

COL. REED GIVES DINNER TO NINTH DISTRICT WORKERS

W. S. S. Campaigner Announces Work So Organized Any Drive May Be Finished in 24 Hours.

DR. LOVEJOY A SPEAKER

State Director C. S. Jackson Points Out Good Results to Communities in the Drives.

Colonel Ferdinand E. Reed of the ninth district in the Portland War Savings drive gave an excellently appointed dinner to the lieutenant colonels, majors and captains of his division at the Benson hotel Wednesday evening. An officer after officer reported, showing that arrangements had been so perfected as to insure the solicitation of every person in the district. It was evident that the important fact of the affair was the demonstration of efficiency in organization.

Applause greeted the announcement by Colonel Reed that the ninth district is assigned not alone for the War Savings Stamp campaign, but to secure a 24-hour response from within the district in 24 hours' time for any appeal issued by the government from now on until the end of the war.

"It is the best organized district in the city," was the tribute paid by Frank McCrillis, city manager of the campaign. "Had I known that one of the districts would have attained such military organization, I would have called myself 'general'."

Addresses Are Made

State Director C. S. Jackson told the thrift workers that to engage cooperatively in patriotic service incalculable strength of friendship, a quality of harmony and a permanence of understanding that together raise the plane of community intelligence and make for a higher civilization.

"There are but three things we can do in this war," declared Dr. Esther Clayton Lovejoy, who was the chief speaker. "Those things are invest, work and fight. The Germans recognize but three military values—fighting, labor and breeding. That is the reason why German soldiers are trained to believe that might is right; why people able to work in the occupied territory of Northern France are enslaved; why the parents of the girls in that area know they will never come back, but that they will live to be the mothers of Huns, and why only the helpless through age or disease, and the little children are sent back through Switzerland as the Germans systematically proceed in their plans in Northern France for permanent occupation."

Mayor Baker, who had recently returned from the east, endeavored to impress his hearers with the immensity of the operations incident to moving men, munitions and supplies to the front and to show thereby how great is the government's need of money with which to finance the war. District Manager Henry E. Reed, A. T. Bonney, in charge of industrial organization, Assistant Food Administrator W. K. Newell and County Clerk Joseph W. Beveridge were among the speakers.

Two Tell of Shots Fired at McKendree

Spanish Shepherd, Employee of Slain Man, Says First Came From Tent and J. E. Paddock Fired Few Seconds Later.

Klamath Falls, June 27.—That Owen T. McKendree, sheepman of this city, who met his death at Dry Prairie on April 20, was shot first from within the tent at the William Holbrook camp and a few seconds later was shot by J. E. Paddock, who stood in front of the tent, with a revolver, was testimony offered in the trial of Holbrook and Paddock, charged with the murder of McKendree, by Jim Santiago, Santiago further stated that McKendree had mounted his horse and turned as if to start away when he was shot.

Santiago is a Spanish shepherd in the employ of McKendree, and was about one eighth of a mile distant at the time of the tragedy. His testimony was corroborated by that of Manuel Garcia, who occupied the stand after Santiago was dismissed.

Deputy Sheriff Griffith testified to finding shells in front of or near the tent on the Holbrook lambing grounds.

BAY CITY MAN IS SHOT FOUR TIMES

Robert Cords Seriously Wounded in Room in Fairmount Hotel; Wife Under Arrest.

San Francisco, Cal., June 27.—(U. P.)—With four bullet wounds in his body, Robert Cords, prominent local business man, was in a critical condition at the St. Francis hospital today and Mrs. Cords was under arrest for shooting him.

The shooting took place in the Cords' apartment in the Fairmount hotel, Sevenson street, at 10 o'clock Wednesday night. Several guests heard the shots and telephoned to the office. A few minutes later Cords went downstairs and calmly told the clerk that he had been shot.

He was rushed to the hospital. Mrs. Cords was found in her room, still clutching a revolver. She turned the weapon over to a hotel clerk.

"I shot to kill," she is said to have exclaimed hysterically when the hotel employees entered the apartment.

In a minute, however, she regained her self possession and refused to say anything more until she had seen her attorney.

Mrs. Cords was taken to the hospital by detectives after her arrest. Cords refused to say anything about the shooting.

"Don't say anything," he advised his wife. "You didn't shoot me."

Just before she left the room Mrs. Cords held a whispered conversation with her husband. Later she saw her attorneys, Thomas O'Connor and Charles F. Brennan.

Several weeks ago Mrs. Cords filed suit for separate maintenance of $750 a month, alleging that Cords had associated with other women.

Both Cords and Mrs. Cords have been married before. Mrs. Cords was formerly Miss Alice Belyea.

Thomas B. Kay Tests Court's Jurisdiction

Stands Contempt Proceedings in Circuit Court to Determine Judge Bingham's Jurisdiction.

Salem, June 27.—State Treasurer Thomas B. Kay was cited for contempt of court by Circuit Judge Bingham Wednesday for his failure to obey an order of the court directing him to issue 80 shares of stock in the Thomas Kay Woolen Mill company to the heirs of Thomas Johnson, who died some time ago in St. Louis, Mo.

The purpose of the action is to test the jurisdiction of the Marion county court in a will contest case.

When Thomas Johnson died he left a will bequeathing 80 shares of stock in the woolen mill, which are worth between $10,000 and $12,000, to Mrs. Squire Farrar of Portland and Mrs. Sarah Forstner of Portland, sisters-in-law, and Mrs. Eliza Dakin of Massachusetts, a sister.

Isabelle Pertado of St. Louis, an adopted daughter of Johnson's, instituted contempt proceedings.

The stock was in possession of the adopted daughter, or other parties to whom she had assigned it, and she refused to give it up. So the court ordered Mr. Kay to issue new certificates of stock and Kay has declined to do so until the jurisdiction of the court is determined. He is cited to appear in court July 5.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless. (Adv.)

THIRTY FROM WASCO COUNTY SPEEDED ON WAY TO CAMP LEWIS

Call Is Issued for 41 More Men to Leave The Dalles in July Draft.

The Dalles, June 27.—Amid the cheers of several hundred persons who had gathered at the depot to bid them farewell, 30 of Wasco county's drafted men left Tuesday for Camp Lewis. Speeches were made by several prominent citizens of The Dalles and The Dalles band furnished music. An order for 41 more Wasco county men to entrain for Camp Lewis during a five-day period beginning July 27, has been received. The men who will enter the camp at that time are: Ernest Johnson, George Kaseberger, John A. Gallantini and Arthur R. Blinston of The Dalles; Henry C.

"Mamma, don't give me Castor Oil"

Such is a familiar entreaty of childhood. All children hate castor oil. Grown people themselves won't take it. No child minds Stanolax—it is tasteless, odorless, colorless. So it's not like a medicine. Drug-laden cathartics afford only temporary relief. Stanolax represents the new-day way—as opposed to harsh purgatives. The natural way as opposed to violent treatments. Stanolax is not a cathartic, laden with habit-forming drugs. It does not stimulate the intestines to abnormal action. Stanolax is a lubricant. It softens the bowel content, and oils and soothes the intestinal walls and makes elimination easy. Your druggist has Stanolax. Buy one bottle. It will convince you that old cathartics are needless.

By this gentle but certain method, all toxic poisons are carried away. Thus auto-intoxication is prevented. By the use of Stanolax one prevents chronic Constipation, with all its resultant ills.

Everybody Is Reading Journal "Want" Ads Now

Journal "Want" ads have always been widely read and deservedly popular with all classes. But since The Journal inaugurated its plan of giving a Free Five Dollar War Savings Stamp to the person whose name was selected by The Journal and run at random among The Journal "Want" ads, the habit of reading Journal "Want" ads regularly has spread to almost every family in Portland and the tributary country.

This universal interest in Journal "Want" ads means increased results for Journal "Want" ad users. Before this plan was inaugurated results from Journal "Want" ads were far and away ahead of what the average advertiser had been accustomed to expect from other advertising mediums, but since the Free War Savings Stamp plan was put into effect Journal "Want" ads produce results which put them in a class by themselves.

No matter what you wish to dispose of, Journal "Want" ads will put you in touch with a buyer. If you wish to rent a house or a hotel, sell a pair of rabbits or a 3000 pound team, hire an office boy or an office manager, sell a house and lot or a thousand acre farm, borrow or loan money or do anything at all within reason, Journal "Want" ads will enable you to do it. Journal "Want" ads take your message into more than 65,000 homes each evening—homes of the thrifty permanent earning classes—the very class of homes which you want to reach.

Bring or phone your "Want" ads to The Journal. Phones A-6051 or Main 7173.
