MEW INSPECTION BULES
At a meeting to be held Wednesday by the grain trade with Mr. Lounsbury, matters pertaining to inspection by the railroads will be taken up under the following suggestions: First —Grain dealers to select one or more men as may be necessary, competent to take these samples, these men to be stationed at The Dalies, Second—Samples taken by these men to be that only a small per cent of their orders are at present being filled, and it is impossible for them diste requirements. This alone would indicate the extreme strength of the present situation.
Similar trend is indicated in the market for
