

STATE MUSTERS IN FOUR EUGENE HOME GUARD COMPANIES

Battalion Now Members of State Militia, With Ray A. Babb as Major.

Eugene, May 31.—Eugene now has about 200 men sworn in the service of the state. The four companies of the Home Guard, numbering 160 men, were last night mustered into the Oregon State Militia by Major John M. Williams, acting adjutant general. Ray A. Babb, a Spanish war veteran with regular army and national guard experience, was chosen as major of the battalion, and Colonel John Leader, of the Royal Irish Rifles, was unanimously elected as instructor and inspector. That these companies were organized and drilled is due largely to the enthusiasm and ceaseless work of Colonel Leader, who has been ably backed by Major Babb and many others. L. L. Goodrich was elected lieutenant and adjutant of the battalion and the following company officers were chosen:

Company A, captain, W. W. Branstetter; first lieutenant, E. E. Horning; second lieutenant, Berrian Dunn. Company B, captain, Edwin McCormick; first lieutenant, Claude Gray; second lieutenant, A. E. Brigham. Company C, captain, Ralph Hamilton; first lieutenant, Raymond Perdue; second lieutenant, Warren Rae. Company D, captain, Arnold Kerpew; first lieutenant, L. H. Johnson; second lieutenant, H. E. Clark. In addition to these four companies, Sheriff D. A. Elkins' company of armed and drilled deputies of about 40 men makes a total of 200 men in the city now in the state service. Major Williams assured the officers of the battalion that if four of the outside companies in the county would go in with Eugene and form a second battalion, the two would be formed into a regiment and a colonel elected with headquarters in Eugene. In that event it is hoped to enlist the Eugene municipal band as a regimental band.

Sourapas to Be Given Hearing on June 6

James Sourapas, Greek poolroom proprietor, arrested Thursday on charges of obstructing the draft and of violating the espionage act, will be given a hearing before United States Commissioner Drake June 6. Assistant United States Attorney Goldstein, who filed the complaint against Sourapas, has refused to accept less than $5000 bonds for his release, and he is being held in the Multnomah county jail in default of bail of that sum.

Returned Flour to Be Placed in Windows

Sacks of wheat flour, returned to the government for use of the soldiers and allies abroad, will be displayed in store windows over the entire state within the next few days, as a result of the "wheatless till harvest" campaign which

A NEW KIND OF BREAD!

It is the sensation of the East, and will be almost exclusively used even when flour may be had in abundance. Here is a recipe for three loaves of

Rice Bread

- Two 10c cans Holly Rice and Milk. 1 1/2 cups Liquid Milk and Water. 1 cake Fleischman's Yeast. 3 to 4 teaspoonful Salt. 1 tablespoonful Sugar. 1 tablespoonful Lard or Crisco. 8 cups Flour, Wheat or White Corn.

Scald liquid, then cool to lukewarm. Soften yeast in this. Add Holly Rice and Milk with Salt, Sugar and Lard. Beat well. Add flour gradually until stiff enough to knead. Knead until very smooth and elastic, then let it rest until slightly more than double in bulk. Shape into loaves. When a little more than twice its original size, bake from 50 minutes to one hour.

This bread will keep fresh and moist for days, and will be found the most palatable and nourishing table food ever set before the consumer. It was originated in Pennsylvania, where our factory No. 2 is located, and is the greatest bread making discovery of the day. It is the sensation of all that region, almost entirely supplanting all old-fashioned loaves.

is now on. Tags will be placed on each sack, announcing the name of the patriot who gave back the flour. It is impossible to ascertain at present how much flour Oregon will furnish by self denial of its citizens, but it is estimated that not less than a carload from each county will be turned in. Several counties have already promised three or four carloads. Payment for returned flour will be made promptly as a result of arrangements made personally by W. E. Ayer, Oregon food administrator. The holder is to receive full retail value for the flour returned and the merchant to reimburse himself, will fill out a blank and draw a sight draft for the amount paid the consumer. To demonstrate their stability London's motorbuses are put through a series of tilting tests before they are permitted to serve the public.

Japanese on Trial In Dry Law Cases The trial of Tom Tanaka, Japanese liquor dealer of San Francisco, and 10

Portland Japanese, all charged with violating the prohibition law, was begun in the federal court this morning. A score of cases of liquor were introduced as evidence by Assistant United States Attorney Goldstein.

The liquor, alleged to have been shipped in by Tanaka for distribution by the other defendants, who live in Portland, is packed in jars which were placed in cans of loose dried beans. The boxes were labeled "candy."
