BANK STATEMENTS SHOW DEPOSITS OF $95,669,347 JUNE 29

Total Is $9,000,000 Under Statement of May 29, Due to Liberty Bonds and Other Causes.

Complying with a call by the comptroller of the currency, Portland banks today issued a statement showing their condition of business on June 29. Today's statement shows a falling off in deposits amounting to over $9,000,000 compared with the statement for May 10. This decrease is attributed to transfers of Liberty loan bonds and other normal business fluctuations. The figures are community, J. C. Meehan, head of the C. A., declared this morning that the situation in the berry fields of the Willamette valley is such that he should have from 100 to 150 boys above 14 years of age immediately in order to meet the present requirements.

As an indication of the necessity of prompt action if the crops are to be saved, Mr. Meehan said that although omorrow is July 4 and a big celebration is to be in progress here, that he and his assistants will be on the job at their headquarters, second floor of the "Y" building, from morning until night for the purpose of seeing any boys who may wish to report thus promptly to assist in berry picking.
"We are in dire need of from 100 to 150 boys at once," said Mr. Meehan. and unless we get them the berry crop is going to be largely wasted. We are in receipt of calls from our camps now organized at Newberg. Amity, Salem, Estacada and Dundee and we must meet the demands that are being made upon us. I therefore make this appeal to the parents of Portland and vicinity and to the boys; to the parents that they will help us to get boys and to the boys that they volunteer and that quickly."

The boys now in the field are showing the deepest patriotism and as an case of a crowd of boys who have been picking berries at Mosier. . They returned to Portland this morning and immediately left for Estacada.

All boys who are to be sent into the Large American Flag camps now will have work from three to six weeks, says Mr. Meehan.

Council Considers

Portland's right to protest to the railroad administration against any advance on freight rates on coal handled by lines in Oregon, providing grounds for the complaint were apparent, was maintained by Mayor Baker, at the meeting The letter of F. W. Robinson, chairman of the federal freight traffic committee, which contended that proposed advances were justified, was read to the council, together with the comment thereon of Edward Cousin, city traffic expert. Robinson stated that Portland is the only community in the country which has made such a protest. Cousin declared that the federal authorities are not, apparently, familiar with the coal to do what they might to help out the

To comply with the Oregon laws. Mr Viets will file, 10 days before the effective date, tariffs with a 10 per cent increase on all rates which have not heretofore been fixed by the commisto attack by any interested shipper at the time they are filed or at any time dance in the evening.

In cases where rates have been here-tofore fixed by the commission, the express company will file application for an increase in rates. Before the increase can be allowed a formal hearing must be held by the commission and Increases sought on all express rates within the state will be 10 per cent, exwhere the company will ask for a much greater increase in order to get an exfreight rate. Since the railroad company attempted to increase its freight rates 25 per cent, which the public service commission holds is illegal, the freight rate is higher than the express ward state development, rather than contract between the express company and the railroad company provides that the express rate shall be 150 per cent of the first class freight rate, and to get it that high it will require a tremendous ncrease in express rates.

Mr. Viets said that the rules and practices heretofore established by the various express companies operating in this state will be observed by the consolidated company.
