MEETING AT AUDITORIUM

Special Musical Program and List of Able Speakers Is Announced for Sunday Afternoon.

UNDAY will be known in Portland's churches as "Fourth Liberty Loan Sunday." The patriotic appeal will be heard during the day from all pulpits, the general ministerium having decided to preach on topics that would further the Liberty loan drive. Sunday evening, after the church services are dismissed, it is intended that not a peron who has attended church during the day in Portland shall be able to plead ignorance of the object, amount and importance of the fourth Liberty loan

As a climax to the meetings of the day, a monster mass meeting is to be neld Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in The Auditorium, at which time every church in the city is expected to be represented as a means of once more showing the patriotism and loyalty of the membership in the fourth Liberty

EVANGELIST L. K. DICKSON

Free Lecture at Christensen's Hall, 11th Street, Bet. Morrison and Yamhill, Sunday Night, Sep-tember 22, at 8 o'Clock

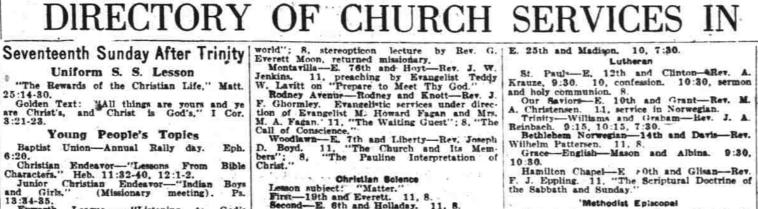

In this lecture Evangelist Dickson makes clear from the Bible the duty of every Christian to uphold the great principles of his government and points out the danger of allowing certain so-called national reformers to break down called national reformers to break down the great foundation stones of the American constitution. He shows that a true Christian cannot place obstructions in the way of the government in its efforts in the present war, striving to hide behind the so-called conscientious objection.
