Should St. Helens win its postponed game with the Standifer-Clarkson team, which, according to present plans, may be played this week, all three clubs will tied for the title.

Wayne Barham won the first game for Grant Smith by defeating Lefty James in a twirling duel by the score of 4 to 2, and in the second contest "Dutch" Zweifel, pitching his first game for Foundation, had so much zip on the ball that he shut out nis opponents.

Barham Curves His Way Barham pitched a masterful game and, with the exception of the second inning, when Foundation made four of its seven hits, he was never in danger. His curve ball was working in great style. This much Sigsby, one of the leading hitters of the Foundation, will verify. Sigsby whiffed four times. BUCKS ARE TOO HEAVY FOR MAXEY

Cupie Clow Beats the Peninsula Team and Then Gets Old Blue Envelope.

BILL FISHER'S Portland Buckaroos again demonstrated that there are several degrees in the difference between the professionals and the shipyards team when the Bucks beat the Peninsula team

After building ships all week and beating the Supple-Ballin team in the first game of Sunday's double-header, the Peninsula lads may have been a bit tired. But against that the Bucks had just hopped off the train after a long boat and rail ride from Vancouver, B. C. Clow Wins and Departs

Manager Bill sent Cupie Clow to the nound, and after he twirled the game ave him his release, announcing that he had signed Pitcher LeCloustra, late of the Spokane Indians, to twirl. Nick Williams told Fisher that LeCloustra was the best pitcher in the league, the Spokane right-hander having won four and lost two games.

Clow came from LaPine, Or., with a gyroscope right arm and some promise The kid had a nice curve ball in training camp, but lost it when the season opened. Also, he depended on speed. The main trouble in the lack of development in Clow's case is the same lack of the Bucks as a whole—weakness in the catching department. An old head might have made quite a deceiver out of the husky youngser, who pitched some good ball games until Fisher lost confidence in him.

Succeeded on Low Balls Dick Cox had him working his fast ball low, because he had not reached the stage when he could put the deceptive "bus" on it. Even at that, his string ball fooled a lot of them. Cliff Lee did not get much of a chance to work with Clow and assist in his de-

Eight scattered hits were made by the Peninsula lads off Clow, and they were good for a pair of runs. The puerile shoots of M. Maxmeyer were clicked for 14 hits, of which Kibble garnered four Ross' records. and Lee signalized his return to the doubles and a single in four times up. Considered Doubtful If Successful Coach at O. A. C. Will Return to Corvallis Work.

Dr. Joseph A. Pipal, football coach of the Oregon Agricultural college, left Portland last week for Camp Kearny, Cal., where he will become director in the national army.

Despite statements to the contrary. it is doubtful whether Pipal will return to tutor the Oregon Aggle gridfron eleven next fall. Pinal enjoyed a very successful season, winning the football championship of the state and the annual dual track and field meet from the University of Oregon. Since mid-football season reports have been made that Pipal was to be replaced as football tutor. It is known that several coaches in the Northwest have signified their intentions of applying for the position held by Pipal. Pipal was said to have been undermined by certain elements at O. A. C., but the faculty control committee indorsed him and his athletic policy.
