Ensign John J. Higgins, formerly of the Oregon Naval militia but now in command of submarine chaser No. 345 given her sonual going over by the inin British waters, is hugely enjoying his experience in "chasing Fritz around the Atlantic," according to a letter respectors. ceived by Lieutenant Harold C. Jones of the sea service bureau.

Ensign Higgins has had valuable experience, he writes, and while he has four days on duty he also has four off. Ensign Higgins was on the Arizona before taking command of the sub-chaser and may possibly be sent across to get one of the Eagle destroyers now being
