There is serious need for the following men on the railroad divisions in the Portland, Ore-gon, district:

One of Portland's largest concerns has a posi-tion as city salesman in which they can use a man who is wideawake and willing to work hard. The work is clean and congenial and offers the right man an excellent future. Will consider man without previous selling experience if he is made of the right stuff. Prefer men under or above draft age or those exempted on ac-count of family or other just causes. This is no soft snap and unless you are willing to start small and study and work hard for ad-vancement you need not reply. Moderate salary with more as rapidly as you can earn it. Give 200 carpenters for bridge and building gangs, $3.88 to $5, 10-hour day. 150 carpenter helpers, $8.25 to $4, 10-hour day.
50 bridge laborers, $3.50, 10-hour day.
1000 laborers for extra gangs and sections,
$2.75 to $3, 10-hour day.

Extra gang men live in cars, board furnished at approximately $27 a mo. The above wage scale is authorized under U. S. Government Railroad Order.
