MORE ENROLLED IN STATE GUARD NOW THAN O. N. G. HAD

Different Organizations Rapidly Being Equipped With Arms and Uniforms; Officer Schools Set.

MAJOR DRAKE WILL INSPECT

Second Regiment Will Be Formed Soon and Third Organized When Gen. Williams Returns.

The Oregon Guard is rapidly increasing throughout the state and is now greater in number of organizations and number of enlisted men than ever the Oregon National Guard was. The O. N. G. was called out for the period of the war, and the Oregon Guard is the legitimate state militia organization succeeding it.

The different organizations are being rapidly armed and uniformed and in the near future there will be organized a second regiment, and as soon as Adjutant General Williams returns from Washington it is expected that a third regiment will be organized and a brigade staff will follow.

Major Drake Will Inspect

Colonel C. W. North has appointed Major J. Francis Drake, an experienced officer identified with the Oregon National Guard for many years, as inspector-instructor of the First regiment, and he will visit the different organizations throughout the state and establish and hold officers' schools of instruction and report on conditions and inspect groups wishing to be accepted as companies.

There are now organized battalions of three companies or more each in the following cities and towns: Salem, La Grande, Eugene, Roseburg, Ashland, Bend and Portland. Separate companies are organized in Medford, Drain, Cottage Grove, Independence, Stayton, Dallas and Silverton. The county of Marion is the best organized and equipped in the state. It has three companies in Salem and one each in Silverton and Salem.

Separate Company Forms

Separate Company B was mustered in last week with 78 members residents of Independence and vicinity. Two companies are to be organized at Dallas with from 75 to 85 men each.

An engineering company for the First regiment is to be given recognition within a few days in Portland, and another will be organized for the Second regiment as soon as it is formed. Different special companies now mustered with an infantry regiment will be organized as soon as possible, so as to put the Oregon Guard on a regular footing as desired by the federal authorities. There will be a machine gun, supply and transportation company, as well as a band and medical corps for each regiment.

Will Help Salem Celebrate

Before the entry of the United States into the war against the Hun, Oregon had in its national guard one regiment of infantry, one battery of artillery and one troop of cavalry, and two divisions of the Oregon Naval Militia. The men now enrolled in the Oregon Guard, its legal military successor, outnumber by several hundreds the entire militia force enrolled previous to the call of troops to go to the Mexican border.

The entire First regiment, Oregon Guard, is to be called out to assist in the celebration of the completion of the new bridge between Marion county and Polk county across the Willamette river at Salem. The date has not been set, but it is expected to be the latter part of July or the first part of August.

Fuel Dealers Must Make Their Reports

Coal dealers who have failed to make reports by postal cards sent them by the fuel administration have until July 18 to get their reports in. After that their coal supplies will be cut off pending receipt of the desired reports, according to an announcement made today by Fuel Administrator Holmes of Oregono.

"Taken as a whole," said Holmes, "fuel dealers have responded well and have turned in their reports promptly. Approximately 200 have forwarded their cards. There are a scattered few, however, who have neglected to make the reports.

"Indications are that some dealers are under the impression that they are not required to file reports when they have no stock on hand. It is exactly this sort of information that the fuel administration wants."

Churches Join in Child Welfare Work

Cooperation in the national child welfare campaign to save the lives of 100,000 children in the United States is being undertaken by the women of the Protestant churches of Chicago, according to Mrs. George McCown Mathes, president of the Woman's Church federation.

"The parents should be made to realize that this is not in any sense a charity, but a great educational movement to focus attention on the physical well being of children," said Mrs. Mathes. "We want the babies of our churches weighed in their own churches and the certificates made out there may furnish a link which will bind the child to the church in future years."

Astoria, July 13.—W. E. Warren, Emma C. Warren and Myra A. Ziegler have filed articles of incorporation at the office of the county clerk of the Warren Lumber company, with a capital stock of $10,000. The corporation will engage in logging operations at Ecola.

ST. JOHNS FACTORY SUFFERS SERIOUS FIRE AND WATER DAMAGE

Over-Heated Machinery Causes Blaze in Western Cooperage Co. Plant; Mill Is Saved.

Fire at the Western Cooperage company's plant in St. Johns Friday evening did about $8000 damage. The fire is believed to have started near an electric motor that ran the sawdust motor and is believed due to either an overheated motor or overheated shafting. The fire did not burn any of the mill, but burned the foundation under the mill. The greatest damage is said to have been done by water.

The mill is built on a sand fill, and when the firemen turned on the water they washed the sand away. The smoke from the sawdust fire underneath the mill was so dense that firemen found it necessary to cut holes in the roof to let the smoke out so they could work. Fire Marshal Grenfell said this morning that the floor of the mill was badly sagged and this would prevent part of the mill from operating. It will be necessary to take up the flooring and put in a new foundation, according to the fire marshal. Engines 32, 24, 8, 13, 23 and 1 and truck 4 and the fireboat George H. Williams responded to the alarm, which was turned in at 5:28 o'clock.

J. C. English Plant Burns

About 7:10 o'clock fire broke out in the J. C. English Lighting & Fixture company at 161 Union avenue north and did about $3500 or $4000 damage. The loss is said to be covered by insurance. The fire is believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. It broke out in the rear part of the factory and burned rapidly. The roof was badly burned and much property destroyed before the fire was brought under control.

Motorcycle Hits Big Truck, Boy Injured

A. Betsch, 18 years old, 1492 East Oak street, was seriously injured Friday evening when the motorcycle on which he was riding collided with a large auto truck at Thirty-fifth and Division streets.

Eye witnesses say the boy was riding north on Thirty-fifth street and was looking backward as he approached Division. The truck was going west on Division street and was hit near the front, the force of the collision throwing Betsch under the machine. The truck was driven by John Howard, driver for Robert Fraser's shipyard wood company.

An ambulance took the boy to St. Vincents hospital, where it was found that his leg was broken and his jaw nearly torn from his face, which was badly lacerated.

Women Will Work In the Army Camps

The American Baptist Home Mission society has appointed two experienced women to work in army camps. One of these is stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and the other at Camp Funston, Texas.

Through local agencies these women are endeavoring to provide suitable recreation for the soldiers. Other forms of needed service are being investigated and plans formulated for further work. These women are assisted by the local church workers and community organizations.

"If this work succeeds we are hoping to put other women in the field," said Miss Katherine S. Westfall, corresponding secretary of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission society.

The Socialists of Multnomah county have nominated a full county and legislative ticket. The county nominees are: Sheriff, W. E. Neef; county clerk, Erma Lamb; treasurer, L. L. Hunnicutt; constable, G. Menzel; coroner, F. W. Fry; county commissioners, P. Fallen, H. J. Bishop. The nominees for representatives to the legislature are: Mrs. J. Jackson, Mrs. J. Groth, C. W. Hurst, Alvina Hagen, P. Kahkonen, P. Peterson, M. Kleiner, O. H. Sternberg, M. Schlegel, W. A. Tucker, H. S. Warren and P. Streiff. Joint representative nominees are W. C. Aylesworth and S. Raxworthy; state senator, H. Webber.

AMERICAN SPIRIT DECLARED GREAT

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney Returns After Six Months in France; America's Progress Rapid.

Salem, Or., July 13.—"The most marvelous of all the things I saw in France is the way the American boys want to get to the front," declared Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, who returned last night from spending six months in France as a speaker for the army Y. M. C. A.

"The Americans are clearly good fighters and the Germans are afraid of them. I talked to any number of Americans who were in the Vailly woods fight and they said that the Germans squealed like pigs, yelling 'Kamerad, kamerad!'

"Americans have more dash and pep than either the English or French and they go into battle yelling like fiends and swearing like pirates."

Dr. Doney was met in Portland Friday night by Mrs. Doney and their two sons and aunt. They came to Salem by automobile. Arrangements have been made for Dr. Doney to deliver an address at the armory Sunday night.

U-Boat Attacks Ship

On both trips, going and coming over the water, Dr. Doney had experience of seeing a submarine. On the trip over to France the submarine did not attack the ship, but his homeward trip was made on one of the biggest boats afloat, which was seized by the United States from Germany when war was declared, and which the German subs have been trying their best to sink ever since. The boat is a monster and carries eight six-inch guns. Dr. Doney says he is confident the ship's gun sunk the submarine which was following it.

Dr. Doney spent considerable time among the Oregon soldiers. He was with Colonel May of the One Hundred Sixty-second regiment, which is now a replacement regiment. That is, this regiment is drawn upon for men to fill gaps in other regiments which go into battle, while it keeps its ranks filled by taking in rookies, or men unattached to other regiments.

Praises Administration

Spending his time entirely with the Americans and French, Dr. Doney visited 125 different military camps, delivering lectures.

"The French are very grateful to Americans," he said. "No other people in the world would come together as they have. In some instances Americans have taken over towns, policing them and are in complete control, and the French enjoy it. The English could not do that, as the French would resent it. The French seem to have absolute confidence in the word of Americans."

Dr. Doney praised the business foresight of the American administration in not heeding the demand of Colonel Roosevelt to rush over to France with an army before full preparation had been made for taking care of such an army.

"One is amazed at the preparations which have been made for our men," he declared. "We were well prepared before men were sent over."

On the way home Dr. Doney stopped in Washington, D. C., to confer with the adjutant general about a military instructor for Willamette university, and said that military instruction is now assured.

Summer Lake Soda Plant Being Worked

Salem, Or., July 13.—Information of actual work toward developing the soda ash plant at Summer Lake, in Lake county, was received today by the state land board in a letter from H. C. Pendleton of Oakland, Cal., who says he is working on the Jason Moore lease of that lake.

Because of probable delays which will be encountered as a result of scarcity of machinery and labor, Pendleton asks for assurances from the state land board that he will be given extensions of time and modifications that may be necessary to insure success.

His request is accompanied by a letter of recommendation from Mayor John L. Davie of Oakland, who says Pendleton has taken an important part in the upbuilding of industries at Oakland.

Two Arrested on Burglary Charges

Roy Chapman and George V. Bailey were arrested Friday night at Front and Morrison streets by Inspectors Snow and Leonard, charged with the burglary of the Foster Road pharmacy on the night of July 6 and with the burglary of the M. L. Smith jewelry store, 193 Broadway, early in the morning of July 11.

The inspectors allege that they found the jewelry stolen from Smith's store in possession of the men.

Bible Conference to Hold Over New Week

The meetings at the Bible Conference tabernacle will continue for another week with Evangelist E. J. Bulgin as the main speaker. Rev. H. E. Ironsides is expected either Friday or Saturday night. Fred Elliott of Calgary will also speak at several meetings. The tabernacle is located at East Fifteenth and Boise streets. Some of the speakers use charts in explaining their lectures. The meetings are held daily at 7:45 o'clock and also at 2:45 o'clock on Sunday.

Cars Are Needed to Transport Guards

Thirty automobiles are wanted to bring back to Portland companies G and H of the Multnomah Guard, who left this afternoon for rifle practice on the Clackamas range. The men wish to return about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and not enough cars are on hand to bring back the 125 men.

Anyone who can spare a machine is requested to call Main 6500.

Ditch Project Under Trust Company Law

Salem, Or., July 13.—The Grouse Creek Ditch company of Wallowa county must comply with the trust company law, if it does business as contemplated by its articles of incorporation, according to an opinion given by the attorney general to Corporation Commissioner Schuiderman. The company proposes to operate an irrigation ditch in trust for its owners.

Oregon to Send 103 Men to Auto School

Voluntary Enlistment in Mechanical Corps to Be Trained at Spokane Is Open Until July 22.

A call for 103 men to report to the commanding officer of the Modern Auto school at Spokane, Wash., August 15, has been received by Captain J. E. Cullison, head of the selective service, from Provost Marshal General Crowder. Only white men who are physically qualified for general military service will be accepted.

A course of training will be given at government expense, similar to the training course at Benson Polytechnic school, except that it will be in auto mechanics exclusively.

Registrants will be permitted to volunteer for this course until July 22, after which date the local boards will induct a sufficient number of men to fill the quota. Registrants of the 1918 class may volunteer for service in this call, but they may not be inducted.

To be qualified a man must have at least a grammar school education and some aptitude for mechanical work.

BUSINESS MEN GIVE VACATION TIME TO HELP HARVEST CROPS

Pettit Bedding Company Willing to Shut Up Shop and Let Force Go to Farms.

"Let all the industries not essential to war take a vacation period, close their plants and let employers and employes go together to the harvest fields," proposed J. W. Pettit of the Pettit Feather & Bedding company, when M. E. Ross, one of the vacation farm help committeemen, called upon him.

"If you will get an organization of such industries pledged to help save the harvest, you may put my whole establishment first on the list," said Mr. Pettit.

The question of W. A. Williams, director of the vacation farm help campaign, now is, "Will the others come in and do something really worth while to help the government win the war?"

J. P. Jaeger Volunteers

In another city the police and firemen have pledged their vacations for harvest work. In other states business men have come forward readily to aid the government add to its food supply by supplementing the acutely reduced normal supply of farm labor.

Among the well known Portland business men who have dedicated their vacations to help the government by food harvesting on Oregon farms is J. P. Jaeger of Jaeger Brothers, jewelers, and chairman of the Portland public safety commission. Others are District Judge Jones and City Engineer Laurgaard.

"We'd like to register a great many more men who want to express in deeds the patriotism so often voiced in words," is the appeal going out today from Liberty Temple vacation farm help registration headquarters.

The vacation farm help campaign is a division of the work directed by J. W. Brewer, federal farm help specialist, from 704 Oregon building. About 75 of those who have registered at Liberty Temple have been directed immediately to farm employment by Mr. Brewer, Mr. Brewer also issued today the following appeal for women workers:

Call Comes From Hood River

Twenty more girls are wanted at Hood River to join the Franklin high school group, is the appeal that has been sent by Miss Emily B. Johnston, the supervisor of the camp. These girls are now thinning apples in the orchards and are promised at least a five weeks' job. Growers are paying 16c per hour for a 10 hour day and Miss Johnston is running the camp for about 50c per day per person.

Mrs. Mabel Plowman took a camp of 25 girls to Newberg a week ago and is now asking for 75 more. This camp is located in the spacious hall of the Valley Cannery company, where the accommodations are of the best. Workers are engaged in picking loganberries, raspberries, black caps and blackberries, and outside of about 10 days from the first to the tenth of August there will be continuous work until about the first of October.

Both of these are emergency calls and the help is really needed to save the crops.

Parties desiring to join either of the camps should apply to 704 Oregon building or telephone Broadway 440.

Lindberg Wanted to Say a Word; Couldn't

San Francisco, July 13.—(U. P.)—Federal Judge Dooling sentenced E. G. Lindberg, a soldier, to two years' imprisonment on McNeil's island for sending poisoned candy to himself by mail. A girl had almost been implicated in the crime. "May I say a word?" asked Lindberg after sentence had been passed. "Not to me," replied Judge Dooling as he left the bench.

League Suggests Outdoor Services

For the month of July the central office of the Epworth league has suggested that the chapters hold an outdoor service on Sunday evening, July 21; that they hold a picnic during the month; do fresh air work; start community improvement societies to care for roadsides, church yards, bare spots, gardens, etc., and help the pastor plant for an all day reunion of church members who have moved to nearby cities. July is also designated as Christian Citizenship month for the juniors.

COURT PROCEEDINGS ARE HELD NECESSARY IN BRIDGE TOLL CASE

District Attorney Evans Says Opinion Will Prevent Move to Reduce.

That it will be some time before soldiers and others in war service will be allowed to cross the Interstate bridge at reduced toll rates was indicated Friday when District Attorney Evans informed the board of county commissioners that, in his opinion, it would be necessary to institute proceedings in the federal court before proper legal authority could be obtained to make the proposed reduction in tolls to one cent.

An opinion of like effect from Attorney General Tanner of Washington was received by the board. Tanner held that Clarke county was not only prohibited by law from giving free tolls to the army, but was likewise denied the privilege of giving reduced tolls as contemplated in the plan proposed by Rufus C. Holman, chairman of the Multnomah county board.

"This opinion means," said District Attorney Evans, "that the Clarke county commissioners cannot vote to put the one cent toll rate into effect, notwithstanding their promise to do so, because they are without legal authority to take the step. The only recourse now left is to begin proceedings in the federal court where the entire matter can be laid before governmental authority."

Mr. Evans is now preparing a complete statement of the bridge toll question, preparatory to taking court action. It is thought that several months will elapse before that matter can be settled definitely through court proceedure.

DRAFT REGISTRANTS TO BE RECLASSIFIED UNDER NEW RULING

Orders Received to Group Men Under New Physical Requirements Before Mobilization.

Instructions to all local boards to review the physical examination of all registrants before induction and wherever necessary to regroup the physically qualified registrants not conforming to the physical requirements under the new standards of physical examination, were sent out Saturday by Captain J. E. Cullison of the selective service.

The new standards are in effect at mobilization points, and it is especially important to regroup the men in regard to height and weight requirements in order to prevent rejections, according to Captain Cullison. Ear drums must also be examined to avoid sending men with perforated ear drums.

Physical reexamination of registrants, however, should rarely be necessary in order to change the grouping to conform to the new standards, said the captain, although local boards have the authority to reexamine a registrant whenever they deem it necessary.

How to Brush Teeth

MOST Tooth-brushing is done very thoughtlessly. It does not remove food deposits from all the surfaces of the teeth and the mouth. From three to five minutes are required to accomplish anything like a thorough cleaning of the teeth. At least this much time should be spent after meals and at night before retiring. Most decay of the teeth takes place during the night or resting hours.

The tooth-brush must not be too coarse and stiff, and it should not be drawn straight across the teeth. The proper method is to brush from the gums towards the cutting edge of the teeth with a slight circular motion. Avoid the use of coarse or gritty tooth-powders, and all tooth-pastes containing soap, and all mouth washes purporting to cure or prevent dental trouble. After each brushing, the mouth should be rinsed out with lukewarm water. The tooth-brush should be cleaned and kept dry when not in use.
