TODAY'S FORECASTS

Portland and vicinity—Fair tonight and Wednesday, winds mostly westerly.
Oregon and Washington—Tonight and Wednesday fair, winds mostly westerly.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

The barometer continues relatively high over the Pacific northwest and the south Atlantic states while a depression of low pressure over southern Utah, overtops the central portion of the country. Hains have fallen in the middle Canadian provinces, Montana, and Dakota, Minnesota, northern Illinois and southern New Mexico. The weather is much warmer generally over the territory east of the Missouri river, the temperatures being abnormally high from Iowa eastward to the middle Atlantic states.

Bought 86 Whiskey—An alleged "blind" establishment is believed to have been unearthed when Police Sergeant Van Overn arrested Pat O'Connell at First and Davis streets last night after the man had purchased a pint bottle of whiskey for $6. The officer followed the man who sold the liquor to the rear of a coffee house at 249 Couch street.

British Enlistments Increase

Enlistments at the British-Canadian recruiting mission have shown a noticeable increase since the draft treaty between the United States and Great Britain went into effect. Many British and Canadian subjects are seeking to enlist before September 29, when they will be subject to draft by the United States government.

Small Owners Join

More than 40 owners of small lumber mills in the vicinity of Eugene and points in the Rogue river valley have applied for admission to the West Coast Lumbermen's association. These 40 men have been members of a small organization and wish to avail themselves of the greater benefits of membership in the West Coast association.

Took Spruce Pictures

Sydney B. Vincent, in charge of the news service bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, has returned from Newberg where he has been taking motion pictures of the spruce logging industry. The pictures, it had been hoped, would include Director General Allen D. Ryan and the aircraft production board, but Newberg was left off Mr. Ryan's itinerary and consequently he was not photographed. However, the pictures taken show the spruce industry in splendid shape, Mr. Vincent believes.

Officers Invited to Party

A cozy party was broken into Monday night by the war emergency squad and several bottles of liquor were taken to the police station as evidence. E. E. Whiting and his wife were entertaining a friend who gave the name of N. C. Rofinal at their home at 110 North Eighth street when the plainclothes officers knocked they were invited to share the report alleged. The three were placed behind the bars on a charge of violating the prohibition ordinance.

To Distribute Tech. Students

Distribution of polytechnic students among the city high schools will be ordered while the Benson school is being used as a training place for Uncle Sam's fighting mechanics. A large number of the students will be accommodated at the Washington high. The government has made arrangements to use the Benson school for the period of the war and the first class of mechanics will be graduated about August 15 next.

Boys Enjoy Troops' Blankets

About 50 boys took blankets from a troop train that was standing on a sidetrack on the O-W. R. & N. line at the Irving docks last night when the blankets stretched nicely along the riverbank while they were in the water swimming. Motorcycle Officers Scott and Ingle made the boys return the blankets and notified the railway company always to lock the car doors.

PEOPLE LOYAL WITH REGARD TO BUYING SUGAR ALLOTMENTS

Food Administration Pleased With Manner in Which Citizens Adhere to the Rule.
The two-pound a month sugar regulation is now working effectively throughout the state, according to W. B. Ayer, federal food administrator for Oregon. Since August 1, all wholesale and retail grocers, hotel owners and eating house proprietors have been operating by the certificate plan, as evolved by the sugar branch of the sugar administration.

Accused of Larceny—Claud Ryan and Stanley Kargus, 18 years old, were brought back to Portland Monday afternoon by Inspectors Snow and Tackaberry, and are being held in the city jail on two charges of larceny. They were arrested in Salem. They are charged with having stolen the machine and the automobile of the Monday night postoffice substitution the night of July 31. About $70 worth of stamps was reported as stolen from the station.

Small Boy Missing—Eleven-year-old Ronald Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Harvey of 2115 East Twenty-fourth street, has been missing since Saturday evening. According to the child's parents the small lad left home before dark to go to the public library at East Twenty-fourth and Alberta streets. The boy has light hair, blue eyes, is four feet two inches tall, weighs 90 pounds and wears a dark suit and new shoes when last seen. The police are making a thorough search for the missing child.

Decreased Enrollment Expected—No additions to high school faculties are being made, according to acting School Superintendent D. B. East. The reason that decreased enrollment is expected at the opening of the fall term. Numbers of boys and girls have gone away for summer activities. The teachers annual meeting will be held September 7, instead of before the opening of the new school year, as formerly.

Will Entertain G. A. E.—The Lang Sive society has joined in the appeal to Portland householders for rooms in which to house the delegates to the Grand Encampment. A letter from the president of the society was sent to all members asking them to send in lists of the number of visitors each can accommodate during the encampment. The members are asked to notify President E. E. Beach, 518 Oregon building the number each can care for.

Accid Woman Injured—Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, 67 years old, of 3823 Fortliam avenue southeast was badly injured Monday night when she was struck by a Mount Scott streetcar at Sixty-second street and Foster road. She suffered internal injuries, a fractured wrist. She was taken by the Ambulance Service company to the Good Samaritan hospital, where her condition was found to be quite serious.

Soldiers Take Oath—Between 500 and 700 soldiers, a majority of whom hail from the Vancouver military reservation, will appear before Judge Wolverton of the United States district court in the Armory Thursday, when they will be granted hearings for naturalization. This is the largest number of men who have sought naturalization before a court in this district. Federal Court Clerk G. H. Marsh will issue the oath of allegiance.

Children Accused of Setting Fire—Children in Montavilla are said to have started a fire Monday in a vacant house at 1930 East Washington street. When the fire department arrived the house was a mass of flames and the rear end was destroyed. Fire Marshal Grenfell said he found one boy in the neighborhood with singed hair, but could not get a confession out of anyone. Three boys are under suspicion.

Woman Attempts Suicide—While in a fit of despondency Monday night, Mrs. F. Balabo, 18, attempted suicide by swallowing poison at her home, 309 Russell street. According to the police, Mrs. Balabo arrived in Portland Saturday. It is said her husband is at Camp Lewis. She is expected to recover, according to an announcement made this morning.

Unknown Woman Injured—A. J. Matot of 440 Twelfth street, is reported by the police to have struck a woman with his automobile at Fifth and Alder streets Monday evening. The woman was taken into the Meier & Frank store for medical treatment, but the police have been unable to learn her name or the extent of her injuries.

Dairymen Is Fined—For refusing to comply with the instructions of Fire Marshal Grenfell, Henry Nagell, proprietor of the Knowledge dairy at 475 Jefferson street, was fined $10 in the city court this morning. Grenfell testified that Nagell had three fire hazards in his place of business which he refused to remove.

Chinese Cook Arrested—Charley Chung, cook at the Mandarin cafe at 367 1/2 Morrison street, was arrested Monday night by Officers Fair and Powell on charges of assaulting a woman, Beatrice Barnes, a waitress. According to the report of the officers, the cook has been abusive to the women employees and is a drunkard. This means that he is a dangerous man. He is being held in the city jail.

Oregon to Send Marksmen—An effort is to be made to send 16 marksmen, civilian or military, from Oregon to Camp Perry, Ohio, September 16, to participate in the national rifle matches. The federal government pays expenses. Oregon won second place at one of the matches held in Florida in 1916.

Thief Steals Out Bags—The Stephenson company at 234 Front street reported to the police that a thief had stolen the store last night and stole 250 second-hand out bags. From appearance the sacks are said to have been carried away in an automobile.

Reed College Organ Recital—Lucien E. Becker, F. A. G. O., will give a recital of organ music tonight in the Reed college chapel at 8:30 o'clock. This is the fourth in a series of weekly organ recitals which Mr. Becker is giving. The public is invited.

Fire on Broadway Bridge—Fire broke out again on the Broadway bridge Monday night, but did little damage. According to the police, the fire started from a short circuit in the trolley wire, when the draw was being raised.

Wheat Shipment to Aid Lumber Moving

Every Car of Wheat Shipped West to Be Placed in Boats Will Give Empty Car for Lumber.
The shipment of wheat to Northwest ports for transportation by water to the Atlantic coast will greatly aid the campaign for increased transportation of fir lumber east by rail, said Captain Allen Marsh of the production branch of the construction division, Washington, D. C., Monday.

WAGE FIGURES OF SHIPYARDS LARGE

Oregon Concerns Paid $12,318,216 for 2,266,727 Work Days in Half Year.
Salem, Aug. 6.—While the giant strides made in shipbuilding in Oregon in the last two years are known far and near, figures showing the number of workdays and the payrolls of all the shipyards operating in Oregon are nevertheless astonishing in their size.

Alleged Kaiserite Held Under Spy Act

George Price, who was employed as ship carpenter by the Grant Smith-Porter company, is detained in the county jail by Assistant United States Attorney Goldstein for investigation on the charge of violation of the espionage act. Price, who has been working at the plant but two weeks, is said to have made the remark that the kaiser would soon be over here and that he did not have to buy Liberty bonds. Price is also alleged to have said that the more our boys killed in France the better it would be for the working men.

Buxton Man Is on List of Casualties

Among the men reported wounded in action in France is included Sergeant C. W. Watson of Buxton, Or. His name appeared in one of the casualty lists forwarded today by General Pershing to the war department. Buxton is on the Tillamook line of the Southern Pacific.

County Court Notes

At the request of Sheriff Hurlburt and Thomas H. Sherrard of the forest service county commissioners have appointed William McCreddie as a special officer at Eagle creek Saturday and Sunday of each week. The rest of the week his time will be in the forestry service.

Warning to Ice Men

Commissioner John M. Mann has ordered all local ice concerns to be careful not to deliver short weights to customers. Additional inspectors will be put out if necessary, to stop reported violations. Failure to comply will result in prosecutions, declares Commissioner Mann.
