Tacoma Matron Honor Guest At Dance

Miss Miza Noonan Entertains for Sister, Mrs. Glen Robert Anderson.

By Nona Lawler

HONORING her sister, Mrs. Glen Robert Anderson, of Tacoma, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Noonan, at their home on Westover Terrace, Miss Miza Noonan presided at a charming house dance Saturday evening. There were 40 guests and the rooms of the first floor were transformed into a garden of flowers and greenery for the occasion. Buffet supper was served at midnight. Mrs. Anderson will return to her home this week, after passing about three weeks in Portland.

Double Birthday Celebration

Hospitality of the most delightful sort was extended Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. I. Kaufman at their beautiful home in Rose City park, the occasion being the celebration of the 13th birthday (Balmazva) of their eldest son, Louis, and the fifth of their second son, Harry. About 80 friends were bidden to the feast, which included many of the savory dishes known only to the Jewish housewife. Long tables beautifully decorated and laden with food, were spread throughout the house. Eugene Rosenkrantz was toastmaster and those responding were: D. Solis Cohen, Dr. J. J. Rosenberg, E. P. Mertz, Prof. H. L. Bettman, Dr. Emil Enna, Miss Yella Winner and Julius Louis. Louis was presented with a handsome gold watch and chain from his father and a gold ring from his mother, and Harry was also well remembered. Both boys received many gifts from the friends. During the evening a fine musical program was given by Professor Bettman, violinist; Dr. Enna and Miss Yella, piano; Mr. Peix, cornetist; R. Golebe, trombonist, and Louis Kaufman, who is a talented violinist.

Mrs. Abercrombie at Camp Lewis

Mrs. Charles H. Abercrombie and three little children, Harriet, Jack and Jean, left Saturday for Camp Lewis where they will pass the summer near American Lake with Captain Abercrombie.

Dance for Soldiers

A committee of Marguerite Camp, Royal Neighbors, are working out a plan to entertain as many of the boys in uniform on Tuesday evening, May 21, as their club in the East Side Business Men's club will accommodate. There will be good music for dancing, a short program and refreshments, and it is hoped by this committee that they will be able to make the boys so happy for a short time that it will be something to look back to when over there.

Irvington Club Party

The annual meeting and election of trustees for the Irvington club will take place Tuesday evening, May 14, at 7:30 p. m. After the business meeting an informal dance will be given. Mrs. B. Hanes, assisted by Mrs. Myron Woodard, Mrs. J. W. Creath, Mrs. F. W. Robinson and Mrs. H. Lounsbury, will have charge of the party. Children of Irvington under 14 years of age are to have a dancing party on May 31, with Mrs. W. H. M. Drescher as chairman.

Patriotic Dance

Miss Beatrice Simpson entertained, with a patriotic party Friday evening, complimenting Mrs. F. A. Byers, of Seattle. Games and dancing were enjoyed during the evening and a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present were Misses Alta and Faye Archambeau, Lillian Everst, Emma Johnson, Hilma Fox, Esther Hunter, Maude and Esther Simpson, Hazel Gillam; Mesdames Tom Snyder, Agnes Ladd, Frank Byers and the hostess.

MRS. J. H. PORTH (Lillian Ritter), whose marriage April 27 in the East came as a great surprise to her many Portland friends. Mr. Porth is in the United States navy with the U. S. S. Pueblo.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Oregon circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will give Thrift Stamps as prizes at the monthly card party, 334 Russell street, next Wednesday evening. Friends are invited to enjoy the social hours.

Montavilla Circle No. 400, Neighbors of Woodcraft, celebrated its seventeenth anniversary with a reception to its charter members last Wednesday evening. The hall was beautifully and artistically decorated with the national colors, lilies and snow balls. The surviving charter members, Mr. and Mrs. George Barringer, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson, Mesdames Sarah C. Haworth, Mertie Lewis, Estella Strange and Ruby Ehlers, were escorted into the hall by Captain Vilas and her splendid team. Mrs. Thorenson, also a charter member, presided at the piano and played the same music she played when the circle was instituted. Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, grand guardian of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, paid a glowing tribute to these faithful Neighbors and presented to each a beautiful gold pin, emblematic of the order. A fancy drill and tableaux introducing Columbia, soldiers, sailors and Red Cross nurses was unique and beautiful. Miss Lewis won the hearts of the large audience with a humorous reading. The address delivered by Mrs. Van Orsdall on the difference between fraternal insurance and commercial insurance as demonstrated in the war policies of the two systems of life protection was enthusiastically received. Mrs. Carrie N. Parker, grand order sentinel, Anna S. Marshall and Minnie Hiner, grand managers, were among the many guests present. Ice cream and cake was served. Mrs. Lenora F. Jones and her committee, consisting of Helen Vilas, Althea Boyd, Edith Dennison, Alma Norton and Pearl Young, received the congratulations of all present for a happy and profitable evening spent.

The fraternal orders will soon miss the glad hands of the candidates. A few more days and the smiling candidates will no longer appear and make a few well chosen remarks upon fraternity, and only incidentally refer to his candidacy for the important office of whatever may be his social ambition. The average fraternal order is a happy hunting ground for candidates for weeks before the primaries, yet the etiquette of the times prescribes that there shall be no politics in a fraternal lodge. The interest taken in the meetings and the opportunity to reaffirm allegiance to its constitution and by-laws in fervid oratory by the average candidate is interesting, encouraging and encouraged. May 17 will see their retirement for a time.

Baker Theatre Show to Aid War Work

"Maid of France" to Be Presented in Addition to War Play.

By Yella Winner
THE week of May 27 will be patriotic week at the Baker theatre, when the Alcazar players will present a war play, supplemented by the tableau, "The Maid of France," with Miss Helen Farrell taking the leading role. The proceeds from the week's plays will go to the Portland division of the American committee for devastated France, which hopes by this means to raise a fund of $2000 for the purchase of a tractor to be used in the cultivation of about 70,000 acres of the devastated land in France. Mrs. Robert Treat Platt is chairman of the Portland division and is assisted by Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. W. H. Skene, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson and Mrs. Morris Whitehouse. The state board of vocational education will hold an important business meeting at the Multnomah hotel Thursday at 2 p. m.

The last meeting of the Grants Pass Parent-Teacher association for this year was held Wednesday evening. All officers were re-elected for the coming year. They are: Mrs. W. W. Canby, president; Professor H. H. Wardrip, vice president; Mrs. George Riddle, secretary; Mrs. Louise Henry, treasurer. Owing to the many demands made upon the members of the association for contributions for war work it was decided to do away with dues for next year and to raise all money by entertainments. Following the business meeting a child welfare program was given. Mrs. George Seebach, registered nurse, gave a paper on "The Care of the Child." Miss Anne McCormick, government home work agent, gave a talk on suitable menus for the child of 4 or over, and demonstrated her talk with a number of prepared food dishes. The association will resume meetings in October.

The Sellwood Lavender club, branch II, at its last meeting had an enjoyable program, including the reading of "The Old Clock on the Stairs," by Mrs. Keeler, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Elser. Mrs. Keeler responded with two encores. Mrs. Elser and Neva Foster gave a piano duet and were called back for another. The next meeting of the club will be held Thursday. A good attendance is desired, as there is important business to transact and to raise all money by entertainments. The Portland Woman's Social Science

Woman's War Work

There is a feeling of genuine satisfaction every Thursday evening when the members of the Woman's Cooperative league auxiliary see the results of their week's work, all tied in bundles, which are soon to be started on their journey for the relief of sick and suffering soldiers.

Last week there were over 80 articles—hospital shirts, knitted garments and baby apparel. The knitting and much of the "baby work" is done at home and represents many long hours outside of the two days regularly spent each week. There are a few who deserve 100 per cent for regular attendance and faithfulness. No one deserves more praise than Mrs. F. Bey, upon whom all the members depend for help or instruction wherever there is work that is difficult. On May 9, in our Red Cross auxiliary, a War Savings society was organized. Miss Irene Strowbridge was elected president and Mrs. Fred Glen, secretary. Meetings will be held on the first Thursday of every month at the club house. The object of the society is to support the spirit of thrift. A rare treat is in store for all who care to be the hostess of the society. Weister, Wednesday, May 15, at 8 p. m., corner of Fifteenth and Siskiyou streets. Take Irvington car. A delightful program will be given. The proceeds will go to the "war baby" fund.

The regular meeting of the Portland Woman's club was held Friday at Multnomah hotel. Mrs. Helen Ekin Sterrett was unable to give her talk as announced, having received news of the death of her son in New York city that morning. E. H. Whitfield discussed the measures to be voted upon at the election this week. Miss Astrid Roal gave two delightful vocal selections, accompanied by Geraldine Courson. Mrs. Percy Kelly sang in a pleasing manner, accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Young.

The Plainview W. C. T. U. of Plainview, Or., held an all day institute May 1, which was addressed by Mrs. Hanson. Mrs. Kemp and Mrs. Meers. Splendid talks were made by these three speakers, and the patriotic work of the union was much stimulated by them. Mrs. S. E. Nichols, press superintendent, reports that the union is meeting regularly and hopes to do much good work the coming year.

Seattle Pays Cent More for Its Bread

Seattle, Wash., May 13.—(U. P.)—Bread prices were 1 cent higher per loaf in Seattle today. Consumers paid 11 cents for one pound loaves, which cost the retailer 10 cents. The increase was made with the approval of the state food administration. Increased cost of wheat substitutes was given as the reason for the increase.

The ladies of the First Congregational church are tireless in their efforts to make every minute count, their chief work these days being Red Cross sewing, and a pep into the busy workweek two or three times a week gives one an impression that the ladies are not only doing their "bit" but their best.
