Their regular dance at the hut in the Vancouver cantonment will be Friday evening, instead of Wednesday, this week.

Saturday evening the Army and Navy eague will entertain for the officers at Vancouver Barracks at Harlow Grady hall with a dancing party which promises to be most interesting as it is in the way of a wetcome to the many new officers who have recently come to the

War Work Dinner

Today opens the second week of the luncheons: teas and dinners at Mrs. Lee Hoffman's country place on the western hills for which all funds go to war work and an educational fund. For the dinner this evening a number who are interested in this splendid cause will be welcomed. Reservations must be made in advance by telephoning Main the public on Tuesday and Fridays of each week.

At Council Crest

Interest is keen among all the friends of the boys of the old Third Oregon, now an infantry regiment in France, for the dance which the Auxiliary to Company B is giving Friday at Council Crest Park. The event is really a May fete and will be both afternoon and evening with the usual varied amusements of this pleasure park and refreshments furnished by the women of the auxiliary. The proceeds are to go to a fund for the boys which is being held in Portland for emergency purposes. Red Cross Workroom to Close

Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut in Irvington Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hurlbut have removed to Irvington for the summer months, having taken a house at 480 East Twenty-seventh street North. Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark have returned home from a delightful sojourn in Southern California, where they passed about six weeks. They shipped their car to San Francisco and motored through the southern part of the state.

our constructive work may proceed without handicap.

For the Allied Red Cross barner our elementary and high school girls dressed 500 dolls and made clothing and articles to the number of 470 pieces.

The girls of the department have given considerable attention to conservation in the way of repairing and renovating garments. This work not only conserves our textiles and clothing, but establishes ideals of thrift. At Franklin high school the "War Workers" organization, ably directed by Miss Emily Johnston, has collected clothing for Bel gian and French refugeees.
