sunday were postponed on account of rain.

BOX. COM. MAKES HIT BY STAND

Chairman Watkins Lets Manager Know Where to Head in on Referee Selection.

ALTHOUGH the Portland boxing commission has been the butt of some spoofing, and has been censured a number of times, it made a stand at Friday night's smoker that cannot be met with the approval of the well balanced fans of the city.

Frank Watkins, chairman of the commission, was responsible for scotching a situation that might have been bad for the game, when he called the bluff of "Grey Jack" Fable, manager of Valley Trambitas (Jimmy Darcy) and cordially informed Fred Fulton that, although the fans would no doubt like to see the great heavyweight in action as referee, the commission had certain rules which prevented it allowing Fred to officiate.

Against Commission Rules

Fulton appeared at the smoker at about the time that a small but vociferous minority of the fans took exception to the ruling of Joe Sax, the commission referee, in the Wing victory over Brommo. A few called for Fulton to referee and, naturally, the presence of a celebrity caused all of the fans to take up the cry.

Fred, who is good natured fellow, readily consented, after the continual request to referee, and had peeled off his coat, when Watkins visited him and explained the situation from the standpoint of the commission, which stand was approved by Fulton. The situation was tactfully handled by the chairman and the explanation to the fans was well received.

Then Fable took it upon himself to inform Watkins that unless another referee replaced Sax, he would not permit Trambitas to go on.

"No new referee, no fight," thundered Fable.

"No new referee," asserted Watkins.

The bout went on with Sax the third man in the ring. Fable squelched and the public evidently satisfied.

hit freely in the five frames he was on the hill. Jack Bromley replaced him and went good until the tenth frame, after the locals had tied the score in the sixth by Martin, Christensen, Gardner and Middleton, a critical error by Downey and a walk did the damage in the tenth.

Martin, who took the place of Kremer, pitched good ball.

Angels Cop Both Contests

Los Angeles, May 13.—(I. N. S.)—The goat of the Angels rides no more on the Vernon band wagon, for with the winning of a big double header yesterday the Angels took the series from the Tigers, five games to two. The score: Morning—Los Angeles 6, Vernon 1. Afternoon—Los Angeles 6, Vernon 3.

From the way Vernon started at Los Angeles in the morning it looked as if they had a chance at the series. Wheeler Bell was working smoothly from the start and although touched rather freely in the early innings managed to hold the Angels scoreless for almost five innings. Meanwhile the Tigers had put a run over in the second. The Angels tied it up in the fifth when they landed on Wheeler for two hits. Then in the seventh the Angels bunched hits and five runs resulted. Dell was touched for 10 safeties against Chandall's five, no hits being registered by Vernon after the fourth inning.

The afternoon game was a slugfest, pure and simple, and went 12 innings after Vernon tied it up 2 and 3 in the ninth. Fromme, who went the route for the Tigers, was pounded for 11 hits and charged with five runs, three of them coming in the 12th. Valencia allowed 15 hits during the ten and one-third inning he occupied the mound. Pete Standridge, who relieved him in the 11th, after the Tigers had made two hits, knocked their rally cold. The score: Morning—R. H. E. Los Angeles..... 6 10 3 Vernon..... 1 5 5 Batteries—Crandall and Boies; Dell and Moore. Afternoon—R. H. E. Los Angeles..... 6 11 3 Vernon..... 1 4 0 Batteries—Valencia, Standridge and Lapan; Fromme and Devorner.
