BOXING FOR BAYONET FIGHTING MUST SHOW NO BACK OR SIDESTEPS

Billy Rocap First Referee to Use New Idea of War Department in Penalizing Boxers Who Lay Back and Counter Rather Than Take Aggressiveness in the Ring.

NEW YORK, July 4.—The war department commission on training camp activities has made public a new set of rules to govern boxing taught to the American soldiers.

All side stepping, covering up, sparring for vantage position, are discouraged. In some cases there are penalties to be imposed on this work.

Under the army rules the bouts will be limited to four rounds, with the exception of special bouts and divisional championship matches.

Value of Alertness The real value of boxing to the soldier, it is explained by the authorities, depends largely upon the development of aggression and alertness.

Dr. Roycroft of the war department, in his explanation of the new rules, says:

A fierce attacking forward action bayonet charge means a 98 per cent quota of fighting men returned to safety.

William H. Rocap, the noted authority on boxing and sports editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, explained why he awarded the decision to Benny Leonard on June 25, when Leonard boxed Jack Britton in the Quaker City.

Here's Why He Did It In explaining in his paper why he awarded the decision to Benny Leonard, Mr. Rocap says:

Referees and Judges of boxing are asked by the war department's commission of training camp activities to lend their aid in encouraging aggressive boxing.

All backstepping, covering-up and purely defensive work are discouraged under the army boxing rules, and each contestant is made subject to a penalty for such work.

PORTLAND HOCKEY STAR TO FLY

Eddie Oatman, captain of the Portland Hockey club, who left Wednesday night for Vancouver, B. C., where he will enlist in the Canadian aviation corps for overseas service.

Another hockey player has heard the call to fight the Hun and Eddie Oatman is his name. The captain of the Portland Rosebud quintet left Wednesday night for Vancouver, B. C., to enlist in the Canadian overseas aviation service.

Oatman played hockey three or four years with the Rosebuds, before that being with Westminster. He came to the coast from the Quebec club and was accounted the best forward in hockey.

Under the leadership of Milton R. Klepper, chairman of the walking committee, and Henry C. Craner, many members of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club started on their annual Fourth of July trip to Mount Hood Thursday morning.

BUCKS ADD TO THEIR BIG BOOTY

Vancouver Beaten 5 to 4; Clow Pitches Brilliant Ball; Game Called in the Seventh.

THE Buckaroos continued their victorious march yesterday, when they registered another victory over Vancouver, 5 to 4. Umpire Rankin, for some unknown reason, abruptly stopped the game at the end of the first half of the seventh inning, calling the game on account of darkness, but it would have been possible to continue for another hour at least.

Clow pitched brilliant ball for the Buckaroos until the sixth when he weakened, and three runs were annexed off his delivery. Portland clouted Bour's offerings for nine safeties, netting five runs.

Princeton Vets Go to War Track Team Now Stopped

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY, once the leader of Eastern colleges on the cinder path and in the field, is now practically without veteran track material.

With the graduation of Captain J. H. Barrett and R. C. Erdman, the university has lost the last two of its great athletes.

Most Upper Classmen The Princeton squad, for the most part this year, was made up of upper classmen. Most of the athletes of the 1920 class, last year's freshmen, went to France with the Princeton hospital unit.
