

Democratic Candidate for Governor Applies Lincoln's Story of Blondin to Present Crisis.

Tumalo, Or., July 23 .- At the pionic of settlers on the Tumalo Project, July Walter M. Pierce, Democratic candidate for governor, was the principal speaker.

In drawing comparison between this present day world crisis and a great. crisis of former years, Mr. Pierce said : "During the Civil war a committee visited President Lincoln and insisted on showing him how to correct the errors he was making in conducting the war. He called the committee's attention to Blondin, who at that time was the great tight rope walker of the world and was displaying his talents to admiring thousands by walking a wire rope stretched across the roaring Niagara. Lincoln said: 'Suppose Blondin was out on the rope over the falls, would you raise a great hue and yell to him: a little straighter, Blondin, a little to the left, a little to the right, or would you suppress all noise and pray for his success?"

Boiling points the real test of gasoline

Some motorists still judge the value of gasoline by the antiquated gravity test. But boiling points are the only real measure of gasoline value.

Low boiling points give easy starting, medium boiling points give quick and smooth acceleration and high boiling points give power and mileage.

As combustion starts with the lowest boiling points and flashes on through the medium to the highest, the chain must be complete for full-powered results.

Only a straight-distilled gasoline can have the continuous, uniform chain of boiling points. Mixtures always have "holes" in them.

> Red Crown, the Gasoline of Quality, is a straight distilled, all-refinery fuel having the full and complete chain of low boiling points for easy starting, medium boiling points for quick and smooth acceleration and high boiling points for power and mileage. Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.
