

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Tuesday, June 11
Tea at the Western Hill tea garden. Mrs. Lee Hoffman's country home, for war work fund. Mrs. E. L. Harmon and Mrs. Cobb hostesses. From 3 to 5. King's club leaves Twenty-third and Washington streets at 3:30, 4 and 4:30 o'clock.

Orpheum Show Has Clever Numbers

Lucille Cavanagh and Marie Nordstrom Share Honors as Headliners.

LUCILLE CAVANAGH can't sing. She admits the charge—in song—at the opening of her act at the Orpheum, where she is billed as the headliner this week. The same holds true of her two masculine partners, Frank Hurst and Ted Doner.

Outside of the vocal realm, however, Lucille can charm, for her toes are gifted and her physical charms are many. Her dancing act, alone and with her partners, is well staged and wins the applause it deserves.

Marie Nordstrom deserves the limelight with Lucille Cavanagh as a headliner and is given the same honors as "Loretta Strand," she says, and it is easy to pretend with her. Her songs are clever and original.

Joveddah de Rajah is billed as a master mind of mental mysticism and a wizard of the occult. Her assistant stages a mental reading or whatever else you-call-it act. But Joveddah really stars as the act closes, for he sings delightfully. Under the name of "Loretta Strand," she sings a number unique for one of her race. A special matinee for women will be given Wednesday.

Fred Whitfield, Marie Ireland and Lew Woodcock furnish rural comedy that is original and amusing. The curtain used as a background is the best part of the act and sent the audience into gales of laughter with his queer country town and his partner as he rides on queer wheeled things brought him hands. The opening act, Margot Francos and partner, in which Miss Francos did a few "dances on stilts" and her partner as he rides on queer wheeled things brought him hands. The opening act, Margot Francos and partner, in which Miss Francos did a few "dances on stilts" and her partner as he rides on queer wheeled things brought him hands.

Hippodrome

THE Hippodrome has a headliner this week in Santell, the strong man who juggles iron dumb bells as easily as tennis balls and carries five men round the stage as a climax to his exhibition of marvelous strength. A committee of good citizens looks over his paraphernalia to make sure that the weights are iron and not painted lead. Under the light of an arc lamp before a velvet drop Santell demonstrates what can be done with the muscles when brought under perfect control.

Sadie Sherman is a character comedienne of great versatility. Her parts take well with the audience. In private life Sadie Sherman is Mrs. Santell.

A clever unusual comedy sketch is "Miss Thanksgiving" played by Don Mullally, G. Swayne Gordon and Lois Howell.

Comedy singing, piano playing and character impersonation make up the program offered by the Jack Arnold trio.

Esther and Virginia entertain with dancing, songs and dialogue.

The Emile Sisters furnish thrills and bring forth gasps of wonder at their daring aerial stunts.

"The Interloper," featuring Miss Kitty Gordon, is the photoplay.

Strand

FLASHES from "Over There" and a heroine who auctions off her jewels for a war relief fund are timely flavorings of "A Broadway Scandal," the latest Bluebird photoplay starring Carmel Myers, the topliner on the Strand theatre's program that opened yesterday.

An innocent escapade, which started when a girl runs away from her betrothal party for an auto ride, starts a chain of complications which earn for the picture its title. The machine is stolen, the girl is wounded, a man is taken to a sanitarium in the dead of night, and as a result is turned away from home by his father and misunderstood by the young physician with whom she falls in love.

The atmosphere of a quaint little French cafe, in which the girl, Nenetta, is a dancer before she goes on the stage, imparts, with its many Bohemian characters, a peculiar charm to the picture. Edwin August, an amiable and andropous actor, is among the players in support of Miss Myers.

"The Taxi Driver and the Girl," a skit offering a zesty combination of comedy and drama, is the picture of the week. It is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love. The picture is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love. The picture is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love.

Comedy singing, piano playing and character impersonation make up the program offered by the Jack Arnold trio.

Esther and Virginia entertain with dancing, songs and dialogue.

The Emile Sisters furnish thrills and bring forth gasps of wonder at their daring aerial stunts.

The Social Side of City Life

THEDA BARA, in "Cleopatra," who is playing a return engagement at the Majestic. When the play was here previously Owner Parker was unable to retain it long enough to give all who desired a chance to see it.

Bed Time Tales

BY DR. WARREN PARTRIDGE
Jimmy Coon's Tail Stirred Up the Husbands
NOW those three ladies lay in a fainting spell on the floor of the bedroom of the new neighbor's house. And Jimmy Coon got very anxious about the safety of his wife, Mrs. Coon, and her two friends, Mrs. Fossum and Mrs. Skunk. Jimmy and Teddy Fossum did not dare to enter that house; for Jimmy Coon said the house was haunted.

So Jimmy got brave Mr. Coon, his father and Mr. Fossum and Mr. Skunk to go. And brave Mr. Skunk, lead the way, for he had fire-arms; and Mr. Coon and Mr. Fossum felt safe with Skunk going ahead. And when the three gentlemen reached the bedroom they were horrified to see the three ladies, Mrs. Coon, Mrs. Fossum, and Mrs. Skunk all lying on the bedroom floor still in a fainting spell.

And as soon as the ladies were revived, they helped their husbands to bring the parents and the six little children to life again. They pinched them, and rubbed their hands, and gave them "First Aid to the Injured," but they couldn't make them show any signs of life.

They're as dead as door nails," spoke up the wife of Coon, and she went home and have something to eat. Why, I am very faint from lack of food. Oh! no wonder, in the excitement, we forgot to eat our breakfast!

And as soon as the ladies were revived, they helped their husbands to bring the parents and the six little children to life again. They pinched them, and rubbed their hands, and gave them "First Aid to the Injured," but they couldn't make them show any signs of life.

And all winter those eight bodies of the new neighbors hung up on the wall of their bedroom, with their heads hanging down towards the floor, and their feet fastened up near the ceiling. But no one dared to enter the house; for the doctor had started the story that the house was haunted.

But all winter long neighbors would climb up the fire escape and look into the windows of the bedroom; and when French cafe, in which the girl, Nenetta, is a dancer before she goes on the stage, imparts, with its many Bohemian characters, a peculiar charm to the picture.

Edwin August, an amiable and andropous actor, is among the players in support of Miss Myers.

"The Taxi Driver and the Girl," a skit offering a zesty combination of comedy and drama, is the picture of the week. It is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love. The picture is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love.

Comedy singing, piano playing and character impersonation make up the program offered by the Jack Arnold trio.

Esther and Virginia entertain with dancing, songs and dialogue.

The Emile Sisters furnish thrills and bring forth gasps of wonder at their daring aerial stunts.

"The Interloper," featuring Miss Kitty Gordon, is the photoplay.

FLASHES from "Over There" and a heroine who auctions off her jewels for a war relief fund are timely flavorings of "A Broadway Scandal," the latest Bluebird photoplay starring Carmel Myers, the topliner on the Strand theatre's program that opened yesterday.

An innocent escapade, which started when a girl runs away from her betrothal party for an auto ride, starts a chain of complications which earn for the picture its title. The machine is stolen, the girl is wounded, a man is taken to a sanitarium in the dead of night, and as a result is turned away from home by his father and misunderstood by the young physician with whom she falls in love.

The atmosphere of a quaint little French cafe, in which the girl, Nenetta, is a dancer before she goes on the stage, imparts, with its many Bohemian characters, a peculiar charm to the picture.

Edwin August, an amiable and andropous actor, is among the players in support of Miss Myers.

Great Organ Is Dedicated at Liberty

Noted Musician Artist of Occasion; Patriotic Photoplay Is Featured.

THE taste of the public from the musical circles to the person who is merely hums the popular airs was pleased with the program given by Henry B. Murtagh at the dedication of the new $50,000 Wurlitzer unit orchestra at the Liberty Theatre Sunday. Mr. Murtagh adapted his program to a mixed audience and won instant and voluminous applause with his rendition of Schubert's "Serenade" and Bizet's "Carmen," as well as with lighter selections.

Mr. Murtagh showed himself a master of the giant musical instrument at all times, whether he was interpreting a heavy tempest scene or the gentle whisper of breeze.

Time after time he was compelled to respond to encores and the audience showed only regret when the concert was concluded.

Mr. Murtagh is a highly trained musician, having shaped his career early in the music business. He has changed his plans when he saw the possibilities of bringing good music to a vastly greater number of people through the motion picture theatre. He is a willing student and welcomes public suggestions and criticism.

"The Unbeliever," produced by the Edison company in cooperation with the United States government and the marine corps, one of the best "war" pictures that has ever been shown on the screen of a Portland theatre, is the picture feature. It is a delicately worked out patriotic play, free from sensationalism and flamboyant artifice designed to arouse hysteria rather than strong interest and deep feelings of patriotism.

A part of the picture was filmed at the marine training camp at Quantico, Va., and officers and men of the corps are shown in making the picture. The picture tells the all-truth story of how character and character alone, is the only thing that counts. Casts and petty differences among humans take a picturesque aspect in the picture.

The principal characters are a young millionaire and a chauffeur who enlist in the marines and a Belgian girl with whom one of them falls in love.

The Oaks

LOTS of Portland people have gone into the movies. Most of those whose faces and actions will be seen shortly on the screen probably did not know they were actors at all, because the Pathe company arranged to show the strong attraction at the Oaks Sunday and clicked his machine merrily.

Concerts, vaudeville and photoplays added much to the enjoyment of the Oaks Sunday as the thousands of people who entered the park.

One of the features of the day was the filming of Miss Liberty waving a flag and sliding down the chutes with her escort. Other features included the bathing facilities. The picture will be shown Wednesday in the Oaks auditorium. All the concessions were well patronized Sunday.

Council Crest

NELSEN'S Peerless orchestra has been engaged to play a series of Sunday afternoon concerts at Council Crest park, the first of which occurred Sunday. Director Nelsen prepared an attractive program for the opening concert, and a big audience was on hand on "Portland's Roof Garden" to enjoy it.

Official endorsement of the United States government and assistance of army officials in the preparation of the battle scenes and of the words quoted from conversations of German soldiers and officers. The play is well suited to the purpose for which it was obviously intended—to foster a higher military patriotism.

AMUSEMENTS

BAKER—Broadway at Alder. Headliner, Almasir Pasha. Features "The Marriage of Figaro," Wednesday, Saturday, 2:15. Evening, 8:15. Dressing, 7:15 and 9:15.

LYRIC—Fourth and Stark. "The Love Pirates," musical comedy with Dillon and Frank. Evening, 8:15. Dressing, 7:15 and 9:15.

PANTAGE—Broadway at Alder. Headliner, The Atlantic. Features "The Marriage of Figaro," Wednesday, Saturday, 2:15. Evening, 8:15. Dressing, 7:15 and 9:15.

COLUMBIA—Broadway at Stark. "The Unbeliever," with organ concert. 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

MARSHALL—Broadway at Park. Theda Bara in "Cleopatra." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

Mrs. A. Ruegg, president of Sellwood Lavender club, which meets on alternate Fridays at Sellwood Community House.

Engagement Comes as Surprise; Ceremony Will Be Performed Wednesday.

By Vera Lawler
ANOTHER engagement which will be followed by an immediate marriage, is that of Miss Agnes McIntosh and Max Smith Jr. Miss McIntosh is the daughter of Robert McIntosh and the son of the McIntosh family is prominent Portland family. She is a beautiful and charming girl, with hosts of friends, and her engagement comes as a surprise to most of them.

Mr. Smith is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Max Smith of Portland, also old-time residents of the city. He was graduated from the Portland academy and is a Cornell man of 1916. He is at present a draftsman with the McEachern shipyards in Astoria.

The wedding will be an event of Wednesday at the home of the bride's father, on Willamette Heights. An account of the family being in mourning the wedding will be a quiet affair.

Double Wedding Solemnized

The Dalles, Or., June 10.—At an unusually impressive double wedding at Hood River at high noon Wednesday, Charles Darnielle of The Dalles and Miss Grace Lovell of Hood River, and William Lovell of this city and Miss Ruth Smith of Astoria were married at the Lovell home. The Rev. W. G. Kennedy of the Methodist church, who has been a lifelong friend of Mr. Darnielle, read the service, the impressive ring ceremony being used.

The contracting parties stood under a huge ball of green ferns and white roses, suspended from the ceiling, and the living room of the Lovell home was beautifully decorated with the green ferns and white roses.

After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served to the guests who were only the immediate relatives of the young people, and in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Darnielle and Mr. and Mrs. Wedekind motored to The Dalles, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Darnielle and Mrs. Wedekind were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wedekind, who are at the hospital, and Mr. Darnielle is proprietor of the Albert hotel of this city, where he has lived for a number of years.

Mr. Darnielle, who has always made his home in The Dalles, is employed by the O-W-R. N. company.

Helman-Hall Wedding

The wedding of Miss Irma Hall and Harry Prentiss Helman was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hall, last Saturday evening, June 1, Dr. A. L. Hutchinson officiated.

As Mr. Helman is in the marine corps and his stay in Portland necessarily short, plans for the wedding were hastily made. Most of the relatives and friends were present.

The suggestion of spring was carried out in the beautifully decorated rooms, which were a bower of roses, spring flowers and ferns. The bride wore a rose-cade and carried a bride bouquet in a rose-cade.

The bride carrying Bride roses, was pretty in a gown of white satin and veil of tulle which she wore with a wreath of lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Helen, sister of the bride and Mr. Paul Helman, sister of the groom, were the only bridesmaids. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Helman and was a Portland business man for many years prior to the outbreak of the war.

Royal Neighbors to Meet

Marguerite camp Coterie club held its regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. Blanche Hoffman, 563 Mulberry street, Wednesday evening, June 6, at 8 o'clock. A large crowd turned out and much was accomplished. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. G. A. Baker, 281 Burnside street, Thursday afternoon, July 12, at 8 o'clock.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zimmer (Leonor Dowling) are being showered with congratulations and floral gifts upon the arrival of a son, born Thursday, June 15. He has been named William Clarence.

A three days' absence for the benefit of St. Charles parish will open Thursday evening in the church hall at Thirty-third and Alberta streets. Light refreshments will be served, and St. Charles club will conduct a jilted dance from 9. As the parish is still in its infancy the ladies in charge in union with their pastor, Rev. J. P. O'Flynn, will appreciate help from their outside friends.

The many friends of Mrs. R. W. Hayes will be interested to learn that she has sufficiently recovered from a severe operation recently performed at St. Vincent's hospital, to be able to receive visitors.

CLUB CALENDAR

Tuesday, June 11
Consumers' League in Room E, Central library, at 2 p. m. Speaker, Mrs. Macdonald Mayer, formerly Miss Louise Bradley of Portland. Subject, "What the National Consumers' League Is Doing for Women in Her Industry." Progressive Women's league election of officers, story hour room of Central library, at 8 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS

THRIFT STAMPS and WAR SAVINGS STAMPS on Sale at Business Office, The Journal

THE HIPPODROME

SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY
THE GREAT SANTELL
America's Physical Marvel

"MISS THANKSGIVING"

A Splendid Comedy Playlet by MULLALLY, HOWELL AND GORDON
Pictures of Launching at Foundation Co. Plant

7-All-Feature Acts-7

Including the Photoplay 'THE INTERLOPER' Featuring the Great KITTY GORDON
CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCES SATURDAYS AND SUNDAYS

COLUMBIA BEACH

Portland's Coney Island
Dancing Every Evening and Sunday
PELZ and his exceptional orchestra 15 Pieces—All Artists

The Ideal Spot for Picnics and Outings

A safe resort for ladies and children
Take Vancouver Cars

HEILIG Broadway and Taylor

3 NIGHTS, Next Thurs. SPECIAL PRICE MAT. SAT. Oliver Moroso Presents HIS GREATEST COMEDY HIT UPSTAIRS 'N' DOWN

By Frederic and Fanny Hutton. TYPICAL MOBOSCANT. EVE'S—Floor $1.50; Bal. $1.75, 50c; Gal. 50c. S.A. MAT—Floor $1.50; Bal. $1.75, 50c; Gal. 50c.

Orpheum

Mr. Martin Beck Presents LUCILE CAVANAGH with Frank Hurst and Ted Doner, Whitfield-Ireland and the Comedians Feat. and Eileen JOVEDDAH THE RAJAH & CO. Paul Gordon and Anne Marie, Margot Francos and Partner MARIE NORDSTROM

EXTRA SHOW WEDNESDAY NIGHT

With Dillon and Frank, the Lyric Company of "Fun in a Sanitarium." All the latest songs hit. Tues. night, Country Store, Extra.

BAKER ALCOZAR

Tonight, All Week, Mat. Wed. Sat. "THE MARRIAGE OF KITTY," A Modern Comedy of Love, Romance and Laughter. As played with great success by Max Fagan. Nights, 25, 80, 75c; Mat. 25, 50c; Wed. Wed., 80c; Mat. 25c. Next Week—"Paid in Full."

PANTAGE S

MAT. DAILY 2:30
THE ATLANTIC REVUE
With Billy Bachelor, Don Adams, Hazel Vert and Beauty Chorus. All the latest songs. Three Performances Daily, Night Curtains at 7 and 9.

DANCING

guaranteed in eight lessons—ladies $4; gentlemen $5. De Honny's beautiful Academy, Twenty-third and Washington. Beginners' classes start Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 8 to 11. Plenty of practice. No subscription. Private lessons given. Learn from Professional dancers. Main 7656. Start this week. Open all summer.

DANCING TONIGHT

Monte Austin Sings Council Crest Park

Orpheum Show Has Clever Numbers

Lucille Cavanagh and Marie Nordstrom Share Honors as Headliners.

LUCILLE CAVANAGH can't sing. She admits the charge—in song—at the opening of her act at the Orpheum, where she is billed as the headliner this week. The same holds true of her two masculine partners, Frank Hurst and Ted Doner.

Outside of the vocal realm, however, Lucille can charm, for her toes are gifted and her physical charms are many. Her dancing act, alone and with her partners, is well staged and wins the applause it deserves.

Marie Nordstrom deserves the limelight with Lucille Cavanagh as a headliner and is given the same honors as "Loretta Strand," she says, and it is easy to pretend with her. Her songs are clever and original.

Joveddah de Rajah is billed as a master mind of mental mysticism and a wizard of the occult. Her assistant stages a mental reading or whatever else you-call-it act. But Joveddah really stars as the act closes, for he sings delightfully. Under the name of "Loretta Strand," she sings a number unique for one of her race. A special matinee for women will be given Wednesday.

Fred Whitfield, Marie Ireland and Lew Woodcock furnish rural comedy that is original and amusing. The curtain used as a background is the best part of the act and sent the audience into gales of laughter with his queer country town and his partner as he rides on queer wheeled things brought him hands. The opening act, Margot Francos and partner, in which Miss Francos did a few "dances on stilts" and her partner as he rides on queer wheeled things brought him hands.

Hippodrome

THE Hippodrome has a headliner this week in Santell, the strong man who juggles iron dumb bells as easily as tennis balls and carries five men round the stage as a climax to his exhibition of marvelous strength. A committee of good citizens looks over his paraphernalia to make sure that the weights are iron and not painted lead. Under the light of an arc lamp before a velvet drop Santell demonstrates what can be done with the muscles when brought under perfect control.

Sadie Sherman is a character comedienne of great versatility. Her parts take well with the audience. In private life Sadie Sherman is Mrs. Santell.

A clever unusual comedy sketch is "Miss Thanksgiving" played by Don Mullally, G. Swayne Gordon and Lois Howell.

Comedy singing, piano playing and character impersonation make up the program offered by the Jack Arnold trio.

Esther and Virginia entertain with dancing, songs and dialogue.

The Emile Sisters furnish thrills and bring forth gasps of wonder at their daring aerial stunts.

"The Interloper," featuring Miss Kitty Gordon, is the photoplay.

Strand

FLASHES from "Over There" and a heroine who auctions off her jewels for a war relief fund are timely flavorings of "A Broadway Scandal," the latest Bluebird photoplay starring Carmel Myers, the topliner on the Strand theatre's program that opened yesterday.

An innocent escapade, which started when a girl runs away from her betrothal party for an auto ride, starts a chain of complications which earn for the picture its title. The machine is stolen, the girl is wounded, a man is taken to a sanitarium in the dead of night, and as a result is turned away from home by his father and misunderstood by the young physician with whom she falls in love.

The atmosphere of a quaint little French cafe, in which the girl, Nenetta, is a dancer before she goes on the stage, imparts, with its many Bohemian characters, a peculiar charm to the picture.

Edwin August, an amiable and andropous actor, is among the players in support of Miss Myers.

"The Taxi Driver and the Girl," a skit offering a zesty combination of comedy and drama, is the picture of the week. It is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love. The picture is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love.

Comedy singing, piano playing and character impersonation make up the program offered by the Jack Arnold trio.

Esther and Virginia entertain with dancing, songs and dialogue.

The Emile Sisters furnish thrills and bring forth gasps of wonder at their daring aerial stunts.

Bed Time Tales

BY DR. WARREN PARTRIDGE
Jimmy Coon's Tail Stirred Up the Husbands
NOW those three ladies lay in a fainting spell on the floor of the bedroom of the new neighbor's house. And Jimmy Coon got very anxious about the safety of his wife, Mrs. Coon, and her two friends, Mrs. Fossum and Mrs. Skunk. Jimmy and Teddy Fossum did not dare to enter that house; for Jimmy Coon said the house was haunted.

So Jimmy got brave Mr. Coon, his father and Mr. Fossum and Mr. Skunk to go. And brave Mr. Skunk, lead the way, for he had fire-arms; and Mr. Coon and Mr. Fossum felt safe with Skunk going ahead. And when the three gentlemen reached the bedroom they were horrified to see the three ladies, Mrs. Coon, Mrs. Fossum, and Mrs. Skunk all lying on the bedroom floor still in a fainting spell.

And as soon as the ladies were revived, they helped their husbands to bring the parents and the six little children to life again. They pinched them, and rubbed their hands, and gave them "First Aid to the Injured," but they couldn't make them show any signs of life.

They're as dead as door nails," spoke up the wife of Coon, and she went home and have something to eat. Why, I am very faint from lack of food. Oh! no wonder, in the excitement, we forgot to eat our breakfast!

And as soon as the ladies were revived, they helped their husbands to bring the parents and the six little children to life again. They pinched them, and rubbed their hands, and gave them "First Aid to the Injured," but they couldn't make them show any signs of life.

And all winter those eight bodies of the new neighbors hung up on the wall of their bedroom, with their heads hanging down towards the floor, and their feet fastened up near the ceiling. But no one dared to enter the house; for the doctor had started the story that the house was haunted.

But all winter long neighbors would climb up the fire escape and look into the windows of the bedroom; and when French cafe, in which the girl, Nenetta, is a dancer before she goes on the stage, imparts, with its many Bohemian characters, a peculiar charm to the picture.

Edwin August, an amiable and andropous actor, is among the players in support of Miss Myers.

"The Taxi Driver and the Girl," a skit offering a zesty combination of comedy and drama, is the picture of the week. It is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love. The picture is a comedy story of a taxi driver and a girl who falls in love.

Comedy singing, piano playing and character impersonation make up the program offered by the Jack Arnold trio.

Esther and Virginia entertain with dancing, songs and dialogue.

The Emile Sisters furnish thrills and bring forth gasps of wonder at their daring aerial stunts.

"The Interloper," featuring Miss Kitty Gordon, is the photoplay.

FLASHES from "Over There" and a heroine who auctions off her jewels for a war relief fund are timely flavorings of "A Broadway Scandal," the latest Bluebird photoplay starring Carmel Myers, the topliner on the Strand theatre's program that opened yesterday.

An innocent escapade, which started when a girl runs away from her betrothal party for an auto ride, starts a chain of complications which earn for the picture its title. The machine is stolen, the girl is wounded, a man is taken to a sanitarium in the dead of night, and as a result is turned away from home by his father and misunderstood by the young physician with whom she falls in love.

The atmosphere of a quaint little French cafe, in which the girl, Nenetta, is a dancer before she goes on the stage, imparts, with its many Bohemian characters, a peculiar charm to the picture.

Edwin August, an amiable and andropous actor, is among the players in support of Miss Myers.

Great Organ Is Dedicated at Liberty

Noted Musician Artist of Occasion; Patriotic Photoplay Is Featured.

THE taste of the public from the musical circles to the person who is merely hums the popular airs was pleased with the program given by Henry B. Murtagh at the dedication of the new $50,000 Wurlitzer unit orchestra at the Liberty Theatre Sunday. Mr. Murtagh adapted his program to a mixed audience and won instant and voluminous applause with his rendition of Schubert's "Serenade" and Bizet's "Carmen," as well as with lighter selections.

Mr. Murtagh showed himself a master of the giant musical instrument at all times, whether he was interpreting a heavy tempest scene or the gentle whisper of breeze.

Time after time he was compelled to respond to encores and the audience showed only regret when the concert was concluded.

Mr. Murtagh is a highly trained musician, having shaped his career early in the music business. He has changed his plans when he saw the possibilities of bringing good music to a vastly greater number of people through the motion picture theatre. He is a willing student and welcomes public suggestions and criticism.

"The Unbeliever," produced by the Edison