

BAKER FORCED TO SQUANDER BIG SUM PRINTING TAX LIST

Taxpayers by Reason of Publication Graft in Delinquent Taxes Squeezed Out of $4900.

PRICE IN 7 YEARS $5351.49

Amount Required, if Notices Sent by Mail as Proposed Law Provides, Would Have Been $350.

It has cost Baker county taxpayers $5351.49 to publish the delinquent tax lists of that county since the present publication statute was enacted in 1911. In 1912 the Morning Democrat and the Baker Herald were each paid $550.80, the rate being 17 cents per column inch. In 1913 the same papers were paid $516.12 each, the rate being the same as for the previous year. In 1914 the Baker Herald alone printed the list, being paid at the rate of 35 cents per column inch, the total being $579.08. In 1915 the Morning Democrat was the only paper printing the list, it receiving a total of $458.15 at the rate of 17 cents per inch. In 1917 the list was published in both the Morning Democrat and the Baker Herald. The Democrat published the list for 5 cents per inch for the first insertion and 3 cents per inch for the remaining publications. Its total compensation was $473.53. The Herald was paid 17 cents per inch for the same work and received $650.42. In 1918 both papers printed the list, each receiving 4 cents per inch at a total compensation of $323.52 per paper.

Lots of White Space
In 1918 there were but 372 parcels of property listed as delinquent. In order to make the publication worth while the lists were set "wide open" by both papers. In addition there were five publications in each paper, which padded the list with white space for the same work and received $166 upon the taxpayers. The system of 1918 was not much different, if any, from that practiced in the former years. Had the delinquent tax notice bill, which will be on the November ballot for approval by the voters of the state, been the law during the past seven years, the taxpayers of Baker county, who paid the charges of publication of the lists, would have been some $4900 better off financially.

Direct Notice Cost Little
The Delinquent Tax Notice bill provides that letter notices be sent to delinquent property owners, giving them the same information regarding their taxes as is now required by law to be included in the published notice. The difference is that the notice by publication is expensive and theoretical, while the notice by letter would be direct and economical.

It would have cost $11.16 in postage to have sent a 3 cent letter for each parcel of delinquent property in Baker county as shown by the list published this year. The entire expense of sending letter notices, postage and all, would not have exceeded $50. The difference in expense for 1918 would have been the difference between $667.04, paid for the publication of the lists, and $50, or $617.04. That sum, in other words, is one year's waste and overcharge.

Typical of Other Places
At the same rate of postage, which is higher now than in the past, it would have cost approximately $78.12 for postage for the seven years from 1912 to 1918 inclusive, the period covered by the existing publication law. At the estimated total rate of $50 per year the cost under the Delinquent Tax Notice bill, or the letter mail plan, would have been $350. The total cost of publication, as shown from the record, was $5351.49. The loss to the taxpayers of the county, who have been assessed for the publication, amounts to approximately $4923.57.

The history of delinquent tax advertising in Baker county is typical of the history of every other county in the state.

Asks More Time
Salem, Sept. 27.—The state desert land board today forwarded to the Oregon delegation in congress a resolution passed by the board urging congress to pass a special act granting the state 10 years additional time in which to complete the reclamation of the Tumalo irrigation project. Under present laws 15 years' time is allowed, and this period has almost expired.

Price Fixing Postponed
Washington, Sept. 27.—Basic price fixing of cotton was postponed Thursday by the price fixing committee of the war industries board till November 15, indicating that the investigation of the industry now being made will be completed at that time.

Tigard Schoolhouse Burns; Student Fire Drill Is Orderly

A four-room schoolhouse at Tigard, Or., burned to the ground Wednesday noon. The morning session of school was just ending. A fire had been started in the furnace for the first time in the new semester. The principal scented smoke, and turned in the signal for a fire drill. The students, unsuspecting a real fire, marched out of the building in an orderly manner. When the children reached the road outside of the playground, they noticed that the roof of the building was ablaze and sparks were still coming from the chimney. There was no means of protection for the building, and the teachers had to watch the destruction.

Dead Man Was Fisherman
Roseburg, Sept. 27.—Ralph Fischer, whose body was so badly mangled by the train near Dole, about 15 miles south of this city last night, was with a party of Alaska fishermen who had returned to Seattle and were sent to San Francisco to receive their pay for the past six months.
