

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, July 1
The Michigan society will meet in the assembly room of the Hotel Portland. All former residents of Michigan will be welcome. 8:30 o'clock.

CLUB CALENDAR

Monday, July 1
Picnic luncheon by Monday Musical club at the home of Mrs. Percy W. Lewis, 380 East Forty-seventh street north, at 1 p. m.
Woodlawn Parent-Teacher Red Cross auxiliary at the schoolhouse at 10 a. m.

CONSIDER W. S. S. FROM A BUSINESS STANDPOINT—THEY WILL BEAR CLOSE ANALYSIS

The Social Side of City Life

Thrills Galore
Shown In Film
At the Star

Herbert Rawlinson in "Smashing Through," Offers Series of Thrilling Escapades.

HERBERT RAWLINSON in "Smashing Through," a thrilling tale of dangers and hairbreadth escapes galore, arrives at the Star theatre today. Rawlinson, it is reported, objected because someone criticized him in "Come Through" as looking too well preserved at the final close-up, and asked for a story that would show him in all the stunts imaginable.

So he fights a posse of cowboys, he escapes down a mine shaft with a girl in his arms, has a collision in an automobile, steals a motorcycle, jumps from a freight train and lands on the trucks just over the track while the train is making 30 miles an hour. This does not include all the personal combats in which he engages.

Mr. Rawlinson is supported by Sally Starr, Neal Hart, Sam DeGrasse, M. K. Wilson, Charlissa Selwyn and Paul Hilton. A film showing Chester Conklin in "A Minute in Affinities" will also be shown.

'Madame Who?' New
Majestic Offering

"Madame Who?" as pictured by the Paralta people from Harold McGrath's popular story of Civil war days, is the new offering at the Majestic today. Though of martial atmosphere, "Madame Who?" does not have to do with actual battle, the story concerning the exploits of a young woman who goes into the secret service to avenge the death of her father and a brother who have been slain while serving the South. The star of the picture is the popular Beanie Barriscale, her supporting cast including Edward Coxen, Howard Hickman and others well known to film fans.

The comedy on the program is "By Orange Aid," with Bobbie Vernon. The Pathe news weekly is also a feature of the new program.

Douglas Fairbanks
Peoples Attraction

Douglas Fairbanks in "Say! Young Fellow" is the chief attraction at the Peoples theatre today. The story is that of a young newspaper reporter, assigned to interview an exclusive millionaire who hates the press. How he accomplishes this and other tasks, involving an alleged fraudulent factory scheme, is the text of the story, in which a girl figures and which ends happily.

Fairbanks' smile is ever present through all conflicts and complications. In the development of the story Mr. Fairbanks scales fences and bows windows, vaults over tall flower beds, does athletic stunts of the surprising character and in a meeting of the villain and his friends, battles desperately with an army of factory employees, finds a perilous perch over revolving flywheels and other machinery, comforts "a sweet spinster," overcomes "the villain" and finally wins "the girl."

Supporting Mr. Fairbanks in the cast are Marjorie Daw, Frank Campeau, Edythe Chapman and James Neill.

A screen telegram is also being shown, and the second number of the famous Chester Outing pictures.

COMING FEATURES

ORPHEUM—Tomorrow will mark the beginning of the end at the Orpheum theatre, when Madame Sarah Bernhardt, wonder woman of the stage, will start a four matinee and four night engagement, her appearance closing the local Orpheum season. Advance sales indicate record attendance for the Bernhardt engagement.

LYRIC—At the Lyric, tomorrow afternoon the popular Lyric comedians and chorus girls will present "In Poppyland," built just for fun and music.

COLUMBIA—Wallace Reid in "The Fire of France" is the feature attraction in a feature film to open at the Columbia Sunday morning.

LIBERTY—Following the Liberty's big run of the Gerard film, the management announces as the feature for tomorrow, "Hit-the-Trail-Holiday," with George M. Cohan himself heading the cast.

HIPPOTROME—The new show at the Hippotrome calls for the "Peerless Poters," gymnasts out of the ordinary, and four other transcendent vaudeville acts, and, in addition, there will be a first class photoplay offering under the title of "A Woman of Redemption."

SUNSET—"The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," the powerful anti-Hun photodrama that has been sweeping the country for the last month, will be the big offering at the Sunset for the new week beginning tomorrow. Many who were unable to see the picture during its first run in Portland will now be enabled to enjoy it.

STRAND—McWilliams, Baldwin and Stendal, harmony trio, headline the vaudeville bill at the Strand tomorrow, and Ruth Clifford in "Midnight Madness" will be the photoplay star.

AKS—The Armstrong Folly company will open an engagement at the Oaks tomorrow with presentation of "The Beauty Ship," a musical comedy. Performances at 3 p. m. and at 9 p. m.

JEWEL CARMEN. A study in black and white of the jewel of the William Fox studio, whose last picture was "Confession," and who is to be presented in a number of other big attractions next season.

Nothing Serious

"The time has come," the Walrus said, to talk of many things."

By B. F.
AMA TEUR war gardeners who are bawling the loss of their green pea crop may find a little satisfaction in the knowledge that the professional truck raiser is little, if any better off himself this season.

It's an off-season for green peas. What something else didn't jinx, the aphids did, and the vines just naturally turned yellow and dried up.

Caruso, the well known huckster of Rose City Park, fought valiantly to save his crop that his patrons might be supplied, but nature in perverse mood was too much for him, and "Ca-ruso" finally plowed up the peas and planted more spuds.

Likewise Galliano, son of Antonio and brother to Caruso, fought valiantly with hoe and spray against the insect horde, but to no avail. So Galliano hung up the spray can and the hoe; sold his truck wagon; turned old "Raveola," the horse into the field, and rustled into himself a job in the shipyard.

In Hungary gypsies are regarded as a dangerous community. It is said that no fewer than 200,000 wander about. So notorious are their thieving propensities that they are not allowed inside the towns, while the villages tolerate them for only two days.

Just as French journalists were quick to discover in General Pershing a descendant of Lorraine, so newspapers, like the London Chronicle, remind readers that "many of the great qualities of President Wilson are traceable to Scottish ancestors."

The president claims kinship with several prominent families, being descended from the Rev. Robert Woodrow, the well known historian of the Church of Scotland, and distantly related to the Archbishop of York.

Bed Time Tales

BY DR. WARREN PARTRIDGE

Jimmy Coon Calls on Little Guy Chuck

OF COURSE you know that good fellow, Guy Chuck, the woodchuck. Well, he had built a brand-new house that spring. It was a lovely new house on the south slope of a little hill in the big pasture. Little Guy Chuck moved into his fine house before it was finished, for it had only one door and there were no back or side doors or windows.

And little William, the farmer boy, bought a brand-new steel trap and set the trap right in the front door of Guy's new house. Now, little Guy Chuck was awfully hungry the next morning, and he started to go out of his front door, and, behold, there was that awful steel trap in his door.

And you see, little Guy had no time to build any back or side doors, and he had no windows in his new house. And poor little hungry Guy sat in his front hall, so hungry and so downcast in his heart, as he had no chance to get out of his own front door or to get any breakfast.

And as little Guy Chuck looked so hungry and discouraged, who should trot along but Jimmy Coon.

And, of course, Jimmy Coon made a call on his old neighbor, little Guy Chuck. "What's the matter now?" called out Jimmy. "Why don't you come out like a little man and hear the birds sing?"

"And, why don't you come in and call on me, you little frisky cat?" answered the hungry little Guy Chuck. And Jimmy Coon had to sit down and hold his fat sides, for it looked so funny to see little Guy a prisoner in his own house.

And Bobby Skunk called too, and Teddy Possum and all the rest of the neighbors. And it was awfully comical to see all those good neighbors sitting around Guy's front door and giving him good advice how he could get out. But not one of those neighbors dared to enter Guy's brand-new front door, for every one could see the awful jaws of that powerful steel trap.

And while all the neighbors were scolding the farmer boy, little William, for playing such a mean trick on Guy Chuck, and while Bobby Skunk and Teddy Possum and all the others were giving him good advice, Guy Chuck put on his thinking-cap.

And little Guy looked very serious and determined. Quilly, the possum,

He had no chance to go out of his own front door, or to get any breakfast.

Monday—Jimmy Coon is Proud of Guy Chuck.

spoke up in his hoarse and funny voice: "Now, little Guy, you take my advice; you must be cheerful and look on the bright side, and some day that miserable farmer boy may come and take away that trap." And it looked very dark and sad for little Guy Chuck.

Monday—Jimmy Coon is Proud of Guy Chuck.

And Bobby Skunk called too, and Teddy Possum and all the rest of the neighbors. And it was awfully comical to see all those good neighbors sitting around Guy's front door and giving him good advice how he could get out. But not one of those neighbors dared to enter Guy's brand-new front door, for every one could see the awful jaws of that powerful steel trap.

And while all the neighbors were scolding the farmer boy, little William, for playing such a mean trick on Guy Chuck, and while Bobby Skunk and Teddy Possum and all the others were giving him good advice, Guy Chuck put on his thinking-cap.

And little Guy looked very serious and determined. Quilly, the possum, spoke up in his hoarse and funny voice: "Now, little Guy, you take my advice; you must be cheerful and look on the bright side, and some day that miserable farmer boy may come and take away that trap." And it looked very dark and sad for little Guy Chuck.

Monday—Jimmy Coon is Proud of Guy Chuck.

And Bobby Skunk called too, and Teddy Possum and all the rest of the neighbors. And it was awfully comical to see all those good neighbors sitting around Guy's front door and giving him good advice how he could get out. But not one of those neighbors dared to enter Guy's brand-new front door, for every one could see the awful jaws of that powerful steel trap.

And while all the neighbors were scolding the farmer boy, little William, for playing such a mean trick on Guy Chuck, and while Bobby Skunk and Teddy Possum and all the others were giving him good advice, Guy Chuck put on his thinking-cap.

And little Guy looked very serious and determined. Quilly, the possum, spoke up in his hoarse and funny voice: "Now, little Guy, you take my advice; you must be cheerful and look on the bright side, and some day that miserable farmer boy may come and take away that trap." And it looked very dark and sad for little Guy Chuck.

Objectionable
Pro-German
Film

Operatives of Department of Justice Take Picture Depicting Japan as Enemy of U. S.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 28.—Operatives of the American Protective league, working under the department of justice, have seized a moving picture film that may reach the celebrity of the Goldstein "Spirit of '76," which brought its producer a sentence of 10 years in the penitentiary. As in the latter case, German propaganda is at the bottom of the complaint, only in the present instance it is the Japanese, whose fleets are patrolling the Pacific in the interests of the allies, that are the ones offended by the film episodes, instead of the British.

The objectionable episodes of which the local colony of Japanese complained dealt with the mythical escape of a Russian crown princess having in her possession fabulously rich jewels belonging to the former czar, and the efforts of the princess, with an American officer, to negotiate in a jinkisha the trip from one of the streets of Yokohama to the dock, where an American ship was supposed to be lying to carry them to safety.

A battle ensues between soldiers made up of Americans, Japanese and Russians, and one of the titles places in the mouth of one of the Russian officers this language addressed to an American:

"You may be able to bluff the Japs, but you cannot bluff us."

Other episodes show Americans and Japanese fighting in the streets, and the titles are said to be full of suggestions that America and Japan are not friendly. So strong was the impression along this line, that at the picture house where the films have been shown, Japanese protested to the management that the unfriendly attitude indicated between the two countries was not only untrue, but that to show such films would cause decided ill feeling.

AMUSEMENTS

EXTRA VAGANZA
HEILIG—Broadway at Taylor. "The Wanderer," with all-star cast. Evening, 8:20, matinee Saturday, 2:15.

STOCK OFFERINGS
BAKER—Broadway between Morrison and Alder. Alcazar Players, in "The Wolf." Evening, 8:20, Matinee, Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday, 2:15.

LYRIC—Fourth and Stark. "The Wolf." Musical comedy, with Dillon and Frank. Daily matinee, 2:30. Evening, 7:15 and 9.

VAUDEVILLE
PANTAGES—Broadway at Alder. Headliner, "Unhinged Guests," with Peter Taylor and his five Nubian lions. 2:30, 7, 9 p. m.

HIPPOTROME—Broadway at Yamhill. Vaudeville, headliner, comedy sketch, "The Pick-pocket," Virginia Hayden, soprano.

STRAND—Washington between Park and West Park. Feature photoplay, Gladys Brockwell in "The Scarlet Road," Vaudeville feature, Hayco, winner of the handuffs.

FEATURE FILMS
COLUMBIA—Sixth between Washington and Stark. Feature photoplay, Harold Lockwood in "Lend Me Your Name." Billy Parsons in "Billy's Predicament." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

LIBERTY—Broadway at Stark. Ambassador Gerard's "My Four Years in Germany." 9 a. m. to 11 p. m.

MAJESTIC—Washington at Park. Bessie Barriscale in "Madame Who?"

PEOPLES—West Park and Alder. Douglas Fairbanks in "Say! Young Fellow."

STAR—Washington at Stark. Herbert Rawlinson in "Smashing Through."

SUNSET—Washington at Broadway. Photoplay, Norma Talmadge in "Ghosts of Yesterday." 10 a. m. to 11 p. m.

PARKS AND RESORTS
COLUMBIA BEACH—Closed on account of high water.

CONVENT—On Portland Heights. Take Council Crest car on Fifth and Washington. Dancing every evening, except Sunday.

THE OAKS—Vilamette river. Take car on First street, or boat foot of Morrison street. Outdoor amusements. Cliffs' band.

THRIFT STAMPS
and
WAR SAVINGS STAMPS
on Sale at
Business Office, The Journal

MISS DRAIN is a talented musician, who gave a most interesting vocal recital Friday evening, when she was presented at the Valair Conservatoire by Madame Lucie Valair. Miss Drain has passed the year here with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Garr Reed.

Garden Fete for Benefit for Engineers

This evening, at the charming suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Wells in Mount Tabor, 1731 Scott avenue, a garden fete will be given by the Women's auxiliary to Company F, Eighteenth United States railway engineers, now in France. All the friends of the Eighteenth engineers are especially invited to join in making this affair a big success. The Wells' residence may be reached via the Mount Tabor car to East Sixty-eighth street, where a company of Boy Scouts will be stationed to conduct the guests to the fete, two blocks away. The program, which will be given during the evening, will consist of dancing by Miss Cornelia Leik and Miss Cornelia Elizabeth Hogmar. Mrs. Rose Friedle Gnanelli and Mrs. Petronella Connolly Peets will sing.

EXPERIMENT STATION TAKEN OVER
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

BY W. S. S.
Experiment Station Taken Over
Washington, June 29.—(I. N. S.)—The experiment station at American university of Washington, D. C., was placed under control of the war department, for operation under the director of gas service of the army, by executive order of President Wilson. The station formerly was under the supervision of the bureau of mines, department of the interior.

Women Can 375
Quarts of Cherries

National League for Women's Service Continues to Do Valuable Work.

By Vella Winner
THE principal activity of the National League for Women's Service this week has been the Kanning kitchen, the banner day of which was Wednesday. The Lake Grove society, with the assistance of the East Side W. C. T. U. ladies, canned 375 quarts. The cherries were donated by F. M. Kiger and were picked by 75 volunteer pickers sent out on trucks from the aviation section of the signal corp. Miss M. Ruth Guppy has been a very able general, and acquired her experience under Mrs. Harman in New Jersey last summer.

The kitchen still needs jars and sugar, and all donations are very thankfully received. The fruit goes to base hospitals.

The P. E. O. ladies making the kid glove jackets for the aviators and ambulance drivers overseas have already completed 12, and many more will soon arrive from the P. E. O. Sisters from Linn county.

The next draft dinner, July 7, will be handled under the league social and service committee. Mrs. J. D. Farrell, general chairman. Mrs. Inman and her efficient corp of workers for the last draft dinner will also take care of this one.

The Comrades club, a division of the social service committee, attended a picnic given by the Research club, Mrs. Steele, president, at Piedmont park Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

"Swat the Kaiser" will start at the entrance of the Liberty Temple, July 1 and will run for one week under the management of the finance committee. Mrs. Wilbur E. Coman, chairman. An ice cream parlor on the highway will open Sunday, probably at Wakeena falls. The money from these two concessions will buy sugar and jars for the Kanning Kitchen.

The observation of Flower Mission day in the Arieta W. C. T. U. on June 11 was in the form of a memorial to Mrs. Pasence Woolworth, who was called each member gave a quotation or note on friendship. A Bible reading was given by Miss Leona Glover, instrumental music by Lois Handsaker and vocal solo by Mrs. W. A. Boone. After the meeting flowers were taken to Mrs. Woolworth's grave and in her memory the Arieta union decided to send a treat to the soldiers in the hospitals at Vancouver.

Newport union has adjourned for the summer. The Newport W. C. T. U. the union has sent to state headquarters the following articles for the soldiers and sailors' work: Twenty and one half pounds of sterilized rags, 131 tea towels, 145 handkerchiefs, 1800 napkins, 298 Belgian squares, 75 napkins, 22 tray cloths. At the same time the women have been unremitting in their regular Red Cross service, many of them giving three days a week. Many soldiers are among them.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Kirkpatrick council, Knights and Ladies of Security, Friday night held a most successful open social, followed by dancing. Some beautiful prizes were given to successful card players and dancers. The Kirkpatrick Council Banjo and Mandolin Club orchestra, under direction of J. H. Berry, furnished the music and Swiss hall was comfortably filled with members and guests. State Manager L. M. Thomas wrote eight applications for membership in the order while the dance was in progress and several transfer cards were handed in for Secretary Toole to present at the next meeting.

There was a pleasing literary and musical program at the monthly social of Webfoot camp, W. O. W., at the temple, 128 Eleventh street, Friday night. John McCourt made a talk on War Savings Stamps. The Phillips children gave several recitations. C. L. Keller and E. Brown gave chalk talks. Frank Marolda played the piano and sang. A trio of songs. Several dollars' worth of Thrift Stamps were passed out to lucky holders of numbered cards.

The Knights of Columbus gave an open air dance at Vancouver in the pavilion near the K. of C. hall which was attended by a number of people from Portland.

AMUSEMENTS

THRIFT STAMPS
and
WAR SAVINGS STAMPS
on Sale at
Business Office, The Journal

OAKS
AMUSEMENT
PARK

CHAT NO. 34

Tomorrow we will present the big new bill in the Auditorium—the Armstrong Folly Company—in that rollicking musical comedy, "The Beauty Ship." It is the prettiest kind of a comedy drama, with clever singing and dancing novelties. Pretty girls, Will H. Armstrong and other lively comedians and a world of snappy music. Frank Harlick and a large number of picked musicians will be the orchestra engaged to accompany the Folly company. You will enjoy the music as much as the fun and comedy of the "Beauty Ship."

Don't forget that tonight is the last night of Clodoff's Celebrated Band, "Allies' Night," it is called—for the music played will be a medley of arias from the different nations fighting for freedom.

Plan your Sunday outing at the Oaks. You will enjoy eating a picnic lunch under the great trees, and you know, you may make hot coffee in the free kitchenette.

Cars leave First and Alder—transfer from any part of the city—6-cent fare.

JOHN F. CORDRAY, Mgr.

Armstrong Folly Company here Sunday.

TICKETS NOW SELLING

HEILIG Broadway and Taylor
Phone Main 1, A-1125

LAST TIME
TONIGHT

8:15 O'CLOCK
The Biggest and Most Spectacular
Dramatic Spectacle on Earth

THE WANDERER