FIRST AUSTRALIAN WOOL SHIPMENT ON WAY TO PORTLAND

PRICES ON PRODUCE TOO HIGH FOR MANY PEOPLE IN PORTLAND

Fruit and Vegetable Market at Such High Figures Householder Is Not Able to Meet the Prices—Local Merchants Absolved of Blame.

Prices still rule high on Front street, in fact fruits and vegetables are so high that movement of produce is slow. It has not been within recent years that quotations have been so high all along the line and indeed they are so near the sky that the ordinary man on wages or salary, cannot afford to buy what he wants.

Cantaloupes at $4.00 and $4.50 a crate, tomatoes at $2.00 and poor stuff at that; berries at $2.75 and $3.00; and other stuff in proportion. It looks like some one is making money but where the profit comes in is further back than Front street. Commission merchants are kicking as hard as anyone, because their business is hurt by abnormally high prices, and their commission is no more now than it ever was, and their sales are less, as less produce is bought.

With sugar high and berries out of sight, there is little canning and unless apricots, peaches or other fruits get down within reach there will be nowhere near the usual amount of stuff set up on the shelves for winter use in the average household. And from all indications peaches will be high, for the crop is light and there is plenty of chance for price boosting.

Somewhere prices are being set that are putting small fruits, large fruits and vegetables beyond the reach of the householder.

BLACKBERRIES SELLING AT $3.00

Blackberries are more plentiful on Front street, but prices show little tendency toward the downward plane. Quotations were around $2.50 and $3.00, depending upon variety and quality. Loganberries, raspberries and black caps were firm during the day, with a demand not sufficient to warrant brisk trading.

WATERMELONS SOME WEAKER

Watermelons are slightly weaker, selling down to 3 cents, after holding through the week at half a cent above that figure. The supply is not heavy but the demand is light, quality being none too good and prices high. Cantaloupes are firm at $4 for ponies and $4.50 for standards.

POULTRY MARKET OFF A SHADE

The poultry market was slightly weaker as the week closed; prices ranging a shade lower, with tops in hens at 27 cents and broilers 31 cents. The demand is not heavy. Eggs are holding up well, candled going at 41 cents and extras at 43 cents.

VEAL PRICES RULING WEAKER

The veal market lacked strength as the week closed, and tops were at 18½ cents with good veal obtainable at half a cent under that figure. Beef is being substituted by consumers for veal at the figures that have ruled and a good supply in the latter days of the week has resulted in the half cent reduction.

BUTTER MARKET HOLDING FIRM

The butter market still holds firm, but without advances. Butterfat prices are up again, however, and the manufactured product surely will make an ascent of greater or less proportions in the near future. Cheese rules steady at prices quoted in Friday's advance.

ONION MARKET SHOWS STRENGTH

Onions are holding up well, prices on new reds being around 1¾ and 2 cents, with new whites offered at 2 to 2¼ cents. G. L. Davenport, a commission merchant of Front street, has received within the week 350 sacks of fancy reds from Joe Galbraith of Sherwood, one of the pioneer onion raisers of the state. These onions are of extra quality and equal to anything shipped from the south.

ROASTING EARS AT FIFTY CENTS

Following the first introduction of the season's sweet corn on the local market at 75 cents, larger receipts have brought the price down to 50 cents on Front street and roasting ears are reaching the consumer at 5 cents each, which is still some price for the toothsome green grain. But with prices ruling high on all produce and a short crop of corn, there's no assurance of low quotations this year.

EARLY PEACHES ARE ARRIVING

Early peaches are arriving in good shape, with the demand fair, prices considered. Prices range generally from $1.00 to $1.25, the yellow varieties being in much heavier demand. Most of the receipts so far have been from California, but northern districts are coming into bearing now.

LINSEED OIL GOES UP AGAIN

Linseed oil has made another advance over that quoted Friday, a 4 cent increase hard on the heels of the former one of 6 cents. Raw oil in barrels now is worth $1.87 a gallon and boiled oil in barrels $1.89.

WEATHER NOTICE FOR SHIPPERS

Weather bureau advises:

Protect shipments during the next 36 hours against the following maximum temperatures: Going north, 78 degrees; northeast over S. P. & S. R. R., 84 degrees; east to Baker, 94 degrees, and south to Ashland, 96 degrees. Maximum temperature at Portland tomorrow about 84 degrees.

SHIPLOAD OF WOOL ON WAY TO PORTLAND FROM THE ANTIPODES

Nine Hundred Tons of Fleece Sent From Australia to United States Will Be Received Here and Sent East for Manufacture.

The first cargo of wool ever received in Portland is on its way here from Australia, 900 tons of fleece being in the shipload sent to the United States for manufacture. Small shipments have come into Portland before by the way of other ports, but this schooner load of wool is the first full cargo Portland has received. It is presumed the wool will be transhipped by rail to Boston for manufacture.

Corn and Oats Rule Easier on General Selling in Chicago

Weather Conditions More Favorable for Crops—Provisions Dull and Slightly Lower.

By Joseph F. Pritchard

Chicago, July 13.—(I. N. S.)—The grain and provision markets were all lower. Losses were shown of ⅛@1⅛c for corn, and ⅛@⅛c for oats. The declines of 5@10c in the sample market had some effect, as the cash demand has for some little time been the dominating influence.

Chicago, July 13.—(I. N. S.)—Both oats and corn were easier on a rather general selling by local longs at the opening of the market here today. Commission houses also were on the selling side. Weather conditions were more favorable, with some rains in Northwestern United States and in Canada.

Provisions were dull and slightly lower.

With harvest well under way, the week closes with no change in the outlook for grain. The following report is issued by the Northern Pacific:

Main Line West of Pasco

No change conditions or prospects. Harvesting near Prosser.

Washington & Columbia River Railway

No change crop conditions since last report. Harvest has started and will be general within week. Heavy rain between Eureka and Dayton last night may help fill out some spring wheat and late barley near Dayton.

Main Line East to Pasco

Weather has been hot and warm winds drying up wheat. Rain would benefit late sown spring grain, but most grain too far along. Harvest will commence in week. Prospects from 50 to 75 per cent normal.

Washington Central Railway

Weather has been hot and rain needed to fill out heads. Reports are not uniform throughout district, but good crop is expected from most sections. District as whole will run 65 to 75 per cent normal.

Palouse and Lewiston Branch

North Moscow—Continued dry weather and hot winds having had effect on spring grain. Rain needed, ground drying out fast. Prospects from 60 to 75 per cent normal. Dry weather retarding potatoes and crop now 50 to 75 per cent normal.

Moscow and south—Had good rain last night, but too late for spring grain in some sections. Crop will be from 65 to 75 per cent of 1916 yield.

Camas Prairie—South of Lewiston and Clearwater Short Line

Had good rain last night, and crop will be normal. Camas Prairie north of Lewiston will make 65 to 75 per cent of normal crop. Potato crop very short. Probably not enough for local consumption.

FLOUR — Selling price: Patent, $10.00; barley flour, $11.50; Willamette valley, $9.60; local straight, $9.00; bakers' local, $9.80@10.00; Montana hard spring wheat, patent, $10.00@10.80; whole wheat, $9.60; graham, $9.40; rye flour, $10.75; oat flour, $12.00@12.25; corn flour, $11.50@14.00 per barrel.

SCATTERING RAINS IN TEXAS AND SOUTHWEST LOWER COTTON

New York, July 13.—(I. N. S.)—Considering scattered rains in Texas and the southwest this morning, the decline of 2 to 10 points in prices at the opening of the cotton market today was a moderate response, but shortly afterward the market felt the weight of increasing pressure from Wall street and the south, and at the end of the first 10 minutes was about 20 points down from last night's close.

Final prices showed a net loss of 2 to 17 points.

STOCK MARKET OPENS STEADY BUT CLOSES WITH A HEAVY TONE

Dealings Do Not Suggest Any Change in Character of Speculation—Government Bonds Unchanged—Leading Issues Gain Slightly.

New York, July 13.—(I. N. S.)—The stock market closed heavy today. Steel common closed at 104⅝; Baldwin, 87¾; Marine preferred 99½ and United Cigar Stores, 87⅛. Both Fisheries continued strong, moving up to 26½, an upturn of 2⅛, while American Sumatra Tobacco fell to 123½, a loss of 3½, closing at 123½.

New York, July 13.—(I. N. S.)—The stock market showed a steady tone at the opening today, with slight gains being made in some of the leading issues. The dealings did not suggest any change in the character of the speculation. There was an advance of 1 point in Texas Company to 148, and nearly as much in American Linseed.

Rallies in other issues were confined to fractions. American Can and Distillers' opened unchanged, while Cigar Stores dropped ¼ to 87⅜. In view of its recent activity and erratic price changes it was somewhat surprising that there had been no transactions in American Sumatra up to the end of the first 15 minutes.

After the first quarter of an hour had ended Booth Fisheries moved up 1½ to 25½, while American Ice rose 1 point to 31.

The stock market closed heavy today. Government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

Total sales of stocks today were 97,700 shares; bonds, $1,860,000.

Total sales of stock for the week were $1,932,000 shares; bonds, $24,963,000.
