Seattle Man And Portland Maid Married

A PRETTY wedding took place Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the white and gold parlor of the Hotel Portland, when Miss Ethel Kauffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Kauffman, was married to Benjamin Lachman, Dr. Jonah B. Wise officiating in the presence of a small company of relatives and close friends.

The maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Lachman and the best man was Max Lachman. The flower girl was Doris Leigh Gordon. Bridal music was furnished by a stringed orchestra. The bride was beautifully but simply gowned in white satin with elaborations of pearls and crystal bead ornaments. She wore a long tulle veil which fell in trains and was banded with a coronet of real lace. She carried a bouquet of bride roses, bouvardia and orchids.

The maid of honor wore turquoise blue taffeta and carried Opheelia roses. Following the ceremony, dinner was served in one of the private dining rooms, with covers for 20. The parlor and dining room were decorated in pink roses and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Lachman left Thursday night for San Francisco and Los Angeles on their wedding trip. They will make their home in Seattle, where Mr. Lachman is in business.

A number of affairs have been given for this attractive bride, among them being a supper dance last Tuesday evening at the rose room of the Benson hotel, given by Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Gordon.

The pretty home wedding of John Anderson and Miss Mollie Ahnert was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ahnert of Eagle Creek, Or., June 19. The room was artistically decorated in evergreen and red and white roses. The bride was graduated from the Stadium high school, class 1916, at Tacoma and has been teaching in Vancouver, Wash., for the past two years. She was dressed in cream crepe de chine and carried an exquisite bouquet of white bride roses. Miss Florence Cantrell, a graduate of Lincoln high school, class 1917, of Tacoma, made the trip from that city to attend Miss Ahnert as bridesmaid. She wore a beautiful dress of pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Anderson is from Butterfield, Minn., and is employed at the Northern Pacific Terminal at Portland. Ralph Ahnert, brother of the bride, was best man. About 40 guests were present and the bride and groom received many beautiful gifts and best wishes for a very prosperous and happy married life. After the wedding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson motored to Portland where they will make their home.

at Klamath Falls. She is a graduate also of the Klamath county high school. The romance began while she and Mr. Richardson were in the same class at Oregon Agricultural college. Mr. Richardson is now connected with the extension work of the college.

Mrs. Lulu Lewis of Boise and Salmon C. Stewart of Lebanon, Or., were united in marriage Monday evening in the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Childs of the Portland hotel, Rev. A. J. Sullens officiating. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for their future home in Lebanon, where Mr. Stewart is a banker.

ceremony took place June 8 at the chapel of Bishop Faber of the Episcopal diocese of Montana. Miss Marguerite Young attended the bride and Thomas Gonor was best man. The bride was graduated from the Lincoln high school in the class of 1916. The bridegroom received his education at the Bozeman, Mont., Agricultural college and has been teaching agriculture in the Great Falls schools for the last year. Mr. and Mrs. Merre will be at home to their friends at Great Falls, 509 Ninth street north, after July 1.

The marriage of Miss Florence Jones of this city and Raymond L. Neal of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma was an event of Saturday evening, June 15, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. R. Jones, 380 East Forty-ninth street north, only relatives and close friends attending.

Newlyweds on Honeymoon in San Francisco

A CHARMING June bride was Miss Cherry Dean Couey, whose marriage to Thomas Harold Webster took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Couey, 6003 Fortieth avenue southeast Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock. Fifty guests witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. McHenry of the Mount Taber Presbyterian church.

Miss Ruth Heinrichs accompanied Miss Jennie Maubestek who sang "I Love You Truly." The bridal party, led by the bridesmaids, Misses Marguerite Blamner and Marjorie Jones, took their positions before an alcove of greenery flanked by masses of roses. The bride wore a simple gown of white satin and georgette crepe, with veil and real orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds. The bridesmaids were gowned in white and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Inez Couey, sister of the bride. The Kapella quartet sang several numbers while refreshments were being served. The decorations throughout the rooms were bouquets of roses, with ferns and other greenery. Mr. and Mrs. Webster are both very popular. The bridegroom is with the Chasnor & Lyon Automobile Supply company. They left on a late train Tuesday night for a trip to San Francisco. Their home will be on East Belmont street.

Red Cross entertainment at Peninsula park, which netted the post $32.50, all of which was turned over to the Red Cross. This corps meets at the courthouse, room 555, the first Thursday in each month at 2 p. m., and the third Thursday at 8 p. m. A class of 13 will be initiated at the next evening meeting, July 18. All W. R. C. members are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

The marriage of Lina Schmidt and Theodore D. Harmon was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Schmidt, Saturday, by Dr. R. E. Smith of the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church. The rooms were decorated in pink roses and greens and the dining room, where dinner was served, was in white. The bride was attired in a dark blue tulle, worn with a gray Georgette hat and a corsage of lilies and sweet peas. Mr. Harmon, who is well known in Portland, is with the company, is with known in Portland. The couple left immediately for a trip and will be at home after July 15.

The marriage of Miss Kathryn G. Dorney of Portland to Victor F. Languille was solemnized at St. Patrick's church in Tacoma on June 14, Rev. T. A. Ryan officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Nell Dorney of Portland, and the bridegroom by George Dorney of the Three Hundred Sixty-fourth Field Hospital corps, stationed at Camp Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Languille left immediately for Pullman, Wash., Mr. Languille having been assigned by the government for special military training in the officers' training school at Washington State college.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Jennie Burrows, 1178 Albina avenue, Wednesday evening, June 12, when her daughter, Ruth Carolyn, became the bride of Neal D. Gulovson. The bride was attended by Miss Louise Albright and Vern Lazenby, with little Dick Morris as ring bearer. The bride was beautiful in a simple little gown of ruffled net. Her veil was one worn by an aunt of the groom 33 years ago and her orange blossoms were worn by her mother 32 years ago. The bridegroom is a graduate of Jefferson high school and a student at Reed college. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a brief trip to the coast, after which they will make their home in Portland.

Miss Maysel Sanderson, a popular and well known Klamath Falls girl, was married in Portland Friday, June 14, to Dale Richardson of Corvallis. The bride taught for two years in the high school
