EVANGELIST REID TO SUPPLY EAST SIDE BAPTIST, IS REPORT

Noted Revivalist, It Is Said, Will Preach During Dr. Hinson's Vacation This Summer.

According to reports, Rev. S. G. Reid, occupy the pulpit of the East Side Bappastor of the church, Rev. W. B. Hinson, is expected to take his vacation at this time. The announcement could not be verified because Dr. Reid is now in British Columbia taking a brief rest. Dr. Reid has been conducting meetings in and around Portland for the last two winters and, with the evangelistic singer. J. W. Troy, has attracted thousands to his meetings. He is considered a powerful evangelist. Dr. Reid is a native of Ireland and has a quaint style in his talking. Last Sunday he closed a most successful series of meetings in the Lents district. He also conducted meetings at Fairview and Newberg during the fall

MISSION COUNCIL ATTENDED

Many Questions of Interest to Presbyterians Considered at General Assembly in Ohio.

JOHN H. BOYD, who has been in the east for the past three weeks attending various important church meetings, has returned and will occupy his pulpit Sunday both morning and eve-The trip which took the pastor of the First Presbyterian church clear to the Atlantic esast, included in its purpose the attendance of a home mission council at Columbus, Ohio, where several great questions were considered, vital to the future of Presbyterianism in the west. There was the great Presbyterian general assembly, also in Columbus, which took action looking toward the union of Christian denominations, action which may prove to be among the most important steps ever taken by American Protestantism Also Dr. Boyd was a delegate to the conference held in Philadelphia by the League to Secure Permanent Peace by

War. This was the conference presided over by ex-President Taft and addressed by the most prominent men of the country. The newspaper reports have been only sufficient to whet the appetite for a personal report from one of the delegates. Dr. Boyd will bring a red hot message direct from this conference. As a prelude to the evening service beginning at 7:30, Edgar E. Coursen will give the following program on the organ : "Song Without Words". Mendelssol
