Married Fifty Years; Event Is Celebrated

MANY friends were present at the celebration in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Day at their home at 552 East Fourteenth street. Many presents were received, among them a purse containing $67 in cash.

An interesting feature of the evening was the rehearsal of the wedding ceremony in the present perfect tense by Dr. J. A. Goode. Two appropriate readings were given by Mrs. Grace Silcher, entitled "The Path of Life" and "Their Golden Wedding," the latter composed by Dr. Goode.

Mr. Day is a veteran of the Civil war. Their six children were all present—W. F. Day, A. L. Day, D. D. Day, Mrs. Charles Atwood of Portland, Mrs. J. F. Downes of Monmouth, Ill., and Mrs. J. L. Cox of Dacula, Okla. Four grandchildren were also present.

Mrs. Day was dressed in a beautiful gray costume, similar in color to the one in which she was married, and wore a corsage that she wore on her wedding day. A handsome bouquet was presented by the children, which was used as a centerpiece for the table.

A delicious wedding supper was served. Among those present were: Mesdames N. A. Day, W. F. Day, D. D. Day, J. F. Downes, J. L. Cox, Charles Atwood, A. L. Day, J. A. Goode, P. Bittner, G. Deming, Miss Ely, C. B. Farley, W. A. Ogilbee, Grace Silcher, A. L. Keenan, S. R. Atwood, L. E. Siegfried, Misses Mildred Atwood, Margaret Atwood, Gladys Farley and Elvies Siegfried; Messrs. N. A. Day, W. F. Day, D. D. Day, Charles Atwood, A. L. Day, J. A. Goode, E. W. Silcher, W. A. Keenan, A. L. Keenan, P. Bittner, C. B. Farley, Clifford Atwood, Earl Day, Ralph Day and Bruce Silcher.

Mrs. John Latta, who has but recently returned to Portland after an extended stay in the South was luncheon hostess at the Waverley Country club Tuesday, when she entertained 16 guests after golf.

Mrs. Walter F. Burrell gave a luncheon at the Waverley club, Monday, when her guests including Mrs. Bruce P. Diquie, Mrs. C. E. Potter, Mrs. Rufus Ziegler, Mrs. Clarence Jacobson and the latter's guests, Mrs. Edna Neustadter and Mrs. Melville Schweitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Early are at Seaside for the summer season, having opened their attractive cottage. They have as their guest their niece, Miss Eva Yates of Corvallis.

A wedding announcement of much interest in Portland is that of William Burke Jr. and Miss Helen Rita, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rita of Burley, Idaho. The ceremony was solemnized at St. Ignatius church, Burley.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burke of Portland and the brother of Mrs. Burke-Channing and Mrs. Frank Burke, prominent Portland women.

The Monday Musical club will continue their summer meetings, inaugurated so successfully this month at the residence of Mrs. Percy Lewis and will meet the first Monday in August at the residence of Mrs. Frances Moran and Harvey, at East 59th and Elm streets. Members will bring luncheons and gather at 1 o'clock. A business meeting for the board of directors will precede the luncheon and a program will follow.

Alpha Chi Omega met on Tuesday with Mrs. Joseph W. Withrow. The time was spent in sewing for Belgian children. Arrangements were made to assist at the "Kanning Kitchen," and they will cooperate with the Pi Beta Phi in taking charge on Thursdays of each week.

Next Thursday they will also assist in the sale of for-get-me-nots, and the next Thursday they will also assist in the sale of for-get-me-nots, by assisting in the sale of the for-get-me-nots to be sold for the benefit of the relief fund of Belgium and France.

Mrs. Stephanie Herlock and little daughter, Yvonne, are Pendleton visitors at the home of Mrs. Herlock's sister, Mrs. P. H. Duchoid in Laurelhurst.

Members and friends alike of the Rose City Park club enjoyed the moonlight excursion on the dancing boat "Swan" Thursday evening. More than ordinary interest attached itself to this trip as it afforded those present an exceptional opportunity to see the ship-building industry to the best advantage. Mrs. Hale J. Campbell was chairman of the evening with Mrs. Mayme Dingman, Mrs. Norman C. Taylor, Mrs. William P. Richardson and Mrs. George Carlson assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dorr announce the engagements of their two daughters, Miss Margaret Flavin to Earl Maddox, and Miss Ann Flavin to Charles Carson, the weddings to take place in the near future.

The meetings of Scout Young Auxiliary No. 3, United Spanish War veterans, have been suspended for the balance of the month of July. The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held on Tuesday evening, August 6.

For the war fund teas being given each Tuesday and Friday "On the Hill" tea garden on Kings Heights, the short talks on various subjects of the hour which have been arranged have proven an enjoyable feature. Friday afternoon Mrs. E. L. Harmon and her daughter, Mrs. Truitt Hughes, who are in charge of the teas, secured Miss Marian Bauer, pianiste-composer, who gave a most interesting talk on "The Modern Trend of Art in Music and Its Relation to the War." Tea was served from 4 until 6 o'clock.

Portland Man Claims Bride In California

THE Holy Trinity Episcopal church on East Grand avenue, Alhambra, Cal., was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday evening, June 12, when Robert Moorhead gave his daughter Theodora, in marriage to Joseph T. Jones of Portland. The ceremony took place under an arbor of pink carnations and ferns where Rev. Milton Runkle read the service.

The floral decorations throughout the church consisted of carnations and ferns which made a very dainty combination.

The bride wore a gown of net, fashioned with satin ribbon. She wore a long tulle veil caught with a coronet of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of cyclamen, Cecil Brunner roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Edward Moorhead, gowned in white and carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas, acted as matron of honor, while little Misses Eleanor March, Leah Currier and Wilma Myfanny Jones, niece of the groom, served as flower girls. Miss Helen Parker carried the ring in the center of a large pink peony. All were dressed in pink and white. Edward Moorhead, brother of the bride, was Mr. Jones' best man. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Fitzgerald and solos were rendered by Mrs. O. H. Schluesser and Hayden Jones of Los Angeles. The ushers were Arthur Forman and Edmund Ducummon.

The bridal party and immediate relatives were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride on South Chapel street after which Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for a brief wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends at 300 South Chapel street when they return. Mrs. Jones is one of Alhambra's charming and popular young women and a vocalist of ability. The groom is well known and respected here and has won considerable fame as a singer. Joseph T. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jones, 1143 East Main street, Portland.

Members of the White Ribbon club met Friday for luncheon at the Hotel Portland. Covers were laid for 11 at a table prettily decorated in carnations and ferns. This club meets for luncheons frequently and its gatherings are always happily anticipated.

Mrs. William K. Botsford (Orle Harrington) has returned from a few weeks' sojourn in California, where she joined her mother and sister, Mrs. J. B. and Vera Harrington, who are spending the summer in San Francisco.

At the De Lair apartments on the evening of July 17, in the presence of a goodly number of guests, Walter L. Childress and Bessie L. Chapman, were united in marriage. Rev. J. F. Ghermley, officiating. The happy couple were the recipients of many substantial presents.

A. M. Welder left last week for Shipherd Hot Springs, where he is convalescing from a recent sick spell.

Forbes Church Says Farewell To Its Pastor

ONE of the largest social gatherings ever held in the Forbes Presbyterian church was given last Wednesday evening to bid farewell to Rev. Mr. McLeod, who was called to Hoquiam, Wash. General regret and appreciation of his services were freely expressed. Rev. Mr. Harick of Central Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Bevan of Third Baptist church and Rev. John Dawson of the Church of the Good Shepherd spoke. A musical program was given. A substantial purse was given to Mr. McLeod in appreciation of his services. Refreshments were served.

Klamath Falls, Or., July 15.—Corporal Leon E. Decker and Miss Betty Colvin were married at Coffeyville, Kan., June 24. Corporal Decker, who resided here for many years, joined the aviation corps last December. The bride also formerly resided in Klamath Falls, and is a graduate of Klamath County High school. She is now living with her parents at Coffeyville, but will soon move to San Antonio, where her husband is stationed.

Today's Aid to Beauty

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful in hair washing, we will have virtually no hair troubles. An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair; that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt; can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of Cantrox (which you can get at any drugist's) in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid—enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After Cantrox shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.—(Adv.)

Carnival Next Friday Night To Be Feature

A "LIBERTY CARNIVAL" under the auspices of the Women's Society of the White Temple will be held on Friday evening from 8 to 10, to which all are cordially invited. A live, stirring program of speeches and music will be given and refreshments served. The women are deeply interested in Liberty bonds, and this function is to further that purpose.

The women of the Red Cross unit of the First Baptist church on Tuesday planned a surprise for the devoted chairman of the unit, Mrs. M. L. Hardwick, in the way of a picnic at Laurelhurst park. They went with the proverbial well-filled baskets (warming by the way) and spread a luncheon, of which about 75 partook. Even flags and flowers were not forgotten, and when all was ready, Mrs. Hardwick arrived. Toasts and speeches, witty and wise, were made, and Mrs. S. L. Lockwood, in a gracious speech ending in unique original verse presented Mrs. Hardwick with a casserole as a token of appreciation from her coworkers. Mrs. Hardwick responded in a few well-chosen remarks. Mrs. D. C. Brownell of Seaside, Alaska, brought greetings from the women of the Far North and spoke of the work and sacrifice of the people in general there. She said when they became aware that war had been declared, virtually every young man in the place went into the service at once. Mrs. Brownell is the guest of Mrs. A. F.

An enthusiastic meeting of Ben Butler W. R. C. No. 51, was held in Dawley's hall, Thursday evening. Visitors were present from Michigan, Kansas and Idaho. One application for membership was received.

A stirring appeal to the corps to support their sermons. Visitors were present from Michigan, Kansas and Idaho. One application for membership was received.

Thanks Are Extended For Donations

THE treasurer of the Cambrian Social society has just received the following letter from the secretary of the Mrs. Lloyd George fund:

"Dear Sir: Mrs. Lloyd George has handed me your letter of April 27, inclosing a draft of $14.15, which she has allocated to this fund. We are very grateful to all who help to contribute to this amount, and I shall be obliged if you will convey to Mrs. Thomas Phillips and Mrs. David Phillips an expression of our sincere thanks. Our thanks are also due to the Welsh Cambrian Social society for its helpful donation. We greatly appreciate the efforts made on our behalf, and it is a source of gratification to Mrs. Lloyd George to know that her compatriots in America are so interested in her work. Again thanking you. Yours faithfully, W. LLEWIS, Joint Hon. Sec."

This money was raised at a benefit tea given by the Headman Phillips recently, and the Cambrian Social society donated $10 toward this fund. This society has also invested in Liberty bonds and assisted in the British Red Cross affairs.
