The fragrance of lavender welcomes the visitor to the Red Cross shop, 106 Fifth street, this week, some lover of the old-fashioned flower having brought in quantities of the blooms to sell for Red Cross cause.

"Happy Homeland Echoes," a booklet of verses by Mary N. Badger and dedicated to "Uncle Sam's Boys" is on sale at the shop. Half of the proceeds will be given to the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and Red Star.

The second floor has some new engravings of considerable merit, and also a new line of furniture in splendid condition.

A patriotic citizen, donating a used suit, sent it first to the cleaners. In almost perfect condition, this suit had not been placed on the rack in the clothing department before it was sold, and the Red Cross was the richer by $20. Had there been several suits they would have all been sold the same day. Two strings of Indian beads were brought to the shop and found a customer at once in an Eastern woman, looking for just that touch of the west for a souvenir gift to send to the folks back home.

The W. C. T. U. war council, to be held in Portland is one of the important meetings to come to Portland. The date is August 2. Mrs. Margaret Muma the national treasurer will be present. Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp will return from the southern part of Oregon where she is on a lecture tour under the national food administration. The six departments which are doing war work will have additional work assigned them.

The patriotic relief division of the Oregon W. C. T. U. has been asked through its cantonment hospital department for 30 additional electric fans for use in the wards of the Vancouver soldier's hospital. They certainly are needed. People are asked to enlist their electric fans, loan them to the hospitals for the comfort of the sick boys. Send them to 310 Selling building and take a receipt for them.

The four o'clock meeting held at the W. C. T. U. pavilion at Gladstone Chautauqua have been well attended and the different leaders have brought worth while subjects to the people.

The call for organizations to help secure rooms for the G. A. R. is being answered by the Oregon W. C. T. U. They announced the matter at the Chautauqua meetings and asked every one to come to their headquarters and register the rooms they will let the old soldiers have. These rooms are not asked free—a fair rental is paid for them, but the hotels are full and people must open their homes for these guests.

A delightful evening was spent by the Self Culture club at Laurelhurst park, the occasion being a picnic given in honor of Kenneth H. Arnot, a member of the club, who expects soon to enter the service. A number of enlisted men from Vancouver were guests of the club, to whom the president, Mrs. R. R. Rohr, in behalf of the club, extended a very cordial welcome. The decorations consisted of American flags, a large one being tastefully draped between two tall Pine trees under which a bounteous feast of good things was enjoyed in the fullest by all present. A unique feature of the evening was original and clever stunts given by the guests. An appropriate reading by Mrs. C. M. Kiggens entitled "Do It Now" was very much appreciated. The remainder of the evening was spent in the good old fashioned way of playing games. Mrs. R. R. Rohr, Mrs. C. M. Kiggins and Mrs. Grace Silcher acted as chaperones and all expressed themselves as having had a most enjoyable time. Among those present were: Mrs. R. R. Rohr, Mrs. C. M. Cottage Cheese Gospel Is To Be Preached This Week

Use of By-Product of Butter Will Be Urged by Mrs. Hallie K. Davis.

The gospel of cottage cheese will be preached in Portland this week by a government expert, Mrs. Hallie K. Davis of the department of agriculture, who is speaking in Oregon under the direction of the Oregon Agricultural college. Mrs. Davis is so full of the importance of her mission but from the health, economic and patriotic standpoints, that she radiates enthusiasm and information.

Speaking of the great food waste in the discarding of skim milk and buttermilk, Mrs. Davis says: "Over 40 per cent of all milk produced is used in the making of butter, but in this process but 4 per cent of the bulk is used, 96 per cent constituting a by-product in the way of skim milk and buttermilk, which amounts to 30,000,000,000 pounds annually in this country, and most of this is being wasted. For instance, I have learned since coming to Portland that one of your creameries emptied 10,000 pounds of skim milk and buttermilk into the sewer in one day recently, and realising the waste, they wired the department of agriculture asking for help in solving the problem of what they recognized as a great waste.

Milk Indispensable

"Strange as it may seem, when people find their bills are running too heavy and they must cut down somewhere, the first thing they cut off is milk. They seem to think it is a luxury, when as a matter of fact it is the greatest of all foods; it is an indispensable food. Every child under six years should have at least a quart a day and older people should not have less than a pint a day. Portland's consumption is exceptionally low, being only four tenths of a pint per day per capita. The increase in prices is no reason for failure to use milk. At 20 cents a quart it is the cheapest real food to be had. It is a fact that the farmers are actually losing money on their milk output and if the people don't realize this and rally to their support, we will soon find ourselves in the same condition that England is, where it is absolutely impossible to get a glass of milk except for a child or a wounded soldier. Poland has no children under six years of age. The small children die for lack of milk. The refugee children of France and Belgium are undernourished and are suffering from rickets and other diseases, all due to a lack of milk. There is in this country 150 per cent more condensed milk all ready for shipment than there was last year at this time, but we haven't the means of transporting it and the children are suffering as a consequence. In England 25,000,000 dairy cattle have been slaughtered and unless we wake up we are going to face the same situation.

Experts Consider Matter

"It costs just as much to bottle and deliver skim milk as it does whole milk and people will not buy it at the prices thus made necessary, so some other way must be found to utilize this important by-product. Two government experts are conferring with Portland creamery men and the decision has been reached that they are to make the cottage cheese and sell it at about 15 cents a pound and a pound is equal to a pound of meat or to eight or nine eggs. Now comes my part of the campaign, I am sent out to tell the women how to utilize this cheap and nutritious food in making all sorts of appetizing dishes. I find that most people know nothing of the use of cottage cheese except as a sort of relish—mixed with cream or served as a salad or side dish, but as a matter of fact it can be made into all sorts of meat substitute dishes. I will be in Portland all of this week and will speak Monday at 3 p. m. at the Hotel Portland at a special meeting of the Caterers' association and on Wednesday and Friday in the auditorium of Meier & Frank company's store. The rest of the week has not yet been filled.

Mrs. Hallie K. Davis, government expert, who is this week lecturing in Portland on the food value of cottage cheese.

Following are a few of Mrs. Davis' choice recipes:

Cottage Cheese and Nut Loaf

Two cups cottage cheese, 1 cup chopped nuts (use local nuts if possible), 1 cup cold leftover cereal (any kind), 1 cup dry bread crumbs (corn or Victory bread), 2 tablespoons chopped onion, or ½ teaspoon onion juice, 1 tablespon fat, salt, pepper, 1-3 teaspoon soda or more to neutralize acid, poultry seasoning or mixed herbs, Worcestershire sauce, or kitchen bouquet if desired.

Mix all ingredients together thoroughly and bake in a buttered pan in a hot oven till top and sides are well browned over. Turn out on a hot platter. Serve with a brown or tomato sauce if desired.

Creamed Potatoes and Cottage Cheese

Reheat cold diced or sliced potatoes in medium white sauce with cottage cheese. The best seasoning for this sauce is a slice of onion added to the milk while heating and choped parsley and pimientos, 2-3 cup of potatoes and 1-3 cup of sauce making a generous serving. Boiled new potatoes may be served whole with this sauce.

Cottage Cheese Loaf No. 1

One cup cooked rice (dry and flaky), 1 cup cottage cheese, ½ cup ground peanuts, 1 cup bread crumbs (or more), 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 tablespoon savory fat or drippings, ¼ teaspoon soda, 1 cup strained tomato.

Mix well and form into a roll. Brush over with melted butter and bake in a moderate over 25 minutes. Serve with a medium white sauce to which may be added 2 tablespoons minced pimientos.

Cottage Cheese Pie

One cup cottage cheese, 2-3 cup sugar, 2-3 cup milk, 2 egg yolks, beaten; 1 tablespoon melted fat, salt, ¼ teaspoon vanilla.

Mix the ingredients in the order given. Bake the pie in one crust. Cool it slightly and cover it with meringue made by adding 2 tablespons of sugar and ½ teaspoon of vanila to the beaten whites of 2 eggs and brown it in a slow oven.

Organdy Waistcoat

A very attractive summer accessory for the linen or woolen suit is the checked organdy waistcoat, that cannot possibly add the least weight or warmth to the coat, yet gives a touch of color and a finish to the suit that is much to be desired. They are much cooler than the silk or pique waistcoats shown earlier in the season.

FRATERNAL

Assembly No. 1 Artisan Order, Is Active Body

By Alfred D. Cridge

OREGON ASSEMBLY No. 1, United Artisans, is the first, oldest, largest and one of the liveliest assemblies of the order that began in Oregon and is now extended into 11 states. It was organized January 21, 1895, in what was then known as the Golden Rule Bazaar building, now the Alisky building, at Third and Morrison streets. The promoters of the assembly were F. I. McKenna, P. L. Willis, S. W. Hall, W. D. Madigan and others. Its first master Artisan was a rising, middleaged lawyer, now Circuit Judge R. G. Morrow. Elmer E. Miller was chosen superintendent; C. E. Rumlin, treasurer. The original intention was to admit men only, but Jewell Assembly No. 12, composed of women, was united with Oregon Assembly in September, 1897.

The officers of the new assembly were Mrs. M. B. Brooke, master Artisan; S. T. Dove, superintendent; C. H. Chance, secretary; Dr. B. C. Yenny, inspector; Johana Leash, treasurer.

The members of the Oregon Assembly had some uphill tasks at first, and its growth to more than 900 members has not been by accident or luck. Its membership has always been active, and it has attracted many young people because of its social affairs and kindly fraternal spirit.

Dr. E. E. Van Alstine joined Jewell Assembly in 1896 and has been active in the upbuilding ever since. Since January 1, 1909, she has been secretary continuously, and is now supreme representative.

S. B. Vessey, master Artisan, joined the order 13 years ago, and is now serving his second term as head of Oregon No. 1. He occupied the position of inspector and of superintendent and demonstrated his fitness for the position at its head.

Officers associated with Master Artisan Vessey are Fred W. German, past master Artisan; Dan Wilson, superintendent; Charles Bressiar, inspector; Dr. E. E. Van Alstine, secretary; J. N. Russell, treasurer; Jennie Lewis, senior conductor; Mrs. E. B. Kellar, junior conductor; H. C. Courter, master of ceremonies; Mrs. Alice Lewis, warden; O. A. Hatton, instructor; A. L. Clifford, musician.

One of the attractive features of Oregon Assembly is its cadet team of 16 young women who are excellently drilled and give most artistic evolutions in the initiatory work. O. A. Hatton is now the instructor. He succeeds Susie Olson whose untiring energies did much to make the cadets of Oregon No. 1 famous on the coast and throughout the state.

Oregon Assembly meets every Tuesday night at Swiss hall, Jefferson and Third streets, and is one of the best known fraternal organizations in this city.

New Temple Is Next Step for Odd Fellows

BEFORE there was a chartered lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Portland a number of members were accustomed to meet in a little room over a butcher shop near the foot of Ankeny street, long since destroyed. Efforts were made to secure a charter in order that degree work could be given. Salem Odd Fellows beat the incipient Portland lodge to it with a charter in 1852. Samaritan, No. 2, was organized in 1853. Shortly after with characteristic enterprise of an I. O. O. F. lodge a site was looked for on which to put up a building. First and Alder streets was out of the beaten track and those early pioneer I. O. O. F. people were much divided as to its availability. Some thought the town never would grow out to make it a valuable site. It was purchased, however.

As the lodge grew in numbers and importance the paraphernalia and robes increased in value. Now locker after locker is filled with accessories and costumes. With what wonder those pioneer I. O. O. F. would have looked upon an electric lantern and artistic slides, more than life size, with which to illustrate the lessons and symbols of the "friendly order." With what astonishment would they have gazed upon a representation of the court of King Saul with that character arrayed in a costume that would have made the original green with envy! For Samaritan lodge has thousands of dollars invested in its locker contents, and a master of the robes spends half his time caring for them. Its degree work is noted far and wide for its detail work and its magnificent representation.

Ellison encampment features its degree work in the patriarchal branch of Odd Fellowship with additional scenery and accessories. Ellison encampment, Samaritan, Hassalo, Minerva, Columbia and Acme Rebekah lodges and other organizations, find the I. O. O. F. building too restricted and its accommodations insufficient. The old members, however, remember when it was the most magnificent I. O. O. F. lodge building in the Northwest, and brothers stopped over in Portland for several days to see degree work given when travel was mostly by river boats and stage. They oppose abandoning its old walls for an up to date building and resent the desire of the younger element to build on property owned at Tenth and Taylor streets.

Last year the proposed abandonment of the I. O. O. F. Temple was beaten only by one vote. Every class of young men adds to the number who demand the passing of the old order of things.

There are several members of the order in Portland who have been on its rolls for more than 50 years. Said one venerable member recently: "But for the war I expect this old building would have been gone by now. They came within one of a two thirds vote last year of ordering it torn down or sold. The young folks want a swell and up to date temple, and they will get it."

The relief committee of the I. O. O. F. has 35 cases of relief on its hands at present. It works only in the relief of those cases of members of the order from outside the city. Its work is always unostentatiously done, and its aggregate benefits amount to thousands of dollars. Where money is advanced to individuals without authority of their home lodges, as is often done, the brother relieved is the only one to look to for reimbursement. For the year endins July 1 the relief committee is out but $15 on amounts aggregating over $17,000 paid out.

The two methods of fraternal assistance in time of distress and trouble are exemplified in this city in the two lodges of the Knights of Pythias, Ivanhoe and Cosmopolitan. The first pays a fixed sick benefit under carefully laid down conditions, and in case of death a funeral benefit. The second organization does not pay any fixed sum, but if needs be and resources are, then accordingly. Each is progressing and maintaining the ideals of Pythianism. Of course Ivanhoe at times exceeds the strict limits when great need exists. Of course Cosmopolitan cannot always go as far as the heart would dictate. The fraternal spirit shades and modifies, but the principles are intended to be the same.

Albert Pike lodge No. 162, A. F. and A. M., Friday night at Masonic temple, conferred the degree of Master Mason upon a class of two in the presence of many visitors and military men. The officers and members of this lodge are becoming proficient in the work. A special meeting was held Wednesday night for degree work; the regular meeting Friday night and a third meeting Saturday night. These meetings are necessary in order to accommodate members and applicants who are wearing the khaki. On Friday night refreshments were served after labors in the temple.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Thomas have returned from Hood River where the Knights and Ladies of Security there welcomed them with a class of seven new members. The placing of Oregon in the [illegible] June is a source of great satisfaction to the state manager of the order. Oregon has been pitted against Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Iowa, with their many thousands of members, and has built up the order in Oregon so that he has hopes of going over the top entirely next fall.

Paper Parasols

One way to conserve fabrics is to carry paper parasols. The fact is at fashionable seashore resorts there is quite a vogue for attractive Japanese paper parasols, and as they are very much less expensive than silk parasols, the young girl who takes to this fad can secure a parasol to go with almost every frock in her wardrobe. They are made with wooden handles and short stubby ferules, such as one finds in many of the fabric parasols. By means of a ribbon or silk cord attached to the handle such a parasol can be dangled over the wrist when not in use.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine — double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—(Adv.)

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless. (Adv.)
