HROUGH the service department of the Portland Y. M. C. A., the people of Portland and vicinity will be given an opportunity Sunday night to hear from Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, the latest word from the Oregon boys in the European battle lines, where history of momentous importance is now being made so rapidly. The meeting will be held in The Auditorium. Dr. Doney, who has just reached home from France after six months' service at the front as a Y. M. C. A. secretary. carries the latest personal word from the boys at the front, where thousands of Portland and Oregon hearts now are in spirit. Pipe Organ Recital Promised

From his experiences "over there," Dr. Doney will give thrilling narratives, for he was on many of the lines, in the front trenches and passed through fire. He knows what it is to be bombarded and chased out of a town by the Boches, and details of this will be given, as well as other stirring things which he saw and which go to make up a strong story. The great general mass meeting, which in for all Portland and vicinity, is arranged by Barciay Acheson, chief of the service department of the Portland "Y," and one of the features will be pipe organ music and singing. Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, who has been singing to shipyard workers under the auspices of the "Y" industrial department here, will lead the singing. She will sing popular airs and has asked "her boys" in the shipyards to be present and help her in the singing, as they have done so Large Attendance Expected The pipe organ will be used for several selections, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, Music will be featured for the first 30 be given an opportunity to tell his story Mr. Acheson will preside. Many of honor of Dr. Doney, who is the head of their denominational school at Salem and been sent to every church in Portland members, and it is anticipated that the seating capacity of The Auditorium will be taxed.
