

CITY FISH MARKET PUBLIC NECESSITY IS ANSWER TO SUIT

Vital Need of Inexpensive Substitute for Meats as Aid to Government Pointed Out.

DEALERS IN COMBINE, CLAIM Every Angle of Question Covered to Meet Ruling of Court in Pending Ouster Action.

The right of the city of Portland to operate a municipal fish market to meet the economic needs of the people and combat the "combination of high prices for seafoods demanded by private fish dealers" is claimed in the city's answer to the suit now pending in the circuit court to oust the municipal market.

Deputy City Attorney Tomlinson, who filed the answer today, believes he has covered every angle of the case which recently resulted in the overruling of the city's demurrer by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh. The court ruled that the city must show a public necessity for the maintenance of the market.

The answer sets forth: That fish dealers are in a combine to keep up prices; that they have thrown away great quantities of fish of not generally known value, simply to bolster up prices for other grades of fish; that there are large quantities of food fish available in the Pacific ocean, which can be distributed to consumers at a very reasonable cost through the medium of the municipal market; that reductions in food prices tend to prevent strikes over living conditions; that the city's public necessity for the maintenance of fish, thereby aiding the government's meat conservation policy.

Germany Declared World's Last Foe

Dubuque, Iowa, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—There must be another Fourth of July for all the world, and when we this time set the world free from Germany, its independence will not again be seriously menaced, for Germany is freedom's last foe.

Thus characterizing the enormity of the pan-German menace, Secretary of Agriculture David F. Houston, addressing Iowa bankers at their state convention here Thursday, said that the shortest way to the end of the war was through it. Describing the system of international robbery which has resulted in the creation of the Germanic empire, Secretary Houston depicted Prussia as the spirit of mediocrity, "stupidly strutting before the eyes of man and of God."

JITNEYS TO COME BACK, IT IS SAID

City Council Tentatively Agrees to Remove Obstacles to Operation.

Shackles were removed from the jitneys by the city council in special session today when it was tentatively agreed to repeal the franchise provision including the clause requiring buses to operate only on specified routes.

The amended ordinance will come for hearing at the regular meeting of the council next Wednesday. The emergency clause will be attached to the ordinance, making the measure effective immediately on its passage.

In anticipation of the clearing away of one of the main obstacles now existing against the jitneys, L. H. Kapture of 6 Prescott street will Saturday morning be granted a temporary permit to operate auto buses on the Linnton run. The permit was drawn by Deputy City Attorney Latourette today.

Commissioner Kellaher introduced the amendment. With the franchise restriction and the specified route provision removed the jitneys will be able to operate any place in the city providing they render a transportation service. The operators will still be required to furnish bonds in the sum of $1000 for each car, or $10,000 for 10 or more

Lad Gets Into Army On Fourth Attempt

Bud Williams, age 19, of Jamestown, N. D., enlisted at the army recruiting station in the Worcester building yesterday after having tried four times to get into the service, but being rejected each time because of his weight.

Two boys, just 18, who have been waiting for a year to enter the army, were also enlisted and sent on their way to France—James R. Beavans of Aberdeen, Wash., and Ocle S. Newman of Welsch, Idaho. All the boys enlisting paid their own railroad fare to Portland to join the service.

Speer of the local marine corps recruiting station in the Panama building, has been sent to the recruiting station at Roseburg to relieve Sergeant Elmer Leavitt of that place, who has suffered an attack of appendicitis. TRIFLE

Thrift in ordinary times is a virtue; with the United States at war the practice of thrift is more than a virtue, it is a duty that rests with each and every person, the full performance of which, in addition to serving the nation's immediate needs, confers lasting benefits upon the individual. Get the habit.

Your Health Depends Upon Your Kidneys

Many organs take part in assimilation of food, and a number are active in eliminating those portions of the food which are not taken into the blood, for the upbuilding of the body. Of the eliminative organs, the liver and the kidneys are of major importance and are most likely to be overworked and become diseased. When such is the case, various troubles of a digestive and eliminative character occur, and such troubles are so frequent and so common that it is absolutely necessary to find some relief. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy was compounded over 40 years ago to help equalize the work of both kidneys and liver. How successful it has been is evidenced by its widespread sale, and its value is attested by an immense number of appreciative users who through these many years have put it to the severest tests with the most satisfactory results.
