PLUM SEASON OPENS WITH SHIPMENTS OF FRUIT FROM SOUTH

Good Quality Stuff Shown Today on Front Street and Prices Are Not Unusually High for First of the Year-Supply Will Be Plentiful.

With good shipments of California plums, the season in that fruit may be said to have been fairly opened for the year. There are plenty of Portland, Tues . . . plums on Front street now, and while the price is Year ago. relatively high, it is not unusual at all for the Year ago season's opening. There are indications that the plum crop will be at least normal, and early shipments are liberal. The demand for the fruit Year ago...... seems good, and it is being moved without hesi-

Clymans are being offered at $2 to $2.15, Year ago. 28 and are of good quality. Santa Rosa plums range about 15 cents higher, and the quality of these also is good. Some splendid Beauties are being offered at from $2,25 to $2.50. Tragedy Pacific Northwest Grain Dealers' association pet prunes and Climax are selling around $2.25.

BERRY MARKET IS FIRMER TODAY The berry market stiffened with heavier defor home canning and prices this morning shade higher than at the opening yes. Many housewires and small canners seen in the habit of waiting each year have been in the hapit of waiting each year for the "flush of the market," when big can-ners, who contract acreage, have more than they can use and turn the surplus on the market. With a crop that is nowhere near normal, however, this condition will not obtain this year and prices, instead of dropping as the season advances, have hardened as the supply proves to

CHERRY CURRANTS SELL WELL

Spring, No. 1 hard winter, No. 1 red winter, No. 1 durum, No. 1 hard white, in store public elevators approved for storage by the grain corporation of the demand. CHERRY CURBANTS GEREL

Cherry currants made their appearance on the local market yesterday, selling at about $2 a crate. The quality is spiendid and the supply is hardly equal to the demand. Smaller varieties are going around $1.50. Dealers advise the purchase of currants for canning and jelly purposes, as the best quality is now on the purposes, as the best quality is now on the New Orleans. market and prices will go little lower, if any at Galveston

WENATCHEE APRICOTS ARRIVING Wenatchee apricots are arriving on the market and are going at top prices of $2. The quality is excellent and the northern grown fruit is crowding out that shipped from the south. The northern crop will not likely be heavy, however.

POULTRY MARKET IS STRONGER
With increasing demand and receipts continuous with the country of the provision that dealers can buy for any price they wish.

With increasing demand and receipts continuing very light, the poultry market is atronger and prices are just a shade in advance of those last week. Broilers are selling on Front street at 32c for stuff weighing two pounds or better, while the smaller fries are going at 30c. Hens range from 30 to 32c for top grade and are

VEAL IN DEMAND; ADVANCING The real market is alightly higher than at the opening of the week, an increase of about half a cent being noted today. The supply is not adequate and the demand increases daily. However, there will be recourse to beef if prices continue on the upward slant. Today's quotations were around 18 ½ and 18c for fancy

CANDLE PRICES ARE MOUNTING Prices on candles advanced 10 to 25c a box on the local jobbing market today, the first increase in this line for some time. No cause is assigned, other than the stock reasons of righer prices for raw materials and labor.

LINSEED OIL MAKES AN ADVANCE Linseed oil was set up be on the local market today, the raw product in barrels selling now at $1.77 a gallon and in cases at $1.87. Boiled, the prices are 2c above those on the raw.

WALLA WALLA ONIONS RECEIVED Walla Walla onions are being received, although the shipments are light. Prices are about the same as given for the California stock, from $1.75 to $2. The quality of the interior

BUTTERFAT PRICES ARE HIGHER
Butterfat is advancing again, one price of 51c being made yesterday. This was not general, however, the price quoted in most cases ranging around 49 and 50c. Butter prices have not changed, although the market is firm at former quotations.

PARIS CHEERS YANKEE LADS WITH WOUNDS

ARIS, July 9. - American D wounded arriving here Monday met with the same cheering reception as was accorded to the first arrivals early in the Marne

What a rousing welcome they gave the American lads returning to Panam, as the polius taught Sammy to call Paris!

The crowds gathered from nowhere in an instant with that electric excitement so peculiar to a French crowd.

Most of the lads were slightly wounded. They merely smiled at the cheering throngs. As they passed from the station into waiting Red Cross cars and ambulances, shop girls flung down coppers on the nearby flower stands and hurriedly rushed over and thrust bouquets upon them. The Red Cross chauffeurs almost had to pry the girls off the am-

The Parisienne likes nothing better than to be seen with a wounded soldier. The families of France are taking our wounded lads into their foyers, and France could pay no greater compliment to Americans.

The spirit of eagerness which the allied soldiers are showing is undoubtedly a tribute to the inspiring presence of America's first 1,000,000 troops in France. eral authorities here today were convinced that another plot against coastwise shipping and to aid German agents in keeping in touch with maritime movements had been frustrated with the asrest of Carl Johanstad, first officer of a steamer running from San Francisco to Mexico. Johanstad was arrested on orders from naval officials, while Juan Rameriez, purser of the same vessel, is aboard a cruiser bound for a Pacific port from Mexico following his arrest at Salina Cruz as one of the alleged ploters. The authorities claim that in Mexican waters the steamer was fitted with exceptionally powerful wireless and that a quantity of dynamite stolen from the cargo was secreted at vulnerable points on the vessel. The dynamite, officials believe, was to be used in destroying the vate William C. Repeated Gains in Local Attacks Captain Stokes Goes to Help Reorganize Department; Report Shows Bad Condition.

FIRE PROTECTION

Salem, Or., July 9 .- Captain George W. Stokes of the state fire murshal's ion by General Foch of his policy of department has gone to Heppner to local assaults along the west front in- assist in reorganizing a fire department, in order that such a loss as was any new offensives which Von Hinden- sustained in that town July 4, when four blocks were destroyed by fire, may not be repeated.

Fire Marshal Wells has suggested that the company of home guards at Heppner be enliated in a fire company. So many young men have enlisted that it will be difficult to get material for a separate fire fighting organization. After the fire which occurred in Heppner May 27, representatives of the state fire marshal's department made an inspection of that place and found conditions which were a great menace to the town. Attention was called to them in a report prepared June 25, but the report had not been submitted to the mayor of the town when the fire on July 4 occurred.

Attention was called in this report to the ashes and trash in the rear of the Palace hotel, where newspaper re ports stated the disastrous fire started. The report also called attention to the need of immediate steps for the recrganization of the fire department. "Heppner, in its present condition, called upon to pay a heavy price."
