

PIONEERS BRING SEASON TO END WITH CAMPFIRE

Men and Women Survivors of Days of Hardship Gather at Forty-sixth Convention.

OLD TALES ARE RECOUNTED

E. B. McFarland Chosen President at Annual Election; Old Secretary Is Retained.

The forty-sixth annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneers' association has passed into a program. The convention opening at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and continuing until after the annual "campfire" in the evening, was one of great interest to the old men and women who endured the early privations and hardships which pioneer life in Oregon entailed.

The attendance was not as large as in former years, owing to advancing age and the increased railway rates, but nearly 1000 pioneers and sons and daughters of pioneers gathered in the big auditorium yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by President W. H. H. Dufur, 183, followed by an invocation by the chaplain, the Rev. A. J. Joslyn, 182, of Canby.

Mr. Bigelow Welcomes Pioneers
C. A. Bigelow, acting mayor of Portland, gave a brief address of welcome to the pioneers, which was responded to by President Dufur in a few words on what the pioneers have done for Oregon and the sacrifices they made to make the state what it is now.

The annual address was given by Judge Fred W. Wilson of The Dalles, son of the late Joseph O. and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller Wilson, pioneers of 181-52. Since he, himself, was no pioneer, "there are no mystic cards of memory to stretch into the past and bring again the scenes and reminiscences of the day when Oregon was young and the beauty and freshness of youth were everywhere," said the judge, and his address was made up of incidents of history and early events of people and places.

The most touching feature of the program was the greeting to Mrs. Rebecca J. Barger, pioneer of 1847, who was crowned "Mother Queen of Oregon" at the reunion in 1917. The feeble old woman of 93 years was gallantly escorted to the stage by a number of pioneers and given a seat of honor, while the whole audience stood in deference, after which Robert A. Miller, past president, greeted her thus:

"Mother Queen" Is Honored
"We salute you, Mother Queen of Oregon, we pioneers of Oregon. We bow to you, Mother Queen of Oregon, we bow to you because you carry so well more than 93 years of splendid age. It is something to have lived 93 years in the most wonderful full time that this world ever produced."

The program was interspersed with music by Lucien E. Becker on the organ, several songs by the veteran quartet, composed of W. M. Morse, Dr. J. E. Hall, H. W. Mills and Professor Z. M. Farvin, and a solo by John Claire Monteth, grandson of P. B. Whitman, pioneer of 1843, and grand nephew of Dr. Marcus Whitman.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed by President Dufur: Robert A. Miller, E. B. McFarland and T. T. Geer.
Officers elected at the business session held last evening are: President, E. B. McFarland; vice president, Nathan Berg; secretary, George H. Himes (re-elected); treasurer, William M. Ladd; directors, Bruce Wolverson, William Galloway and C. H. Caulfield.
Resolutions were adopted thanking the banquet committee, the city officials and the newspapers for the welcome and hospitality shown.

Long before the closing of the program the odor of coffee announced the preparations for the banquet in the basement, where 16 long tables, decorated with flowers and flags and loaded with dishes and platters of appetizing viands, awaited the coming of the pioneers, all the work of the Women's auxiliary of the association.

Guided by Grand Marshal Nathan H. Bird and his assistants, the white-haired men and women, with tottering steps, carefully wended their way down the stairs to the banquet hall where they were seated at the tables and served by granddaughters and great-granddaughters.

The women failed to obtain their full quota of war bread, after being promised 60 loaves by the bakers, but resort was made to corn bread which was just as satisfactory in these war times. Anywhere the pioneers did not complain. They had plenty of everything else.

The reception committee consisted of Mrs. D. P. Thompson, chairman; Mrs. Benito Miller, Mrs. Margaret O. Miller, Mrs. Matthew P. Deady, Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. John D. Biles, Mrs. William Grooms, Mrs. Nancy A. Jacobs, Mrs. P. L. Willis and Mrs. Fanny Holmes.
Mrs. Herbert Holman, acting president of the association, managed the banquet, and Mrs. John W. Minto was in charge of the tables.

Two Oregon Men in Army Die in U. S.

Washington, June 21.—(U. P.)—The war department Thursday made public the names of soldiers who died in the United States during the week ending June 14. Included in the list are the names of soldiers who died in the United States prior to the week mentioned and subsequent to March 1.
Carl C. Biberbach of Corvallis and Walter R. Davis of Ashland were the only Northwest boys named.

Major Mears Home On Brief Furlough

Major E. C. Mears of the quartermaster's department of the United States army arrived yesterday from Camp Dodge, Iowa, for a visit of a few days with his family here before leaving for France. Major Mears, until he was commissioned captain in the army in May, 1917, was a prominent timber man. Major Mears will go to France with the Eighty-eighth division. His brother, Colonel F. A. Mears, who is ready in France, is in command of a regiment of engineers.

THREE ARE ON TRIAL IN FEDERAL COURT ON LIQUOR PLOT CHARGE

Nineteen Members of Alleged Ring Under Sentence; Many to Testify in Case.

Jury men were being selected today for the trial of A. Davidson, liquor dealer of San Francisco, owner of the Pabst Blue Ribbon Liquor company; L. D. Whitehurst, liquor salesman for Davidson, formerly a salesman in Portland and George Smith, Salem taxicab driver, indicted April 7 for violation of the Reed amendment by conspiring to ship liquor from California into Oregon.
Twenty-five alleged bootleggers were in the courtroom to take the stand against Davidson and Whitehurst, and several wholesale and retail liquor dealers from San Francisco and Washington are expected within the next 48 hours.
H. H. Dolley, special agent for the department of justice, with headquarters at San Francisco, who played the part of a bootlegger and mixed in the alleged conspiracy to secure evidence, will testify.

Nineteen members of the alleged ring pleaded guilty and were sentenced. These included H. R. Edwards, alias "Tillamook Kid," of Tillamook, Or., who actually brought the liquor across the boundary line from California.

SHOT AT PET DEER, IS CHARGE

Sidney Fox, Fisherman, Arrested—Deer Bought From Portland.
Sidney Fox, a fisherman of Rooster Rock, was arrested Wednesday at the instance of Deputy District Attorney Dempsey, who charged him with cruelty to animals in having shot at a pet deer, the property of J. C. Deaver of Corbett.

Deaver purchased the deer from the city of Portland at a public auction last winter. The animal is highly domesticated, runs at large in the vicinity of Rooster Rock and has become quite a favorite.

Sour Stomach

Mi-o-na Puts the Stomach in Fine Shape in Five Minutes
If your stomach is continually kicking up a disturbance; you feel bloated and distressed; if you belch gas and sour food into the mouth, then you need Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets.
Mi-o-na stomach tablets give instant relief, of course, but they do more; they drive out the poisonous gases that cause fermentation of food and thoroughly clean, renovate and strengthen the stomach so that it can readily digest food without artificial aid.
Mi-o-na stomach tablets are guaranteed to end indigestion, acute or chronic, or money back. This means that nervousness, dizziness and biliousness will disappear. Druggists everywhere and Owl Drug Co. sell Mi-o-na. (Adv.)

THREE ARE SEEKING DIVORCES

Wife Alleges Husband Was Paroled Convict; Married Under Alias.
W. C. Peters filed suit for divorce Thursday against Maxine Peters, alleging infidelity.

Cruelty is charged by Drusilla Wilson in a suit against George Wilson.

Violet Morgan asks for a divorce from Robert Morgan or Paul Williams, alleging that he was married under the name of Morgan at Vancouver in February, 1917, and that she discovered subsequently that he was a paroled convict from the state penitentiary, where he was sent under the name of Paul Williams for forgery. His parole has since been canceled, she says.

COMPLAINT ON TRUCKS MADE

Drivers Use Outside of Burnside Bridge Contrary to Order.
Complaint is made by R. E. Kremers of the bureau of construction of the city of Portland that drivers of heavy motor trucks in crossing the Burnside bridge use the outside of the roadway instead of the inside as provided by the city ordinance. They drive at an excessive rate, he asserts, and subject the structure to undue strain. The speed limit, he says, for heavy trucks is four miles per hour and this rule must be observed, otherwise the bridge will be made unsafe in a very short time.

With proper observance of the speed limit and by using the center of the roadway, the bridge, he says, will be safe for several years yet.

ACCUSED HUSBAND OF THEFT

That her husband knocked her down, choked her into insensibility, and then stole $1850 from her, is one of the charges contained in the divorce complaint which May de Rose has filed against John de Rose. She seeks a divorce and restoration of her maiden name, May La Bar. They were married at Toledo, Ohio, November 25, 1916.

Norman Howard charges Viola Vivian Howard with extreme cruelty and infidelity. He asks for a decree and permission to visit their minor child at reasonable intervals. He is willing that the mother shall retain possession of the child. They were married at Oregon City December 25, 1911.

Bad Check Charge Made
Jack La Rue, charged with issuing worthless checks, was arrested at the East Side Business Men's carnival Tuesday night by Deputy Constables Watkinds and Dimel. He was charged specifically with issuing a check for $5.50 in the name of Elizabeth Hume. La Rue was formerly proprietor of a shooting gallery at Hoquiam, Wash.

Jury Allows Owners $4093

Lena and Theodore Sericko, owners of property in Marquam gulch, were awarded a verdict of $4093 by a jury in Circuit Judge Gates' court Thursday morning. The property, consisting of a 50x100 lot and a house, was condemned by the city for the Marquam gulch playground.

Fire Near Morton Is in Green Hemlock

Morton, Wash., June 21.—A telephone message from Forest Ranger Christian late Wednesday, stated the Cispus fire, 66 miles east of Morton, had spread over 2000 acres, had entered green hemlock timber and only rain could keep it out of the green fir timber.

Cookingham Is Guardian
County Judge Tazwell Thursday named Edward Cookingham as guardian of J. Wesley Ladd. His bond was fixed at $200,000 which Mr. Cookingham said would be arranged at once. The appointment of Mr. Cookingham to serve as guardian was requested by Mrs. M. Ladd. J. Wesley Ladd joined in the Ladd, Helen Ladd Corbett and William request.
