Three of Four Central Powers Engaged Successfully in Addition to Russian Bolsheviks; ACTIVITY IN ALBANIA NOTED

Fighting on Italian Front Still Desultory Although it Has Increased Perceptibly in Week.

TWO RUSSIAN FRONTS AND THE TRANS-SIBERIAN ROUTE

Map showing the great eastern battlefront which may soon become active. The allies have landed at Vladivostok, on the Sea of Japan, and on the Murman coast of the Arctic ocean. On this latter front an important battle was fought during the past week at Ukhlinkay, 100 miles west of Kora, where the allied forces decisively defeated the Bolshevik army. Bolshevik garrisons on the Dvina river have been sunk. The seat of the new government of North Russia is at Archangel, at the mouth of the Dvina. Czech-Slovak troops from Eastern and Central Siberia are gathering at Irkutsk, on the Trans-Siberian railway, and as soon as they are in condition will cross the Ural mountains to the aid of the anti-Bolshevik forces near Tomsk. This map gives an excellent idea of the gigantic country which Germany has hoped to acquire through the connivance of the Bolshevik leaders.

positions from 100 to 200 yards beyond their starting point.

The character of the opposition encountered in the section which is one of the few remaining outside the main defenses of the Hindenburg line, was taken to indicate the seriousness with which the German command regards the menace to positions heretofore considered impregnable.

That the Germans had intended to hold the essential outposts was revealed tonight by new trench systems in front of the canal.

This afternoon's check, however, was regarded as only temporary.

With the British Armies in France, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—In the midst of a terrific storm, a British machine gun forward on a three-mile front west of the important railway junction of La Catelet this morning.

The attack was delivered eastward from Epehy and Tempre against the only point between Cambrai and St. Quentin where the Germans still hold the outpost positions of the Hindenburg line.

The enemy defenses here are unusually strong. They consist of a series of apurs stretch toward the British positions. There is a perfect maze of trenches about La Petit Friez farm (a mile north of Epehy) and a double-line trench system. All this makes the going extremely hard, but at least 400 prisoners were taken in the first few hours of fighting.

In contrast to the spirit of the heroic Highlanders mentioned in Field Marshal Haig's communique today, the first and third battalions of the first German guards reserve division refused to enter the line Thursday, according to information obtained from prisoners today. They eventually obeyed orders and their losses were heavy.

The grueling fighting likewise has broken the spirit of the famous Jagers. Prisoners of that unit admit it, pointing out the seriousness of their losses. One troop of the twentieth battalion after Thursday's battle had broken the spirit of the famous Jagers. The first company of the twenty-first battalion lost 20 men out of 35; the fourth company lost 50 out of 85.

The section in the center is shown in a shift from a captured Mengersburg, found on a captured guardman. The letter read:

"The reports indicate colossal losses in your sector. The stories based on a general staff report which I have never read, but it must have been serious. There is talk that the losses have reached 50,000."

The Germans north of Kippe (a mile east of Merskem) was reported by the Belgian command tonight.

"North of Kippe, Thursday night, we recaptured lost trench elements which the enemy captured Wednesday," the communique said.

Day Uneventful Says Pershing

Washington, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Aside from patrol encounters and increase in aviation activity in the Woerve region, the day was uneventful in sectors occupied by our troops, General Pershing's communique said today.

passed by the legislature and operate its own ships. When we begin building and operating 6000 ton wooden ships we may expect to be able to meet competition. If we are going to build up any line of trade successfully and permanently.

China is described in an announcement of the Asia Banking corporation as one of the very richest fields awaiting commercial, industrial and financial cultivation. The steadily increasing influx of foreigners into China since the beginning of the war is significant of vast future possibilities, as well as of the fundamental and far-reaching political and social changes which are transforming China into a country of attractive business and investment opportunities.

Rapid Growth Noted

Ample evidence of the growing realization of the Asia Banking corporation is to be found in the latest official reports, which disclose that there were in China, in 1917, 7085 foreign firms and 320,485 foreign residents as compared with 4743 firms and 155,812 residents in 1914.

"The public loan at Vladivostok to China by the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan, which has been sanctioned by our state department, will enable China not only to take a more active part in the world economy, but will also materially increase the economic and financial rehabilitation of the country. It will tend indirectly, but nevertheless potentially, to foster trade relations between the Chinese and the leading nations and lay the basis for the future participation of the latter in the development of China.

"And, through the expansion of China's commerce, the ships which the pressing needs of war are sending down the ways along our Pacific coast will find profitable cargoes when peace is established. As a consequence our seaports on the great western ocean will steadily grow more important and prosperous."

Americans Repulse Attacks

With the Americans on the Metz front, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—The Germans made two large raids against the right wing of the American line this morning. They were heavy enough almost to be designated as attacks. Both were completely repulsed.

The first one was by far the most pretentious. The enemy laid down a barrage on front of three and a half kilometers (more than two miles) along the line of Bois De Epage (on the west bank of the Moselle, south of Vandiere). The infantry then started to attack, but was stopped by the American rifle and machine gunfire. The next attempted raid, coming shortly afterward, likewise failed.

Portions of the American rear areas were heavily shelled today, particularly in the regions of Vincy-Sur-Troy and Bois De Frairie (west of Font A Mousson).

Eight large fires were observed behind the German lines near Dommarthein (four miles north of Thiaucourt).

Extensive movements have been observed in the rear of the German lines, near St. Die, in Alsace. The enemy front lines in that region are said to have been mined. The Boches are gassing the American lines in Alsace extensively. They launched a phosgene gas attack, as well as throwing over 5000 mustard gas shells in the last two nights.

The present clear, moonlight nights afford excellent opportunities for bombing raids, and the airman are busy every night in several enemy regions, particularly around Metz.

Low morale is shown by prisoners taken in the Vosges, as well as on the Metz front. The former say they heard rumors of an Armistice on St. Michael, but did not know that the salient had been wiped out. They say the men in the trenches believe the war will end in five or six weeks, without a decisive victory for either side. They declare the Germans do not hate anyone, the trouble being that the whole world is aligned against Germany.

and other trade lines which must be established by this city.

"While we do not expect it to be possible to bring about active trade until after the war, we will be in the meantime preparing and this should become a center of information on resources, credits, shipping conditions, trade conditions and other items needful to prompt and successful handling of business."

Must Meet Competition

"The period of waiting until the war ends may also be spent in ascertaining the steps necessary to equip this port with vessels controlled here and operated from here. If necessary and if capable management is obtained, it would be desirable for the port to use the authority granted in a law recently

House Passes Big Appropriation Bill

Washington, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—The house late today passed the agricultural appropriation bill carrying $27,800,000 to carry on the work of the agricultural department until next July.

The bill is the same as that passed several months ago, except for the provisions for $2.40 wheat, which caused a presidential veto of the original measure.

The food stimulation bill, which contains the wartime prohibition feature, will come up in the house Monday.

Berlin Says Attack Failed

Berlin, via London, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Repulse of British attacks between Goussaucourt and Hargicourt was reported by the German war office tonight.

"Between Goussaucourt and Hargicourt in front of our Siegfried line positions large English attacks failed, with heavy enemy losses," the statement said.

"Evacuation of Essigny Le Grand (south of St. Quentin) was announced by the German war office.

Several allied attacks were attempted between Vauxaillon and Jouy (between the Aisne and the Alliette). All were repulsed except on the high ridge west of Jouy, where the French obtained a footing, it declared.

British Make Progress

London, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—The British have made substantial progress on the whole front of attack, Field Marshal Haig announced in his communique tonight.

"Eastward of Epehy," said the statement, "a minor operation this morning advanced the line. Despite strong morning counter attacks, substantial progress was made on the whole front of attack.

"In the Hargicourt sector we progressed farther and took a number of prisoners."

SLACKERS AND SHIRKERS OF THE FOURTH LOAN TO BE HUNTED DOWN IN THE CITY CAMPAIGN.

Citizens of Portland, and workers in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign.

Portland is faced with the first real crisis in her career of patriotic achievement. Unless the city awakens, and unless the city forces redouble their efforts, the Fourth loan will fall in a community that boasts its loyalty.

It shall not fail!

SLACKERS AND SHIRKERS ARE TO BE HUNTED DOWN.

Effective at once, an organization of special solicitors will take up the unpleasant task of revisiting those who are able to subscribe and who have not. Such are slackers.

Effective at once, the same organization will visit those who are abundantly able to subscribe more than they have pledged. Such are shirkers.

"No one dollar—but two," is the ratio of the Fourth loan.

REDouble EVERY EFFORT. LEST PORTLAND BE SHAMED FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE SWORD WAS DRAWN!

CAPTAIN HIRSCH TELLS GRATITUDE OF FRENCH PEOPLE

Same Spirit of Sacrifice Which Actuates French Mothers Is Found in American Mothers.

GREAT GOOD IS BEING DONE

With Mothers of Men Standing Back of Sons in Battle, Victory for Allies Is Promised.

Patriotic mothers of France touched hands with patriotic mothers of Portland, figuratively, last night at The Auditorium, when Captain Edward Hirsch, member of the French high commission, gave to the assembled women and their friends a heartfelt message from across the sea.

"The same spirit of courage and self-sacrifice which characterized the French mothers in this hour of bloodshed and suffering actuates the loyal daughters of the Stars and Stripes," said the distinguished speaker.

He spoke of the great good the women of America are accomplishing in helping to carry the wearisome burden thrust upon them by the ravages of war. He emphasized the point that, with the mothers of men standing solidly and heroically behind their sons in the strife, victory would come to the cause for which the allies are fighting.

The speaker's words brought tears to the eyes of scores of mothers whose sacrifices for democracy were indicated by the service stars which they wore.

Circuit Judge Robert Tucker spoke reverently of the solemn nature of the occasion and paid a word of tribute to the immortal Lafayette, America's friend in the time of need.

Three thousand people, most of them mothers of American soldiers in active service, were present. The meeting was a fitting climax to the Mothers' parade which earlier in the evening commanded the admiration of thousands.

Mrs. Sarah Evans was chairman. Mrs. Jane Burns Albert, former patriotic soloist and William R. Boone presided at the organ. George Wiley presided at the piano, singing "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Woman Injured in Collision

Mrs. P. Shovio, of 1540 Knott street, received serious injuries Friday night when an automobile which her husband was driving collided with a St. Johns streetcar at Williams avenue and Alberta streets. It is thought that his collar bone was fractured in the accident.

ADVANCED DANCING CLASSES

for fancy ball room dances and new steps start Monday evening, September 23d. All the professional steps of dancing. You will enjoy yourself more than you could at any dancing party. Two-thirds of my pupils have failed to learn from inferior teachers. They had spent money for inferior private lessons or short class lessons. Some had taken 40 or 50 lessons, yet they could not dance. The fact was the dances had not been properly taught to them. They could not lead and did not have the proper amount of practice to become graceful. If you have failed with such instructors, join our classes. You will make a practical dancer of you.

PRIVATE LESSONS

If you desire to learn in a short time you will give private lessons at 10 o'clock and will be ready to teach at 11 o'clock. Ball room and exhibition dancing. Normal instructions for dancing teachers.

A TEACHER OF EXPERIENCE AND ABILITY

Mr. DeHoney is acknowledged to be one of America's most graceful dancers, best instructors and leading authorities on dancing. He has erected and conducted the best schools of dancing in the Louis, Kansas City, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Milwaukee, Los Angeles and Chicago. He has given instruction and normal instructions in almost every city in the United States and Canada. If you desire to have the most complete ball room dance or most beautiful stage dance, call day or evening. You will be convinced that the above statements are true and that one lesson from us is worth six in the average school. Call at once. Phone Main 7686. Clip this Ad out. Tell your friends. (Adv.)
